A. van Beek, 2012-05-08 Walter E A van Beek draws on over four decades of extensive fieldwork to offer an in depth study of the religion of the Kapsiki Higi who live in the Mandara Mountains on the border between North Cameroon and Northeast Nigeria Concentrating on ritual as the core of traditional religion van Beek shows how Kapsiki Higi practices have endured through the long and turbulent history of the region      Conflict and Violence in the Lake Chad Basin Emmanuel Chauvin, Olivier Langlois, Christian Seignobos, Catherine Baroin, 2025-08-01 Ranging from Boko Haram to the war in the Central African Republic insecurity forms a major factor among societies in the Lake Chad Basin Cameroon Central African Republic Niger Nigeria Chad Marred by conflict and violence these territories are difficult to access and not well known so they tend to be out of reach for scholarly study and development programs The long term and in depth field studies that this volume presents offer a window on conflict analysis based on insights into local dynamics and the lived world of the people themselves      Evil in Africa William C. advancing phenotypic characterization remains under explored This publication presents a classification of around 1 000 cattle breeds based on geographical and historical data and morphology Males and females of every breed are portrayed by the author in water colour and to scale The illustrations are positioned next to each breed s description completing the overall image The Arts of Africa ,1989 Trypanotolerant Livestock in West and Central Africa , Beyond Territory and Scarcity Quentin Gausset,Michael Anthony Whyte,Torben Birch-Thomsen,2005 In this volume ten anthropologists and geographers critically address traditional Mathusian discourses in essays that attempt to move beyond territory and scarcity Mason's World Encyclopedia of Livestock Breeds and Breeding, 2 Volume Pack Valerie Porter,Lawrence Alderson,Stephen J.G. Feuding and Warfare Keith F. Otterbein,2020-12-22 Originally published in 1994 the late Keith F Otterbein s scholarship had followed an overall design since 1962 when he began conducting comparative studies of warfare using both ethnographic and cross cultural methods Through a conceptual framework derived from systems theory he made signal contributions to our understanding of the role of warfare in human social evolution He formulated a Fraternal Interest Group theory utilizing it to explain not only feuding and warfare but also rape and capital punishment Believing that armed combat is learned behaviour he posed questions about its learning process that had yet to be answered He acted as a major synthesizer of the growing literature on warfare and led attempts among anthropologists to apply their knowledge of war and peace to current events This volume will serve both as a useful introduction to the anthropology of war and as a needed compendium of Professor Otterbein's ideas      My Mother's Sons Patrick Krayner, 2013-09-09 My Mother's Sons provides a thoughtful model for how Western Christian workers can respectfully negotiate sexual boundaries and norms in Muslim contexts Westerners are inclined to impose their own culturally shaped notions of gender equality and justice on non egalitarian communities alienating the very people they are seeking to serve The author draws on his own research among Pakistani Pashtuns intercultural theory and exegesis of Christian and Islamic sacred texts to show that it is possible to work for transformational change without offending those who live within a patriarchal system      The Anthropology of War Keith F. Otterbein, 2009-03-24 Keith Otterbein a long time authority on anthropological studies of warfare provides a rich synthesis of theory literature and findings developed by anthropologists and scholars from other disciplines This in depth yet concisely look at warfare opens with two well known ethnographic examples of warring peoples the Dani and the Yanomam The origins and evolution of war types of warfare weapons and tactics military organizations and the social bases of war structure discussions within the text Analyses of historical events and case studies inform readers of different perspectives about why people go to war how societies can be identified as having war the elements necessary for war and how war might be avoided Otterbein concludes the text by presenting the concept of Positive Peace promoting peace as a goal of human existence as a way for humans to eliminate the fatal consequences of war      Culture and Customs of Cameroon John Mukum Mbaku Esq., 2005-06-30 Cameroon in Central Africa has been called Africa in miniature It is characterized by exceptional social and ethnic diversity with more than 250 ethnicities now forming five major regional culture groupings This volume is the first to encapsulate Cameroon's rich indigenous and modern customs and traditions in depth The narrative emphasizes those aspects that define its modern nation its peoples the unique societies their institutions and various lifestyles The origins of Cameroon's diverse culture are traced back to the various ethnic groups and languages as well as the influence of European colonialism Christianity Islam and other external factors including globalization In each topical chapter examples from ethnic groups are presented to give some sense of the variety of experiences Cameroon has had a turbulent and eventful modern history with German English and French incursions and students and general readers will be able to understand the current struggle for democracy post independence The history colors the substantial coverage of the many topics examined from education to marriage and women's roles sports and holidays daily life the arts and much more This volume will stand as the definitive accessible introduction to Cameroon and will be essential for building a well rounded Africa collection      The Kapsiki Language David Martin Smith, 1969      The Creative Communion Anita Jacobson-Widding, W.
