The Judas Ship:

The Judas Ship Brian Callison, 1978 December 1941 some two hundred miles off the Brazilian coastline A time of war at sea and sudden death of prowling U boats and Kriegsmarine surface raiders A time of nerve rending anticipation for the crew of the British merchantman Maya Star with its cargo of explosives until the anticipation turns to horrific actuality when a German naval shell blasts her radio room and chief operator into a superheated shambles Minutes later and the Maya Star is running blind a flaming time bomb clawing to escape with most of her crew already dead or dying Yet that is only the prelude to the real nightmare as the survivors fight to save their crippled ship limping towards the temporary shelter offered by an uninhabited region of the Amazon Basin a rain forest stretching as far as the eye can see a sluggish uncharted river with the only sign of life in the splash and sudden swirl of a comatose reptilian or is it For on board the Maya Star there grows a vague unease a suspicion that somebody or something is watching and waiting until finally it becomes terrifyingly clear that their sanctuary has become a merciless trap That they have ventured from the frying pan into a fire as hot as any they had endured in their battle at sea Publisher s description The Underspace War - The Complete Trilogy Velerion
