The Ironblue Vault Selected Poems:

The Iron-blue Vault Attila József, 1999 A selection of poems by twentieth century Hungarian poet Attila Jozsef with information about his tragic life     Inspired by Hungarian poetry Attila József, Derek Adams, Polly Clark, Anthony Dunn, Jacqueline Gabbitas, George Gömöri, Wayne Holloway-Smith, Ágnes Lehóczky, Tim Liardet, John McAuliffe, John Mole, Clare Pollard, Sam Riviere, Carol Rumens, Fiona Sampson, Tom Warner, 2013-04-11 The Balassi Institute Hungarian Cultural Centre London launched its new project Inspired by Hungarian poetry British poets in conversation with Attila J zsef in celebration of the Hungarian Culture Day on 22 January 2013 On 22 January 1823 Ferenc K lcsey one of the most important literary figures in Hungarian history completed his manuscript of the Hungarian National Anthem Since 1989 Hungarian culture is celebrated on this day To mark this special event the Balassi Institute Hungarian Cultural Centre London invited British poets to contribute to its new project with a poem of their own written in response to the poems of the Hungarian poet Attila J zsef 1905 1937 The original idea of the British poets in conversation with Attila J zsef project came from Tibor Fischer the internationally renowned British writer of Hungarian origin The aim of the project is to raise awareness and appreciation of Hungarian poetry among readers in the UK through initiating a poetic conversation between renowned British poets and selected poems of the outstanding Hungarian poet Attila J zsef The Hungarian Cultural Centre asked British poets to respond to a selection of Attila J zsef s poems in English translation put into English beautifully by John B tki Edwin Morgan George Szirtes and Peter Zollman The present online anthology published on 11 April 2013 the birthday of Attila J zsef and the National Poetry Day in Hungary is the product of the poetic conversation between Attila J zsef and more than a dozen of his present day British counterparts A gala reading in London on 11 April 2013 celebrates the occasion of the launch of the anthology Attila J zsef s work and poetry     The Golden Goblet Johann Wolfgang von Goethe, 2019-06-18 The Golden Goblet traces Johann Wolfgang von Goethe s poetry from the idealism of youth to the liberation of maturity In contrast to his rococo contemporaries Goethe s poetry draws on the graceful simplicity of German folk rhythms to develop complex transcendent themes This robust selection artfully translated by Zsuzsanna Ozsv th and Frederick Turner explores transformation revolution and illumination in Goethe s lush lyrical style that forever altered the course of German literature

The Writer Uprooted Alvin H. Rosenfeld, 2008-06-18 The Writer Uprooted is the first book to examine the emergence of a new generation of Jewish immigrant authors in America most of whom grew up in formerly communist countries In essays that are both personal and scholarly the contributors to this collection chronicle and clarify issues of personal and cultural dislocation and loss but also affirm the possibilities of reorientation and renewal Writers poets translators and critics such as Matei Calinescu Morris Dickstein Henryk Grynberg Geoffrey Hartman Eva Hoffman Katarzyna Jerzak Dov Ber Kerler Norman Manea Zsuzsanna Ozsvath Lara Vapnyar and Bronislava Volkova describe how they have coped creatively with the trials of displacement and the challenges and opportunities of resettlement in a new land and for some authorship in a new language

Into the Heart of European Poetry John Taylor, 2010-03-01 John Taylor's brilliant new book examines the work of many of the major poets who have deeply marked modern and contemporary European literature. Venturing far and wide from the France in which he has lived since the late 1970s, the polyglot writer-critic not only delves into the more widely translated literatures of Italy, Greece, Germany, and Austria but also discovers impressive and overlooked work in Slovenia, Bosnia, Hungary, Finland, Norway, and the Netherlands. In this book that ranges over nearly all of Europe, including Russia, while providing this stimulating and far-ranging critical panorama, Taylor brings to light key themes of European writing: the depth of everyday life, the quest of the thing in itself, metaphysical aspiration and anxiety, the dialectics of negativity and affirmation, subjectivity and self-effacement, and uprootedness as a category that is as ontological as it is geographical, historical, political, or cultural. The book pays careful attention to the intersection of writing and history or politics, as several poets featured here have faced the Second World War, the Holocaust, Communism, the fall of Communism, or the war in the former Yugoslavia. Taylor gives the work of renowned, upcoming, and still little-known poets a thorough look, all the while scrutinizing recent translations of their verse. He highlights several poets who are also masters of the prose poem. He includes a few novelists who have fashioned a particularly original kind of poetic prose, that stylistic category that has proved so difficult for critics to define. Into the Heart of European Poetry should be of immediate interest to any reader curious about the aesthetic and philosophical ideas underlying major trends of contemporary European writing. John Taylor has lived in France since 1977. A frequent contributor to the Times Literary Supplement, Context, the Yale Review, the Michigan Quarterly Review, and the Antioch Review, in which he writes the Poetry Today column, he has introduced numerous European writers and poets to English readers, often for the first time. Some of his works include The Apocalypse Tapestries, a book of poetry and prose based on the tapestries in the Chateau of Angers, and Paths to Contemporary French Literature, Volumes 1 and 2.

Comparative Criticism: Volume 22, East and West: Comparative Perspectives E. S. Shaffer, Elinor S. Shaffer, 2000-11-30 Comparative Criticism, first published in 2000, addresses itself to the questions of literary theory and criticism to comparative studies in terms of theme, genre, movement, and influence, and to interdisciplinary perspectives. Articles include Afloat on the Sea of Stories, World Tales, English Literature and Geopolitical Aesthetics, Classics and the Comparison of Adjacent Literatures, Some Pakistani Perspectives, Performance Literature, The Traditional Japanese Theatre as Model, Am I in that Name?, Women's Writing as Cultural Translation, in Early Modern China, Stabat Mater, Reflections on a Theme in German Jewish and Palestinian Arab Poetry. The winning entries in the 1999 BCLA/BCLT translation competition are also published. Light within the Shade Zsuzsanna Ozsvath, Frederick Turner, 2014-07-02 The pure verbal energy characterizing Hungarian poetry may be regarded as one of the most striking components of Hungarian culture. More than 800 years ago, under the inspiration of classical and medieval Latin poetry, Hungarian poets began to craft a rich chain of poetic designs, much of it in response to the country's cataclysmic history. With precision, depth, and great intensity, these verses give accounts of their authors' vision.

of themselves as participants in history and their most personal experience in the world Light within the Shade includes 135 of the most important Hungarian poems ranging from the fourteenth to the twenty first century Organized in chronological order the poems are followed by an essay by Ozsv th providing the historical biographical and cultural background of the poets and the poetry The book concludes with Turner s essay on the special thematic and literary qualities of Hungarian poetry as well as notes on translation practices This essential volume exposes English speaking readers to Hungarian poetry s artistic achievement in history and culture its evolutionary development as a tradition and its significance within the context of world literature

Hungarian Perspectives on the Western Canon László Bengi,Gábor Mezei,Ernő Kulcsár Szabó,2017-05-11 In this collection Hungarian literature is read together with canonical works of the Western literary tradition The book studies the distinction between major and minor literatures showing that such parallel readings may highlight previously unknown components of the literary tradition The book does not hold traditional comparative methods based on verifiable mediations or transactions between national philologies and national literary narratives to be the exclusive standard of interpretation readings can concentrate on common surfaces and textual events instead This is what is meant by post comparative perspectives a term to indicate that the conditions of a comparative reading never precede the reading itself On this basis the present volume points at several possibilities of how a common ground between texts can be created especially because the chapters within it perform parallel readings in highly different ways

Poetry, the Geometry of the Living Substance Agnes Lehoczky,2011-01-18 Poetry the Geometry of the Living Substance is the first serious and sustained study in English of one of the most important Hungarian writers of the 20th century the modernist poet gnes Nemes Nagy The book captures the dual nature of poetry as a discourse of the infinite and the abyssal through close readings of her poetry and prose These four essays draw parallels between gnes Nemes Nagy and other thinkers and theorists such as Rilke Celan Heidegger Derrida Beckett and Blanchot The monograph explores the poetic paradigm changes of Nemes Nagy in her whole work including her collections of poems essays on poetics and other posthumous miscellaneous fragments Drawing indirect parallels between the fields of poetics and epistemology the central focus of the book is the parergonal relation between language and the external world the psyche and the objective environment trauma and memory within the poetic space
