The Judaism The Rabbis Take For Granted Usf Studies In The History Of Judaism:

The Documentary History of Judaism and Its Recent Interpreters Jacob Neusner, 2012-07-10 The result for the history of Judaism of a documentary reading of the Rabbinic canonical sources illustrates the working of that hypothesis It is the first major outcome of that hypothesis but there are other implications and a variety of new problems emerge from time to time as the work proceeds In the recent past Neusner has continued to explore special problems of the documentary hypothesis of the Rabbinic canon At the same time Neusner notes others join in the discussion that have produced important and ambitious analyses of the thesis and its implications Here Neuser has collected some of the more ambitious ventures into the hypothesis and its current recapitulations Neusner begins with the article written by Professor William Scott Green for the Encyclopaedia Judaica second edition as Green places the documentary hypothesis into the context of Neusner's entire oeuvre Neuser then reproduces what he regards as the single most successful venture of the documentary hypothesis contrasting between the Mishnah's and the Talmuds programs for the social order of Israel the doctrines of economics politics and philosophy set forth in those documents respectively Then come the two foci of discourse Halakhah or normative law and Aggadah or normative theology Professors Bernard Jackson of the University of Manchester England and Mayer Gruber of Ben Gurion University of the Negev treat the Halakhic program that Neusner has devised and Kevin Edgecomb of the University of California Berkeley has produced a remarkable summary of the theological system Neusner discerns in the Aggadic documents Neusner concludes with a review of a book by a critic of the documentary hypothesis

The Mishnah Jacob Neusner, 2016-07-11 The Mishnah the second century law code that lays the foundation after Scripture of normative Judaism encompasses all subjects that pertain to the life of the Jewish nation and as such provides a systematic basis for Israel's social order and world view Any social program has its own politics economics and philosophy which together define a given social entity rather than any other And any system defining the structure of a society strives to establish a set of harmonised and coherent fundamental principles viewpoints and attitudes in treating the components of its theory of the community It has been long shown that the Mishnah is such a well composed theory of world construction It is demonstrated here how its specific message concerning the politics and economics that define the social order recapitulate those of Aristotle This publication has also been published in paperback please click here for details

The Mishnah, Social Perspectives Volume 2 Jacob Neusner, 2021-10-01 For Aristotle politics economics and philosophy define the social construction of any society For Judaism the Mishnah along with Scripture sets forth the systematic statement for understanding the social construction and world view of Judaism around 200 C E The Mishnah functioned as the basic law in the holy land and was adopted also by Jews in the Diaspora from Babylonia to the western satrapies of the Iranian empire of the Sasanians Professor Jacob Neusner takes seriously the three principal tasks of theoretical thought enjoined by Aristotle and asks us to look at the Mishnah not as an inert collection of traditions passed on but as a deliberate programmatic statement of Judaism's way of life and world view. He points to the systematic nature of the Mishnah with its six divisions and shows how collectively those divisions cover the everyday life of the people. The Mishnah contains independent judgements about the nature of the system and does not merely rehearse what tradition says about a given topic. This interpretive aspect of the Mishnah has been ignored to the interpreter's peril because it is precisely by paying attention to how the Mishnah uses traditions for its own purposes that the interpreter can appreciate the building blocks of Judaism: its politics, economics, and philosophy. The Four Stages of Rabbinic Judaism Jacob Neusner, 2003-09-02. This concise volume provides a lucid introduction to the genesis and development of Rabbinic Judaism. Jacob Neusner outlines and examines the four stages in which the initial period of the historical development of Rabbinic Judaism divides, beginning with the Pentateuch and ending with its definitive and normative statement in the Talmud of Babylonia. He traces the development of Rabbinic Judaism by exploring the relationships between and among the cognate writings which embody its formative history.

Three Questions of Formative Judaism Jacob Neusner, 2021-10-01. The academic study of Judaism requires a systematic inquiry into the history, literature, and religion, and eventually the theology, as revealed in the historical documents themselves. Under this premise, Three Questions of Formative Judaism encounters the canonical writings of Judaism in the context of their creation at a certain time and place. How something is said thus becomes as important as what is said. Bringing nearly fifty years of research to bear on these fundamental questions, Jacob Neusner challenges his readers to face the difficult, often unasked or neglected questions about the nature, background, and purposes of Rabbinic Judaism and rewards them with an enriched understanding and a stronger foundation for tackling the even more elusive questions concerning the theology of formative Judaism. This publication has also been published in paperback; please click here for details.

Scripture and the Generative Premises of the Halakhah: Halakhah based on scripture and Halakhic categories autonomous of scripture Jacob Neusner, 1999. Scripture and the Generative Premises of the Halakhah: Scripture's topics independently developed in the Halakhah: from the Babas through Miqvaot Jacob Neusner, 1999. Ancient Judaism Jacob Neusner, 1997.

Scripture and the Generative Premises of the Halakhah: Scripture's topics independently developed in the Halakhah from Moed Qatan through Zebahim Jacob Neusner, 1999. Judaism in Late Antiquity 1. The Literary and Archaeological Sources Jacob

Neusner, 2015-11-02. This volume introduces the sources of Judaism in late antiquity to scholars in adjacent fields such as the study of the Old and New Testaments, Ancient History, the ancient Near East, and the history of religion. In two volumes, leading American, Israeli, and European specialists in the history, literature, theology, and archaeology of Judaism offer factual answers to the two questions that the study of any religion in ancient times must raise. The first is: what are the sources written and in material culture that inform us about that religion The second is how have we to understand those sources in reconstructing the history of various Judaic systems in antiquity The chapters set forth in simple statements intelligible to non specialists the facts which the sources provide Because of the nature of the subject and acute interest in it the specialists also raise some questions particular to the study of Judaism dealing with its historical relationship with nascent Christianity in New Testament times The work forms the starting point for the study of all the principal questions concerning Judaism in late antiquity and sets forth the most current critical results of scholarship Jewish Book Annual Solomon Grayzel,1996

Journal for the Study of Judaism in the Persian, Hellenistic, and Roman period ,1996 The Native Category-formations of the Aggadah: The later Midrash-compilations Jacob Neusner,2000 The Native Category Formations of the Aggadah Volume I is an attempt to identify the category formations that comprise the Aggadic or theological exegetical narrative Through an inquiry of the theological and exegetical components of the Aggadah Neusner analyses how the authoritative documents of Rabbinic Judaism form a continuous statement Contours of Coherence in Rabbinic

Judaism Jacob Neusner,2022-11-28 This book shows that the disputes that characterize Rabbinic writings in the formative age underscore the coherence of Rabbinic Judaism It is in three separate monographs The first shows that disagreements concern secondary and tertiary issues They therefore reinforce the primary norm by identifying as moot only trivial details The second demonstrates alternatively that Halakhic disputes articulate unresolved conflict over generative principles Sometimes in the presentation of topics of the law disputes not only indicate the range of consensus but bring to expression conflicting alternatives theories that claim equal validity but contradict one another Third in some presentations of the law and in all presentations of theology where disputes occur disputes simply gloss details in the application of accepted principles They form a part of the exercise of legal or theological exegesis filling in gaps with alternative facts The print edition is available as a set of two volumes 9789004142312 Judaism in Late Antiquity Jacob Neusner,Alan Jeffery Avery-Peck,1995 In two volumes leading American Israeli and European specialists in the history literature theology and archaeology of Judaism offer factual answers to the two questions that study of any religion in ancient times must raise The first is what are the sources written and in material culture that inform us about that religion The second is how do we understand those sources in the reconstruction of the history of various Judaic systems in antiquity The historical relationship of Judaism with nascent Christianity in New Testament times is also treated John within Judaism Wally V. Cirafesi,2021-10-11 In John within Judaism Wally V Cirafesi offers a reading of the Gospel of John as an expression of the fluid and flexible nature of Jewish identity in Greco Roman antiquity While many have noted John s general Jewishness few have given it a seat at the ideologically congested table of ancient Jewish practice and belief By interrogating the concept of Judaism in relation to the complex categories of religion and ethnicity Cirafesi argues that John negotiates Jewishness using strategies of ethnic identity formation paralleled in other Jewish sources from the Second Temple and early rabbinic periods

In this process of negotiation including its use of high christology and critique of Ioudaioi John coalesces with other expressions of ancient Jewish identity and thus can be read within Judaism      Approaches to Ancient Judaism Jacob Neusner,1990      Building Blocks of Rabbinic Tradition Jacob Neusner,2008 This book responds to a question that came to the author from Professor Maren Niehoff of the Hebrew University of Jerusalem Have you written a simple introduction to your documentary theory and method which can serve as a starting point for my students In this book are gathered eight of the more fundamental items of documentary theory and practice_three in theory five in practice_for Professor Neihoff s students and anyone else who takes an interest in the formative history of Judaism The documentary thesis of Rabbinic literature holds that the document_the Mishnah Sifra Lamentations Rabbah the Bavli for example_forms the basic building block of the Rabbinic tradition Excluded by that definition are sayings attributed to and stories told about named sages These cannot serve in the reconstruction of the Rabbinic tradition its literature history religion and theology
