The Invention Of Somalia:

The Invention of Somalia Ali Jimale Ahmed, 1995 This study analyses the basic assumptions which had informed the construction of the now discredited Somali myth Making Sense of Somali History Abdullahi, Abdurahman, 2017-09-18 In the last three decades Somalia has been associated with such horrible terms as state collapse civil wars foreign intervention warlordism famine piracy and terrorism This depiction was in contradiction to its earlier images as the cradle of the human race the kernel of ancient civilizations the land of Punt a homogeneous nation state and the first democratic state in Africa So how did things fall apart in the country This Volume 1 of a two volume narrative Dr Abdullahi explores the history of the people of Somali peninsula since ancient times the advent of Islam and colonialism the rise and fall of Somali nationalism and the perspectives of the Somali state collapse The book uses a unique thematic approach and analysis to make sense of Somali history by emphasizing the responsibility of Somali political elites in creating and perpetuating the disastrous conditions in their country A Modern History of the Somali I. M. Lewis, 2003-03-17 This latest edition of A Modern History of the Somali brings I M Lewis s definitive history up to date and shows the amazing continuity of Somali forms of social organization Lewis s history portrays the ingeniousness with which the Somali way of life has been adapted to all forms of modernity Shari'a, Inshallah Mark Fathi Massoud, 2021-05-27 Shari a Inshallah shows how people have used shari a to struggle for peace justice and human rights in Somalia and Somaliland Political Islam from Muhammad to Ahmadinejad Joseph Morrison Skelly, 2009-11-25 This collection of 15 essays illuminates the evolution of political Islam from the era of the Prophet Muhammad to the presidency of Mahmoud Ahmadinejad in Iran Under the auspices of the Association for the Study of the Middle East and Africa Joseph Morrison Skelly brings together a team of experts to create a compelling scholarly investigation of the interrelationship of Islam and politics Divided into several topical sections including early origins of Islamic politics the development of jihad in an age of terror and contemporary politics Political Islam from Muhammad to Ahmadinejad Defenders Detractors and Definitions is an in depth exploration of the various dimensions of political Islam for the international community the Islamic world itself and anyone who seeks a deeper understanding of this phenomenon Political Islam from Muhammad to Ahmadinejad takes an evenhanded approach in considering competing interpretations of political Islam successfully broadening the scholarly investigation of the topic The work assesses political Islam across a broad chronological time frame and includes regional perspectives within the contexts of areas in Africa and the Middle East Skelly and his colleagues tackle controversial issues head on and provide an intellectual framework for advancing political Islam into new stages of economic development intellectual renewal and accommodation with constitutional democracy and human rights Each contributor lends a unique and specialized perspective to the discussion on this timely topic What are Somalia's Development Perspectives? Jörg Janzen, Stella von Vitzthum, 2001 Abolition and Its Aftermath in the Indian Ocean Africa and Asia Gwyn Campbell, 2013-01-11 This important collection of essays examines the history and impact of the abolition of the slave trade and slavery in the Indian Ocean World a region stretching from Southern and Eastern Africa to the Middle East India Southeast Asia and the Far East Slavery studies have traditionally concentrated on the Atlantic slave trade and slavery in the Americas In comparison the Indian Ocean World slave trade has been little explored although it started some 3 500 years before the Atlantic slave trade and persists to the present day This volume which follows a collection of essays The Structure of Slavery in Indian Ocean Africa and Asia Frank Cass 2004 examines the various abolitionist impulses indigenous and European in the Indian Ocean World during the nineteenth and twentieth centuries It assesses their efficacy within a context of a growing demand for labour resulting from an expanding international economy and European colonisation The essays show that in applying definitions of slavery derived from the American model European agents in the region failed to detect or deliberately ignored other forms of slavery and as a result the abolitionist impulse was only partly successful with the slave trade still continuing today in many parts of the Indian Ocean World

shell-shocked civilians under siege in mogadishu ,2007      After Independence Lowell Barrington,2009-12-18 The majority of the existing work on nationalism has centered on its role in the creation of new states After Independence breaks new ground by examining the changes to nationalism after independence in seven new states This innovative volume challenges scholars and specialists to rethink conventional views of ethnic and civic nationalism and the division between primordial and constructivist understandings of national identity Where do nationalists go once they get what they want We know rather little about how nationalist movements transform themselves into the governments of new states or how they can become opponents of new regimes that in their view have not taken the self determination drive far enough This stellar collection contributes not only to comparative theorizing on nationalist movements but also deepens our understanding of the contentious politics of nationalism s ultimate product new countries Charles King Chair of the Faculty and Ion Ratiu Associate Professor Georgetown University School of Foreign Service This well integrated volume analyzes two important variants of nationalism postcolonial and postcommunist in a sober lucid way and will benefit students and scholars alike Zvi Gitelman University of Michigan Lowell W Barrington is Associate Professor of Political Science Marquette University

Peace Maintenance Jarat Chopra,2012-10-12 Peace Maintenance explores the controversial concept that has evolved from diplomatic peacekeeping and military peace enforcement Jarat Chopra the architect of peace maintenance outlines the limitations of traditional peacekeeping principles reliant on the increasingly questionable consent of belligerents He traces the evolution of the political administrative legal and judicial ingredients of international authority He draws on his extensive experience of peace operations with the United Nations using many examples to illustrate the context and evolution of peace maintenance including in depth studies of Somalia and Western Sahara      Renewers of the Age Scott Reese,2008-06-30 Studies of nineteenth and twentieth century Islamic reform have tended to focus more on the evolution of ideas than how those ideas emerge from local contexts or are disseminated to a broad audience Using the urban culture of southern Somalia known as the Benaadir this book explores the role of local ulam as popular intellectuals in the early colonial period Drawing on locally compiled hagiographies religious poetry and Sufi manuals it examines the place of religious discourse as social discourse and how religious leaders sought to guide society through a time of troubles through calls to greater piety but also by exhorting believers to examine their lives in the hopes of bringing society into line with their image of a proper Islamic society

An Imperial World at War Ashley Jackson, Yasmin Khan, Gajendra Singh, 2016-07-01 At the start of the Second World War Britain was at the height of its imperial power and it is no surprise that it drew upon the global resources of the Empire once war had been declared Whilst this international aspect of Britain's war effort has been well studied in relation to the military contribution of individual dominions and colonies relatively little has been written about the Empire as a whole As such An Imperial World at War makes an important contribution to the historiography relating to the British Empire and its wartime experience It argues that the war needs to be viewed in imperial terms that the role of forces drawn from the Empire is poorly understood and that the war's impact on colonial societies is barely grasped at all in conventional accounts Through a series of case studies the volume demonstrates the fundamental role played by the Empire in Britain's war effort and highlights some of the consequences for both Britain and its imperial territories Themes include the recruitment and utilization of military formations drawn from imperial territories the experience of British forces stationed overseas the use of strategic bases located in the colonies British policy in the Middle East and the challenge posed by growing American power the occupation of enemy colonies and the enemy occupation of British colonies colonial civil defence measures financial support for the war effort supplied by the Empire and the commemoration of the war The Afterword anticipates a new decentred history of the war that properly acknowledges the role and importance of people and places throughout the colonial and semi colonial world This volume emanates from a conference organized as part of the Home Fronts of the Empire Commonwealth project The project was generously funded by the Arts and Humanities Research Council and led by Yasmin Khan and Ashley Jackson with Gajendra Singh as Postdoctoral Research Assistant

Peace Operations and Restorative Justice Peter Reddy, 2016-05-13 With a bold vision and a distinctive message Reddy stipulates that international peacekeeping can be designed and implemented using the principles of restorative justice To prove this Reddy discusses the congruence of crime armed conflict and violent disorder critiquing restorative justice and its nuanced character as a suitable application to complex civil wars This book provides a comprehensive survey of peace operations and then focuses on the cases of Somalia and Bougainville The comparison between their societal contexts their conflicts peace operations and final outcomes are crucial to this argument Furthermore this shows how the constraining maximising and emergent values of restorative justice can be applied in a peacekeeping setting from the overall command level through to the behaviours of deployed peacekeepers with direct contemporary application This sharp study makes for evocative reading as it introduces the new concept of regeneration as key to any restoratively arranged peace operation Military police NGO and civilian peacekeeper practitioners as well as academic theorists can use this unique work to produce better and more lasting results for conflict ridden communities

Muslims in the Diaspora Rima Berns McGown, 1999-01-01 Explores the balancing act of living as a Muslim in the west It is a comparison of the Somali communities in London England and Toronto and is based on a series of in depth interviews with over 80 Somali women men and teenagers in those cities

Islam in Africa South of the Sahara Pade Badru, Brigid M. Sackey, 2013-05-23 Islam in Africa South of the Sahara Essays in Gender Relations and Political Reform draws together contributions from scholars that focus on changes taking place in the practice of the religion and their effects on the political terrain and civil society Contributors explore the dramatic changes in gender relations within Islam on the continent occasioned in part by the events of 9 11 and the response of various Islamic states to growing negative media coverage These explorations of the dynamics of religious change reconfigured gender relations and political reform consider not only the role of state authorities but the impact of ordinary Muslim women who have taken to challenging the subordinate role assigned to them in Islam Essays are far ranging in their scope as the future of Islam in sub Saharan Africa falls under the microscope with contributors addressing such topics as the Islamic view of the historic Arab enslavement of Africans and colonialist ventures studies of gender politics in Gambia northern Nigeria and Ghana surveys of the impact of Sharia law in Nigeria and Sudan the political role of Islam in Somalia South Africa and African diaspora communities Islam in Africa South of the Sahara is an ideal reader for students and scholars of international politics comparative theology race and ethnicity comparative sociology African and Islamic studies

No Redress: Somalia's Forgotten Minorities Martin J. D. Hill, 2010-11-23 This report documents the neglected situation of Somalia's minorities It aims to raise awareness of the continuing severe violations of their human rights so that they can move from exclusion and poverty towards a future of dignity equal opportunities and non discrimination alongside their fellow citizens The report examines the current situation in three regions of Somalia Somaliland Puntland and south central Somalia where differing political climates have left minorities in a state of desperation Severe human rights violations against internally displaced minorities particularly women were reported to MRG's researchers in Puntland Accounts of hate speech displacement and religious persecution particularly of Christians emerged in the violent south central region of the country where militant organization al Shabaab controls much of the territory Meanwhile in the relatively peaceful self declared Republic of Somaliland in north western Somalia minorities still face significant barriers in the political educational and social spheres MRG emphasizes among other recommendations that the future new Constitution of Somalia must recognize the country's minorities and guarantee their right to non discrimination that the participation of minorities in public life should be promoted and that special measures should be implemented to protect and promote the rights of women from minority communities The report's author Martin Hill is a specialist on Somali human rights He has extensive experience of the Horn of Africa having spent more than 30 years as a researcher for Amnesty International

The State, Ethnicity, and Gender in Africa Scott Straus, Aili Mari Tripp, 2024 Postcolonialism the politics of ethnic and religious identity and the role of women in African society and politics have become important and often connected foci in African studies Here fifteen chapters explore these themes in tandem With essays that span the continent this volume showcases the political histories challenges and promise of contemporary Africa Written in honor of Crawford Young a foundational figure in the study of African politics the essays reflect the breadth and intellectual legacy of this towering scholar and illustrate the vast impact Young had and continues to have on the field The book's themes build from his seminal publications and the essays were written by leading scholars who were trained by Young

The Horn of Africa since the 1960s Aleks Ylönen, Jan Záhork, 2017-02-17 The Horn of Africa has long been one of the most dynamic and politically turbulent sub regions on the African continent Host to great ancient civilizations diverse peoples and expansive states the region has experienced massive social economic and political transformations which have given rise to military coups revolutions and intractable ethnic socio economic and religious conflicts This comprehensive volume brings together a team of expert scholars who analyze international regional national and local affairs in the Horn of Africa The chapters demonstrate the intertwined nature of the actors and forces shaping political realities The case studies focusing on Ethiopia Eritrea Somalia Somaliland Sudan and South Sudan eloquently illustrate the complex dynamics connecting the spectrum of political issues in the region The Horn of Africa since the 1960s will be of interest to students and scholars of contemporary Africa and political science
