National Union Catalog Subcommittee, 1971 A History of Silence Alain Corbin, 2018-05-29 Silence is not simply the absence of noise It is within us in the inner citadel that great writers thinkers scholars and people of faith have cultivated over the centuries It characterizes our most intimate and sacred spaces from private bedrooms to grand cathedrals those vast reservoirs of silence Philosophers and novelists have long sought solitude and inspiration in mountains and forests Yet despite the centrality of silence to some of our most intense experiences the transformations of the twentieth century have gradually diminished its value Today raucous urban spaces and a continual bombardment from different media pressure us into constant activity We are losing a sense of our inner selves a process that is changing the very nature of the individual This book rediscovers the wonder of silence and with this a richer experience of life With his predilection for the elusive Corbin calls us to listen to another history Shakespeare and the Romantics David Fuller, 2021-02-11 Romantic criticism of which Shakespeare is the central figure invented many of the modes of modern criticism It is also distinct from many contemporary academic norms Engaged with the social and intellectual currents of an age of revolutionary change it is experimental writerly and individually expressive Above all it is creative in response to the difficulties of understanding aesthetic experience in new ways and in setting those experiences in new cultural and political contexts that Shakespeare's work helped to shape This book presents the main currents of these exciting but relatively little known engagements with Shakespeare and through Shakespeare with the theory and practice of criticism in England Germany and France from the 1760s in Germany to the aftermath of the Romanticism in France It also discusses Shakespeare in the theatre of the period realist stagings which prefigure Shakespeare films adaptations which fitted Shakespeare to contemporary tastes and bare stage experiments which foreshadow modes of contemporary theatre A chapter on scholarship in the period shows Shakespeare as central to modern editing and historical criticism Much of the writing discussed is by men and women whose focus is not primarily critical but creative poetry Coleridge Keats Heine fiction Stendhal drama Lessing or all three Goethe

Hugo cultural critique Jameson de Sta l philosophy Hamann Herder politics Hazlitt Guizot aesthetics the Schlegel circle or new original work in other media Berlioz Delacroix Chass riau It is writing directed to new modes of creating as well as new modes of understanding
