The Gunther Heritage:

The Gunther Heritage Janet Louise Roberts, Louisa Bronte, 1981 Archaeology, Ethnography, and Tolowa Heritage at Red Elderberry Place, Chvn-su'lh-dvn, Jedediah Smith Redwoods State Park Shannon Tushingham, 2013 Tucked away in the extreme northwestern corner of California lies a land of stunning beauty composed of a craggy coastline deep forests and roughhewn mountains At its heart flows the Smith River one of the last undammed rivers in California Arising from its headwaters in the Klamath Mountains and emptying into the ocean some ten miles north of Crescent City the sinuous aquamarine colored Smith River is the ancestral home of the Tolowa people This volume Number 30 in our series of Publications in Cultural Heritage is about the Tolowa their deep past their more recent history and their rich cultural heritage as viewed from a single locality within Jedediah Smith Redwoods State Park named Chvnsu lh dvn TcuncuLtn or Red Elderberry Place Presented within is a unique blend of rigorous archaeological investigation local history and ethnography This volume is the result of three years worth of research conducted by California State Parks National Park Service University of California Davis private cultural resource management firms and local historical societies in cooperation with the Elk Valley and Smith River Rancherías and the general Tolowa community The unique and ongoing partnership between all these parties has led to the discovery and documentation of an extremely long occupational history spanning about 8 500 years Among other discoveries this project has revealed the earliest plank houses the only semi subterranean sweathouse recorded to date in northwestern California and the earliest evidence of tobacco smoking on the Pacific Northwest Coast Preface Kentuckians and Pearl Harbor Berry Craig, 2020-11-01 When the air raid alarm sounded around 7 55 a m on December 7 1941 Gunner s Mate Second Class James Allard Vessels of Paducah was preparing to participate in morning colors aboard the USS Arizona In the scramble for battle stations Vessels quickly climbed to a machine gun platform high atop the mainmast as others descended below decks to help pass ammunition up to gunners At 8 06 a bomb exploded and the Arizona sank Vessels s lofty perch saved his life but most of his shipmates were not so lucky In Kentuckians and Pearl Harbor Berry Craig employs an impressive array of newspapers unpublished memoirs oral histories and official military records to offer a ground up look at the day that Franklin D Roosevelt said would live in infamy and its aftermath in the Bluegrass State In a series of vignettes Craig uncovers the untold forgotten or little known stories of ordinary people military and civilian on the most extraordinary day of their lives Craig concludes by exploring the home front reaction to this pivotal event in American history Japan s surprise attack on Pearl Harbor swept away any illusions Kentuckians had about being able to stay out of World War II From Paducah to Pikeville people sprang to action Their voices emerge and come back to life in this engaging and timely history The Greatest Day in History Nicholas Best, 2009-10-13 World War I did not end neatly with the Germans surrender After a dramatic week of negotiations military offensives and the beginning of a Communist revolution the German Imperial regime collapsed The Allies eventually granted an armistice to a new German government and at 11 00 on November 11 the guns officially ceased fire but only after 11 000 more casualties had been sustained The London Daily Express proclaimed it the greatest day in history Nicholas Best tells the story in sweeping cinematic style following a set of key participants through the twists and turns of these climactic events and sharing the impressions of eyewitnesses including Adolf Hitler Charles de Gaulle Harry S Truman Anthony Eden and future famous generals MacArthur Patton and Montgomery Pennsylvania Heritage, 2006 Hollywood Behind the Wall

Daniela Berghahn, 2005-07-15 This book is a representative history of East German film culture from 1946 to the present examining both DEFA's celebrated classics and the most acclaimed post unification feature films by East German directors As Berghahn shows East German cinema occupies an ambivalent position between German national cinema on the one hand and East European and Soviet cinema on the other It includes a wide ranging exploration of post unification cinema from East Germany including cult films such as Sun Alley and Goodbye Lenin and provides contextualized readings of twenty significant films referencing one hundred and ninety East German films in total along with numerous West German and East European classics Pioneers of Riverside County Steve Lech, 2012-11-20 Riverside County encompasses more than two million people and most of the width of California from Los Angeles's eastern suburbs to the Arizona state line at the Colorado River Historian Steve Lech captures the vanished past of this vast swath of deserts and mountains the eras of Spanish and then Mexican rule and the exploits of the earliest settlers of the American period Juan Bautista de Anza Louis Robidoux and many other namesake figures of today's geography are described in this unabridged excerpt of the author's comprehensive and masterly history Along the Old Roads Khobar Towers: Tragedy and Response Perry D. Jamieson, 2008 This account of the Khobar Towers bombing tells the story of the horrific attack and the magnificent response of airmen doing their duty under nearly impossible circumstances None of them view their actions as heroic yet the reader will marvel at their calm professionalism All of them say it was just their job but the reader will wonder how they could be so well trained to act almost instinctively to do the right thing at the right time None of them would see their actions as selfless yet countless numbers refused medical attention until the more seriously injured got treatment Throughout this book the themes of duty commitment and devotion to comrades resoundingly underscore the notion that America's brightest bravest and best wear her uniforms in service to the nation This book is more than heroic actions though for there is also controversy Were commanders responsible for not adequately protecting their people What should one make of the several conflicting investigations following the attack Dr Jamieson has not shied away from these difficult questions and others but has discussed them and other controversial judgments in a straightforward and dispassionate way that will bring them into focus for everyone It is clear from this book that there is a larger issue than just the response to the bombing It is the issue of the example set by America's airmen Future airmen who read this book will be stronger and will stand on the shoulders of those who suffered and those who made the ultimate sacrifice Khobar Towers Perry D. Jamieson, 2008 Tells the story of only a few of hundreds of airmen who were at the Khobar Towers that night Tuesday June 25 1996 It recounts what they were doing just prior to the bombing and what happened to them immediately after providing an idea of activities of airmen on a summer night during Operation Southern Watch Provides experiences from mechanics on the flightline at King Abdul Aziz Air Base to the security of policemen on the roof of Building 131 at the Khobar Towers Captured Heritage Douglas Cole,2011-11-01

The heyday of anthropological collecting on the Northwest Coast took place between 1875 and the Great Depression The scramble for skulls and skeletons poles canoes baskets feast bowls and masks went on until it seemed that almost everything not nailed down or hidden was gone The period of most intense collecting on the coast coincided with the growth of anthropological museums which reflected the realization that time was running out and that civilization was pushing the indigenous people to the wall destroying their material culture and even extinguishing the native stock itself Douglas Cole examines the process of collecting in the context of the development of museums and anthropology The main North American museums with Northwest Coast collections the Smithsonian Institution the American Museum of Natural History Chicago s Field Museum of Natural History the Royal British Columbia Museum and the Canadian Museum of Civilization in Ottawa were intense rivals in the race against time For the new edition of Captured Heritage Douglas Cole has written a preface in which he outlines developments since the book s first publication in 1985 Since that time for example the Kwagiulth Museum and Cultural Center on Quadra Island and the U Mista Museum and Cultural Center at Alert Bay have been successful in having some of their artifacts repatriated
