Michael Brown

The Heart Of A Dog And Other Stories:

A Dog's Heart Mikhail Bulgakov, 2007 This is Bulgakov's surreal tale of a Moscow doctor who befriends a stray dog and performs on it a human transplant with disastrous consequences

A Dog's Heart Mikhail Bulgakov, 2016-03-20 A dark fantastical satire of Communist utopianism by the author of The Master and Margarita. Lauded Russian author and playwright Mikhail Bulgakov's A Dog's Heart sometimes translated as The Heart of a Dog is a zany violent and whimsical satire of the failures inherent in the dream of a Communist utopia following dog turned human Sharik as he tries and fails utterly to live a life of goodness and virtue but goodness and virtue as defined by whom. Both a nod to the Frankenstein myth and a vicious critique of the Soviet government's attempts to reshape and redefine personhood during and after the Russian Revolution A Dog's Heart was rejected for publication by censors in 1925 but was circulated via samizdat, the clandestine production and distribution of literature that had been banned by the state for years until it was translated into English in 1968. To this day the book remains one of Bulgakov's most highly regarded works.

The Heart of a Dog Albert Payson Terhune, 2021-11-05 In The Heart of a Dog Albert Payson Terhune crafts a poignant exploration of the bond between humans and their canine companions showcasing his trademark vivid narrative style. Set against the backdrop of early 20th century America, this work interweaves themes of loyalty, love, and the profound emotional responses elicited by dogs. Terhune's rich prose and keen observations create a tactile sense of the natural world while also emphasizing the virtues of fidelity and companionship that characterize the relationship between dogs and humans. This book not only serves as an homage to canine loyalty but also as a reflection on the heart's capacity for love and empathy. Albert Payson Terhune, an esteemed American author known for his love of dogs, drew inspiration for this book from his own experiences with canines, particularly from his beloved collies. His upbringing in a pet-loving household coupled with his literary talents led him to capture the unique essence of dogs and their impact on human life. Terhune's dedication to his writing is evident as he often blurs the lines between storytelling and genuine observation, allowing readers to connect deeply with the narratives he presents. For readers seeking both an emotional journey and a celebration of the dog-human relationship, The Heart of a Dog is an indispensable addition to the canon of animal literature. Terhune's lyrical prose and profound insights into the canine experience offer a captivating perspective that resonates with dog lovers and literary enthusiasts alike. This book invites reflection on the nature of loyalty and love, making it a timeless classic.

Medical Storyworlds Elena Fratto, 2021-11-02 Though often seen as scientific or objective, medicine has a fundamentally narrative aspect. Much like how an author constructs meaning around fictional events, a doctor or patient narrates the course of an illness and treatment. In what ways have literary and medical storytelling intersected with and shaped each other? In Medical Storyworlds, Elena Fratto examines the relationship between literature and medicine at the turn of the twentieth century, a period when novelists were experimenting with narrative form and the modern medical establishment was taking shape She traces how Russian writers such as Dostoevsky Tolstoy and Bulgakov responded to contemporary medical and public health prescriptions placing them in dialogue with French and Italian authors including Romaine and Svevo and such texts as treatises by Paul Broca and Cesare Lombroso In nuanced readings of these works Fratto reveals how authors and characters question the rhetoric and authority of medicine and public health in telling stories of mortality illness and well being In so doing she argues they provide alternative ways of thinking about the limits and possibilities of human agency and free will Bridging the medical humanities European literary studies and Slavic studies Medical Storyworlds shows how narrative theory and canonical literary texts offer a new lens on today's debates in medical ethics and bioethics
