War Beyond the Battlefield David Grondin, 2013-09-13 In an effort to make sense of war beyond the battlefield in studying the wars that were captured under the rubric of the War on Terror this special issue book seeks to explore the complex spatial relationships between war and the spaces that one is not used to thinking of as the battlefield It focuses on the conflicts that still animate the spaces and places where violence has been launched and that the war has not left untouched In focusing on war beyond the battlefield it is not that the battlefield as the place where war is waged has gone in smoke or has borne out of importance it is rather the case that the battlefield has been dis placed re designed re shaped and rethought through new spatializing practices of warfare These new spaces of war new in the sense that they are not traditionally thought of as spaces where war takes place or is brought to are television screens cellular phones and bandwidth George W Bush s ranch in Crawford Texas videogames popular culture sites news media blogs and so on These spaces of war beyond the battlefield are crucial to understanding what goes on the battlefield in Iraq Afghanistan or in other fronts of the War on Terror such as the homeland to understand how terror has globally been waged beyond the battlefield This book was originally published as a special issue of Geopolitics

Clayton,2024-02-06 Horror s pleasures fundamentally hinge on looking backward either on destabilising trauma or as a period of comfort and happiness which is undermined by threat However this stretches beyond the scares on our screens to the consumption and criticism of the monsters of our past The horror films of our youth can be locations of psychological and social trauma or the happy place we go back to for comfort when our lives become unsettled Horror That Haunts Us Nostalgia Revisionism and Trauma in Contemporary American Horror is a collection of essays that brings together multiple theoretical and critical approaches to consider the way popular horror films from the last fifty years communicate embody and rework our view of the past Whether we look at our current relationship to the scary movies of decades ago as personal or cultural memory the way historical and sociopolitical events and frameworks especially traumas reframe the way we look at our pasts or even the way recent horror films and video games look back at our past and the past of the genre itself
