Life Writing Meg Jensen, Jane Jordan, 2009-03-26 In our age self publishing self broadcasting and telling stories about our own lives and the lives of others are all pervasive This is also the age of the witness the age of testimony in which first hand accounts personal experience life change and evolution are valued for good or ill over distanced reflection What are we to make of all this telling of lives The essays collected in Life Writing The Spirit of the Age and the State of the Art from writers and academics associated with the Centre for Life Narrative Studies at Kingston University in London begin to address this very question and in doing so demonstrate the fluidity and diversity of life writing itself The remit of the Centre for Life Narratives is to rise to the challenge poised to writers teachers and researchers alike by this very fluidity and diversity in our discipline and is exemplified here with contributions from academics curators editors and biographers including Neal Ascherson Victoria Glendinning Professor Kathryn Hughes Hanif Kureishi Blake Morrison and Lawrence Goldman editor of the Oxford Dictionary of National Biography This collection of essays from CLN offers the reader our founding contribution to the debates that surround this era defining genre and as such presents both the state of the art and the spirit of our age

Memory and Commemoration in Medieval Culture Elma Brenner, Meredith Cohen, Mary Franklin-Brown, 2016-04-22 In medieval society and culture memory occupied a unique position It was central to intellectual life and the medieval understanding of the human mind Commemoration of the dead was also a fundamental Christian activity Above all the past and the memory of it occupied a central position in medieval thinking from ideas concerning the family unit to those shaping political institutions Focusing on France but incorporating studies from further afield this collection of essays marks an important new contribution to the study of medieval memory and commemoration Arranged thematically each part highlights how memory cannot be studied in isolation but instead intersects with many other areas of medieval scholarship including art history historiography intellectual history and the study of religious culture Key themes in the study of memory are explored such as collective memory the links between memory and identity the fallibility of memory and the linking of memory to the future as an anticipation of what is to come Letters to Isabella Stewart Gardner Henry James, 2024-02-06 One of the most satisfying of all letter writers Spectator Henry James's beautiful letters to his friend and inspiration the unconventional art collector Isabella Stewart Gardner Surrounded by the artists writers and musicians who made up her court in Boston as they did in Venice Isabella Stewart Gardner a passionate art collector was as revered and sought after as royalty Henry James was inspired by the rich and powerful Gardner as well as by the Palazzo Barbaro in Venice when he wrote his novel The Wings of the Dove Gardner was to recreate a larger than life version of Palazzo Barbaro in Boston which is now the Isabella Stewart Gardner Museum These dazzling letters bring to life James's passion for Venice and the Palazzo Barbaro and serve as an introduction to the fascinating world of Isabella Stewart Gardner herself

Capturing Japan in Nineteenth-century New England Photography Collections Eleanor M. Hight, 2011 Expanding the canon of photographic history Capturing Japan in Nineteenth Century New England Photography Collections focuses on six New Englanders whose travel and photograph collecting influenced the flowering of Japonism in late nineteenth century Boston The book also explores the history of Japanese photography and its main themes The first history of its kind this study illuminates the ways photographs seeming conveyors of fact imprint mental images and suppositions on their viewers

Photographs, Museums, Collections Elizabeth Edwards, Christopher Morton, 2015-05-19 The status of photographs in the history of museum collections is a complex one From its very beginnings the double capacity of photography as a tool for making a visual record on the one hand and an aesthetic form in its own right on the other has created tensions about its place in the hierarchy of museum objects While major collections of art photography have grown in status and visibility photographs not designated art are often invisible in museums Yet almost every museum has photographs as part of its ecosystem gathered as information corroboration or documentation shaping the understanding of other classes of objects and many of these collections remain uncatalogued and their significance unrecognised This volume presents a series of case studies on the historical collecting and usage of photographs in museums Using critically informed empirical investigation it explores substantive and historiographical questions such as what is the historical patterning in the way photographs have been produced collected and retained by museums How do categories of the aesthetic and evidential shape the history of collecting photographs What has been the work of photographs in museums What does an understanding of photograph collections add to our understanding of collections history more broadly What are the methodological demands of research on photograph collections The case studies cover a wide range of museums and collection types from art galleries to maritime museums national collections to local history museums and international perspectives including Cuba France Germany New Zealand South Africa and the UK Together they offer a fascinating insight into both the history of collections and collecting and into the practices and poetics of archives across a range of disciplines including the history of science museum studies archaeology and anthropology Isabella Stewart Gardner Museum Christina Nielsen, Casey Riley, Nathaniel Silver, 2017-01-01 The Isabella Stewart Gardner Museum is world renowned for a superb collection of over 10 000 objects that range from ancient Chinese bronzes to Renaissance tapestries from paintings by Raphael and Rubens to those of Whistler and Matisse This guidebook charts new pathways through the beloved institution and tells the story its founder a trail blazing American who was among the most prominent patrons of her day Isabella Stewart Gardner built a Venetian inspired palazzo in Boston to house her exquisite and thought provoking arrangement of art objects from diverse cultures and periods of history to share with the world she hosted luminaries in the worlds of music dance and literature and supported such famed artists as Henry James and John Singer Sargent Exploring the museum room by room the authors of this book look at masterpieces by Botticelli Rembrandt Titian and others as well as hidden treasures including often overlooked decorative arts collected letters and photographs Rather than positioning the museum simply as a historical gem they present it as a site for forging connections between past and present and reinforcing the founder s legacy of sustaining contemporary art music and education with initiatives supported by space in the New Wing designed by Renzo Piano and constructed in 2012 Featuring spectacular photography the book captures this unique museum helping us consider anew what the museum meant in Gardner s time and what it means in ours Religion, Art, and Money Peter W. Williams, 2016-02-24 This cultural history of mainline Protestantism and American cities most notably New York City focuses on wealthy urban Episcopalians and the influential ways they used their money Peter W Williams argues that such Episcopalians many of them the country s most successful industrialists and financiers left a deep and lasting mark on American urban culture Their sense of public responsibility derived from a sacramental theology that gave credit to the material realm as a vehicle for religious experience and moral formation and they came to be distinguished by their participation in major aesthetic and social welfare endeavors Williams traces how the church helped transmit a European inflected artistic patronage that was adapted to the American scene by clergy and laity intent upon providing moral and aesthetic leadership for a society in flux Episcopalian influence is most visible today in the churches cathedrals and elite boarding schools that stand in many cities and other locations but Episcopalians also provided major support to the formation of stellar art collections the performing arts and the Arts and Crafts movement Williams argues that Episcopalians thus helped smooth the way for acceptance of materiality in religious culture in a previously iconoclastic Puritan influenced society Art and Its Publics Andrew McClellan, 2008-04-15 Bringing together essays by museum professionals and academics from both sides of the Atlantic Art and its Publics tackles current issues confronting the museum community and seeks to further the debate between theory and practice around the most pressing of contemporary concerns Brings together essays that focus on the interface between the art object its site of display and the viewing public Tackles issues confronting the museum community and seeks to further the debate between theory and practice Presents a cross section of contemporary concerns with contributions from museum professionals as well as academics Part of the New Interventions in Art History series published in conjunction with the Association of Art Historians

Exchanges between Literature and Science from the 1800s to the 2000s Márcia Lemos, 2017-03-07 This collection of essays responds to the intense interest that the relations between the discourses of literature and other cultural practices and those of science have obtained throughout various fields of study Spanning a period between the mid nineteenth century and the twenty first century the work collected here is firmly focused on the cultural significance of scientific discoveries and practices and especially on the manifold representations of science and scientists in literature and the arts Its four sections develop from an initial moment of dwindling indefiniteness of borders between literature and the sciences to the historical perception of an increasing divide between the two cultures to use C P Snow s influential expression as well as calls for a form of convergence or consilience in Edward Wilson s words The final section turns to the medical sciences a porous scientific discipline in relation to the humanities which suggests that consilience can already be found partially in specific areas As such this collection contributes towards critically extending that integration through the discussion of key literary representations of science its promises and its problems

Among Thieves David Hosp, 2009-02-01 Bestselling author David Hosp returns with his most thrilling novel yet In 1990 300 million worth of paintings were stolen from Boston s Isabella Stewart Gardner Museum in what remains one of the greatest unsolved art thefts of the twentieth century Now nearly twenty years later the case threatens to break wide open Members of Boston s criminal underground are turning up dead But these are no ordinary murders The M O of the attacks suggests the involvement of someone trained by the IRA But when Scott Finn learns that one of his clients Devon Malley was part of the heist he s quickly drawn into the crossfire and into the renewed hunt for the missing artwork a hunt that may cost Finn and his colleagues their lives

Historic House Museums in the United States and the United Kingdom Linda Young, 2016-12-13 Historic House Museums in the United States and the United Kingdom A History addresses the phenomenon of historic houses as a distinct species of museum Everyone understands the special nature of an art museum a national museum or a science museum but house museum nearly always requires clarification In the United States the term is almost synonymous with historic preservation in the United Kingdom it is simply unfamiliar the very idea being conflated with stately homes and the National Trust By analyzing the motivation of the founders and subsequent keepers of house museums Linda Young identifies a typology that casts light on what house museums were intended to represent and their significance or lack thereof today This book examines heroes houses once inhabited by great persons e g Shakespeare s birthplace Washington s Mount Vernon artwork houses national identity as specially visible in house design style and technique e g Frank Lloyd Wright houses Modernist houses collectors houses a microcosm of collecting in situ domesticu subsequently presented to the nation as the exemplars of taste e g Sir John Soane s Museum Isabella Stewart Gardner Museum English country houses the palaces of the aristocracy maintained thanks to primogeniture but threatened

The Architecture of Influence Amanda Reeser Lawrence,2023-11-21 How do we create the new from the old The Architecture of Influence explores this fundamental question by analyzing a broad swath of twentieth century architectural works including some of the best known examples of the architectural canon modern and postmodern through the lens of influence The book serves as both a critique of the discipline s long standing focus on genius and a celebration of the creative act of revisioning and reimagining the past It argues that all works of architecture not only depend on the past but necessarily alter rewrite and reposition the traditions and ideas to which they refer Organized into seven chapters Replicas Copies Compilations Generalizations Revivals Emulations and Self Repetitions the book redefines influence as an active process through which the past is defined recalled and subsequently redefined within twentieth century architecture

The Drawings of Bronzino Carmen Bambach,Agnolo Bronzino,Janet Cox-Rearick,George R. Goldner,Philippe Costamagna,Marzia Faietti,Elizabeth Pilliod,2010 Drawings by the great Italian Mannerist painter and poet Agnolo Bronzino 1503 1572 are extremely rare This important and beautiful publication brings together for the first time nearly all of the sixty drawings attributed to this leading draftsman of the 16th century Each drawing is illustrated in color discussed in detail and shown with many comparative photographs Bronzino s technical virtuosity as a draftsman and his mastery of anatomy and perspective are vividly apparent in each stroke of the chalk pen or brush The younger generations of Florentine artists particularly admired Bronzino for his technical virtuosity as a painter and Giorgio Vasari praised him for his powers as a disegnatore designer and draftsman

The Venetian Bride Patricia Fortini Brown,2021 A true story of vendetta and intrigue triumph and tragedy exile and repatriation this book recounts the interwoven microhistories of Count

Girolamo Della Torre a feudal lord with a castle and other properties in the Friuli and Giulia Bembo grand niece of Cardinal Pietro Bembo and daughter of Gian Matteo Bembo a powerful Venetian senator with a distinguished career in service to the Venetian Republic Their marriage in the mid sixteenth century might be regarded as emblematic of the Venetian experience with the metropole at the center of a fragmented empire a Terraferma nobleman and the daughter of a Venetian senator who raised their family in far off Crete in the stato da mar in Venice itself and in the Friuli and the Veneto in the stato da terra The fortunes and misfortunes of the nine surviving Della Torre children and their descendants tracked through the end of the Republic in 1797 are likewise emblematic of a change in feudal culture from clan solidarity to individualism and intrafamily strife and ultimately redemption Despite the efforts by both the Della Torre and the Bembo families to preserve the patrimony through a succession of male heirs the last survivor in the paternal bloodline of each was a daughter This epic tale highlights the role of women in creating family networks and opens a precious window into a contentious period in which Venetian republican values clash with the deeply rooted feudal traditions of honor and blood feuds of the mainland

Enchanted by Lohans Minna Törmä, 2013-08-01 Finnish Swedish art historian Osvald Sirén 1879 1966 was one of the pioneers of Chinese art scholarship in the West This biography focuses on his four major voyages to East Asia 1918 1921 23 1929 30 and 1935 This was a pivotal period in Chinese archaeology art studies and formation of Western collections of Chinese art Sirén gained international renown as a scholar of Italian art particularly with his books on Leonardo da Vinci and Giotto But when he was almost 40 years old he was captivated by Chinese art paintings of Lohans in the Museum of Fine Arts in Boston to such an extent that he decided to start his career anew in a way He has left his mark in several fields in Chinese art studies architecture sculpture painting and garden art The study charts Sirén's itineraries during his travels in Japan Korea and China it introduces the various people in those countries as well as in Europe and North America who defined the field in its early stages and were influential as collectors and dealers It also explores the impact of theosophical ideas in his work
