1) In 539 B.C. King Cyrus decreed that all Jews exiled to Babylon could return to their homeland. A contingent of Jews returned under Zerubbabel's leadership.

2) Around 458 B.C. the scribe Ezra led a smaller group of Jews back to Judea, taking the shorter, more dangerous desert route that passed through Tadmor.

3) Around 445 B.C. while Nehemiah was in Susa, King Artaxerxes I granted him permission to travel to Jerusalem to rebuild the city.

The Jews In Their Land:

The Jews in Their Land David Ben-Gurion, 1966 Why Do the Jews Need a Land of Their Own? Sholem Aleichem, 1984 The Jews Among the Nations Erich Kahler, This is an augmented edition of a superb volume by one of the foremost analysts of European institutions and ideas Here the late Erich Kahler turns his attention to the special character of the Jewish people formed uniquely through the interaction of internal and external circumstances in which past and present merge The chapters in this book deal with persistent problems of Jewish identity Kahler claims these can be fully understood only by awareness of the close interconnection between the singular ethnic nature and the unique social structure of the Jewish people He discusses the Jews in Europe specifically the historical implications of a strict tribal ritual that yet permitted the widest spiritual scope The second half of the book concerns anti Semitism in relation to Jews and Germans How did the German people seemingly so congenial to the Jews develop a murderous revulsion against them ending a long and fruitful symbiosis Kahler sees this as a parallel to the parricidal rejection of the Jews by the Christian church His argument is deepened in an added chapter new to this volume on the major forms and features of anti Judaism in which the earlier theme of the universal and the specific are seen as central not only to the inner history of Judaism but also to the specific interaction of Jews and Gentiles throughout social history The Legends of the Jews Louis Ginzberg, 1913 The Jewish Encyclopedia Isidore Singer, Cyrus Adler, 1901 The Banner of Israel, 1894 The Legends of the Jews: From Joseph to the exodus Louis Ginzberg, 1910 Folktales of the Jews, V. 3 (Tales from Arab Lands) Dan Ben Amos, 2011-05-01 Thanks to these generous donors for making the publication of the books in this series possible Lloyd E Cotsen The Maurice Amado Foundation National Endowment for the Humanities and the National Foundation for Jewish Culture Tales from Arab Lands presents tales from North Africa Yemen Lebanon Syria and Iraq in the latest volume of the most important collection of Jewish folktales ever published This is the third book in the multi volume series in the tradition of Louis Ginzberg s timeless classic Legends of the Jews The tales here and the others in this series have been selected from the Israel Folktale Archives IFA named in Honor of Dov Noy at The University of Haifa a treasure house of Jewish lore that has remained largely unavailable to the entire world until now Since the creation of the State of Israel the IFA has collected more than 20 000 tales from newly arrived immigrants long lost stories shared by their families from around the world The tales come from the major ethno linguistic communities of the Jewish world and are representative of a wide variety of subjects and motifs especially rich in Jewish content and context Each of the tales is accompanied by in depth commentary that explains the tale s cultural historical and literary background and its similarity to other tales in the IFA collection and extensive scholarly notes There is also an introduction that describes the culture and its folk narrative tradition a world map of the areas covered illustrations biographies of the collectors and narrators tale type and motif indexes a subject index and a comprehensive bibliography Until the establishment of the IFA we had had only limited access to the wide range of Jewish folk narratives Even in Israel the gathering place of the most wide ranging cross section of world Jewry these folktales have remained largely unknown Many of the communities no longer exist as cohesive societies in their representative lands the Holocaust migration and changes in living styles have made the continuation of these tales impossible This series is a monument to a rich but vanishing oral tradition This series is a monument to a rich but vanishing oral tradition So All Israel Shall Be Saved Nathaniel Parker,2025-01-28 Is it feasible to speak of a Moore School of Biblical Theology The biblical theology program at Moore Theological College can be traced back to Donald Robinson One unique contribution of Robinson to Moore s program was his distinction theology concerning the role of Israel in redemption history as his attempt at providing an alternative to dispensationalism and covenant theology By examining Robinson s view of Jew and gentile in the New Testament church the reciprocal role of the gospel going forth from Jewish Christians to the gentiles and back to unbelieving Jews to fulfill the Rom 11 promise so all Israel shall be saved and Robinson s eschatological concept of both Jew and gentile forming a new man and by tracing how his view has been affirmed revised rejected or ignored by biblical theologians at Moore College who were influenced by or who followed Robinson including Graeme Goldsworthy Lionel Windsor D Broughton Knox and William Dumbrell this book seeks to clarify the reception of Robinson s legacy at Moore College as well as offer an assessment on the plausibility of a distinct Moore School of Biblical Theology Zechariah and His Prophecies, Considered in Relation to Modern Criticism Charles Henry Hamilton Wright,1879 The Jewish Diaspora after 1945 S. Behnaz Hosseini,2020-10-27 For Jews across the Middle East and North Africa the 1948 establishment of the State of Israel was a transformational period in both the build up to it and its aftermath Using this momentous event as its focal point this book takes the reader on a journey to remote destinations in the 20th century Jewish experience examining aspects of Jewish history that have hardly ever been discussed in one place and in such an intriguing combination Jews have played an integral role in the Arab world Turkey Iran and North Africa for millennia Their lives were intertwined with those of the majority non Jewish communities among whom they dwelt their mass expulsion and emigration after World War II ended the existence of a vital part of nearly all the societies in the region Palestine Commission on the Disturbances of August, 1929 Great Britain.
