Texas Market Hunting R. K. Sawyer, 2013-10-01 From its earliest days of human habitation the Texas coast was home to seemingly endless clouds of ducks geese swans and shorebirds By the 1880s Texas hunters or market hunters as they came to be called began providing meat and plumage for the restaurant tables and millinery salons of a rapidly growing nation A network of suppliers packers distribution centers and shipping hubs efficiently handled their immense harvest At the peak of Texas market hunting in the late 1890s Rockport merchants shipped an average of 600 ducks a day in a five month shooting season and in the last year of legal market hunting an estimated 60 000 ducks and geese were shipped from Corpus Christi alone Market men employed efficient methods to harvest nature's bounty They commonly hunted at night often using bait to concentrate large numbers of waterfowl The effectiveness of the hunt was improved when side by side double barrel shotguns and large gauge swivel guns gave way to repeating firearms with some capable of discharging as many as eleven shells in a single volley Their methods were so efficient that by the late 1800s Texas sportsmen and others blamed the alarming decline of coastal waterfowl populations on the market hunter's occupation In 1903 after a long fight and many failures the first migratory bird game law passed the Texas legislature Though the fight would continue it was the beginning of the end of the year round slaughter Most market hunters quit and those who didn't became outlaws In this book R K Sawyer chronicles the days of market hunting along the Texas coast and the showdown between the early game wardens and those who persisted in commercial waterfowl hunting Containing an abundance of rare historical photographs and oral history Texas Market Hunting Stories of Waterfowl Game Laws and Outlaws provides a comprehensive and colorful account of this bygone period

Money for Nothing Sir Pelham Grenville Wodehouse, 1952-01-01 The picturesque village of Rudge in the Vale dozed in the summer

sunshine Along its narrow High Street the only signs of life visible were a cat stropping its backbone against the Jubilee Watering Trough some flies doing deep breathing exercises on the hot window sills and a little group of serious thinkers who propped up against the wall of the Carmody Arms were waiting for that establishment to open At no time is there ever much doing in Rudge s main thoroughfare but the hour at which a stranger entering it is least likely to suffer the illusion that he has strayed into Broadway Piccadilly or the Rue de Rivoli is at two o clock on a warm afternoon in July You will find Rudge in the Vale if you search carefully in that pleasant section of rural England where the gray stone of Gloucestershire gives place to Worcestershire s old red brick Quiet in fact almost unconscious it nestles beside the tiny river Skirme and lets the world go by somnolently content with its Norman church its eleven public houses its Pop to quote the Automobile Guide of 3 541 and its only effort in the direction of modern progress the emporium of Chas Bywater Chemist Chas Bywater is a live wire He takes no afternoon siesta but works while others sleep Rudge as a whole is inclined after luncheon to go into the back room put a handkerchief over its face and take things easy for a bit But not Chas Bywater At the moment at which this story begins he was all bustle and activity and had just finished selling to Colonel Meredith Wyvern a bottle of Brophy s Paramount Elixir said to be good for gnat bites Having concluded his purchase Colonel Wyvern would have preferred to leave but Mr Bywater was a man who liked to sweeten trade with pleasant conversation Moreover this was the first time the Colonel had been inside his shop since that sensational affair up at the Hall two weeks ago and Chas Bywater who held the unofficial position of chief gossip monger to the village was aching to get to the bottom of that With the bare outline of the story he was of course familiar Rudge Hall seat of the Carmody family for so many generations contained in its fine old park a number of trees which had been planted somewhere about the reign of Queen Elizabeth This meant that every now and then one of them would be found to have become a wobbly menace to the passer by so that experts had to be sent for to reduce it with a charge of dynamite to a harmless stump Well two weeks ago it seems they had blown up one of the Hall s Elizabethan oaks and as near as a toucher Rudge learned had blown up Colonel Wyvern and Mr Carmody with it The two friends had come walking by just as the expert set fire to the train and had had a very narrow escape Thus far the story was common property in the village and had been discussed nightly in the eleven tap rooms of its eleven public houses But Chas Bywater with his trained nose for news and that sixth sense which had so often enabled him to ferret out the story behind the story when things happen in the upper world of the nobility and gentry could not help feeling that there was more in it than this He decided to give his customer the opportunity of confiding in him
