Caring for Joy: Narrative, Theology, and Practice Mary Clark Moschella, 2016-09-07 In Caring for Joy Narrative Theology and Practice Mary Clark Moschella offers a new account of the value of joy in caregiving vocations demonstrating how the work of caring for persons communities and the world need not be a dreary endeavor overwhelmed by crises or undermined by despair Moschella presents glimpses of joy in action in the narratives of five notable figures Heidi Neumark Henri Nouwen Gregory Boyle Pauli Murray and Paul Farmer gleaned their wisdom for the construction of a theology of joy that embodies compassion connection justice and freedom Care must be deep enough to hold human suffering and spacious enough to take in the divine goodness beauty and love This book expands the pastoral theological imagination and narrates joy full approaches to transformational care This work is a scholarly engaging and compassionate call to reconsider the significance of joyful living and joyful lives in radical pastoral theology Heather Walton University of Glasgow President of the International Academy of Practical Theology July 2016 Based on biographies interviews and life stories Mary Clark Moschella presents joy as a counter cultural emotion as a spiritual path and as a fruit of the Spirit In her research joy and reason are not ultimately opposed Jeanne Stevenson Moessner Professor of Pastoral Care Perkins School of Theology

Southern Methodist University July 2016 This highly readable and compelling theology of joy will inspire you to explore how joy might energize your vocation especially caregiving vocations that use narrative approaches to spiritual care and pastoral counseling I plan on using this book as a textbook in my theodicy grief death and dying and vocational courses Carrie Doehring Professor of Pastoral Care and Counseling Iliff School of Theology Denver August 2016 Mary Moschella has given us a rare text one that is theologically rich intellectually sophisticated drenched in pastoral wisdom and beautifully written She gives us a pastoral theology attuned to the realities of diversity and sensitive to the complex challenges facing those who lives constantly interface with suffering There is simply nothing else like this book in pastoral care Willie James Jennings Professor of Systematic Theology and Africana Studies Yale University August 2016 The Joy of Coaching Rebecca Frazier, 2020-08-06 The secrets of coaching excellence are already inside you Successful coaching has long been seen as a mental exercise in order to do right by the teachers you serve you put theory into practice establish orderly processes analyze data effectively and implement externally mandated reforms The truth though is that truly great coaches derive their success not just from what they do but also from who they are This groundbreaking book based on research from an innovative mixed methods study provides a holistic approach to coaching that honors both mind and heart As you explore the most important characteristics of the best instructional coaches caring authenticity trustworthiness flexibility and more you ll develop and hone those same characteristics in yourself Features include A framework and structure for developing the characteristics of effective instructional coaches Comprehensive analysis of each characteristic Examples and stories of effective coaching in action Activities exercises and action points Resources for encouragement and renewal School coaches have the power to make a real difference in the lives and futures of teachers and students By balancing your outward competencies with the inspirational application of your own inward growth you ll bring new joy and success into your coaching relationships The Communicative Relationship Between Dialogue and Care Marie Baker-Ohler, Annette Holba, 2009 This book provides insight into the nature of the relationship between dialogue and care The work is textured and mindful of the human need for authentic communication between embedded human communicative agents This is because the authors are well versed in the field having published articles books and book chapters dealing with the cultivation of human communication and human relationships through aspects of care dialogue and other philosophical preconditions This study approaches the relationship of care and dialogue through a constructive hermeneutic approach situated within the current historical moment while relying on a rich and textured historical tradition of philosophical writings that invite new discussion on the value of this relationship In a historical era of rapidly changing technologies it is often easier to text twitter and e mail in a hypertext mode that fails to acknowledge the dialogic potential in human relationships This book reminds us that even in these technologically sophisticated times we gain more in human relationships through care and dialogue than in quick instant communication It is unique from other books dealing with the relationship between dialogue and care in human relationships because it integrates literature involving communication ethics and philosophies of communication framed around the metaphor of care to provide a more textured insight related to human communication. The discussion is an alternative to a social scientific approach. Readers will gain a thorough and comprehensive understanding of the issues involved from different perspectives. Many other books on these matters are also theoretically laden with deep philosophical concepts but they are often devoid of connections to everyday experiences which limits application of the ideas. The authors address this by a text that explores those philosophical and theoretically laden concepts related to care in an applied manner so that the practice of these ideas is situated within actual human interaction. This study provides an in depth exploration specifically dealing with care as a philosophical and ethical paradigm for living in the world. This book is distinctive as it encompasses theorists scholars from multiple perspectives that include sociological psychological philosophical and from both social science and humanities approaches all of which come together within a communication framework. The purpose of this book is to provide readers with the opportunity to consider multiple ways of enhancing human communication through discovering how the notion of care has the ability to shape and guide communicative exchanges. Care is posited as a philosophy of communication and more specifically as a communicative ethic that can be embraced in interpersonal and organizational communicative contexts. Our goal is to provide a textured understanding of care as it relates to human communication and as it is foregrounded in philosophical thought. This text will help develop philosophical understanding of this topic that is inescapably linked to human communication. This book will interest all in communication sociology psychology and anthropology.
