Defective Institutions Jacques Lezra,2024-03-05 Defective Institutions overturns the basis of institutionalism Faith in classic institutions exposed as clamorously inadequate by the failure of governance under neoliberalism does not result in greater democracy greater horizontality or more equitable living Nor does trust in the standing of decisions in the authority of antecedent cases in the coherence strength continuity or solidity of the institutions that frame and render legitimate these decisions and the rules they buttress To the contrary the classically imagined institution and our faith in it lie at the heart of neoliberal unfreedom and racialized violence Working at the point of contact and conflict between socialist and anarcho philosophical traditions Defective Institutions offers an alternative which is also an alternative to the figures of governance associated with the liberal conception of the state an aberrant republicanism comprised of defective institutions run through with the necessity of their abolition Lezra's book moves from the primitive scenes of Western political institution the city the family the university the first person race through recent work in the philosophy of translation decolonial studies abolitionism Afropessimism and its critiques psychoanalysis and musicology To offer an original wedding of abolition and institution Lezra brings together genealogies of contemporary institutionalism from Durkheim and Hauriou to Searle post Marxist accounts of the state Balibar Abensour philosophical and anthropological anarchism Wolff Malabou Graeber Scott critical legal theory analyses of Marbury v Madison as well as Dobbs v Jackson continental and analytic versions and critiques of foundationalism Heidegger Lyotard and Butler Quine Searle and Fine and political and sociological abolitionism Lewis O'Brien At a time when some call for strengthening institutions and for defending liberties ostensibly protected by such institutions and others long for the destruction of institutions that have long been oppressive Lezra's book offers today's Left a new framework for confronting institutions necessity and their necessary abolition

Sebastian Anne Bishop, 2006-02-07 The New York Times bestselling author of the Novels of the Others invites you enter the realm of Ephemera a place that is ever changing caught between the Light and Dark forces of the heart Long ago Ephemera was split into a dizzying number of magical lands connected only by bridges that may take you where you truly belong rather than where you had intended to go In one such land where night reigns and demons dwell the half incubus Sebastian revels in dark delights But in dreams she calls to him a woman who wants only to be safe and loved a woman he hungers for while knowing he may destroy her And an even more devastating destiny awaits him for an ancient evil is stirring and Sebastian's realm may be the first to fall Erotic fervently romantic and superbly entertaining Booklist

NGOs and Human Rights Charity Butcher, Maia Carter Hallward, 2021-06-15 This study examines and compares the important work on global human rights advocacy done by religious NGOs and by secular NGOs By studying the similarities in how such organizations understand their work we can better consider not only how religious and secular NGOs might complement each other but also how they might collaborate and cooperate in the advancement of human rights However little research has attempted to compare these types of NGOs and their approaches NGOs and Human Rights explores this comparison and identifies the key areas of overlap and divergence In so doing it lays the groundwork for better understanding how to capitalize on the strengths of religious groups especially in addressing the world's many human rights challenges This book uses a new dataset of more than three hundred organizations affiliated with the United Nations Human Rights Council to compare the extent to which religious and secular NGOs differ in their framing discussion and operationalization of human rights work Using both quantitative analysis of the extensive data collected by the authors and forty seven in depth interviews conducted with members of human rights organizations in the sample Charity Butcher and Maia Carter Hallward analyze these organizations approaches to questions of culture development women's rights children's rights and issues of peace and conflict
