Islamic Movement Dynamics of Values, Power and Change Sayyid Abul A'la Mawdudi, 1984      Islamic Da'wah in the West Larry Poston, 1992-06-04 This book explains the concept of Islamic da wah or missionary activity as it has developed in contemporary Western contexts Poston traces the transition from the early external institutional missionary approach impracticable in modern Western society to an internal personal approach which aims at the conversion of individuals and seeks to influence society from the bottom upwards Poston also combines the results of a questionnaire survey with an analysis of published testimonies to identify significant traits that distinguish converts to Islam      The Jew is Not My Enemy Tarek Fatah, 2011-12-06 A liberal Muslim and critically acclaimed author explores the historical political and theological basis for centuries of Muslim animosity towards Jews debunking long held myths and tracing a history of hate and its impact today More than nine years after 9 11 and 60 years after the creation of the state of Israel the world is no closer to solving let alone understanding the psychological and political divide between Jews and Muslims While countless books have been written on the subject of terrorism political Islam and jihad barely a handful address the theological and historical basis of the Jew Muslim divide Following the terrorist attacks on Mumbai in November 2008 in which Pakistani jihadis sought out and murdered the members of a local Jewish centre Tarek Fatah began an in depth investigation of the historical basis for the crime In this provocative new book Fatah uses extensive research to trace how literature from as early as the seventh century has fueled the hatred of Jews by Muslims Fatah debunks the anti Jewish writings of the Hadith literature takes apart the Arab supremacist doctrines that lend fuel to the fire and reinterprets supposed anti Jewish passages in the Quran In doing so he argues that hating Jews is against the essence of the Islamic spirit and suggests what needs to be done to eliminate the agonizing friction between the two communities      World Culture, EPZ Edition Frank J. Lechner, John Boli, 2008-04-15 This book explores the development content and impact of world culture Combining several of the most fruitful theoretical perspectives on world culture including the world polity approach and globalization theory the book gives a historical treatment of the development of world culture and assesses the complex impact of world culture on people organizations and societies This is a provocative synthetic and grounded interpretation of world culture that is essential for any student or scholar of globalization and world affairs Traces world culture back from the mid 19th century to the present day Includes numerous illustrations of key issues and empirical research Written in lively accessible language for the student and general scholar      Was Jesus a Muslim? Robert F. Shedinger, An intriguing question Do Muslims understand Jesus in some ways more historically appropriate than Christians do leads Robert F Shedinger into a series of provocative challenges to the disciplines of religious studies and comparative religions Questioning the convenient distinction between politics and religion and the isolation of religion from wider social and cultural questions Shedinger offers a proposal for a more accurate and respectful understanding of faith that he argues will improve possibilities for mutual understanding among Christians Muslims and others

The Resurgence of Religion David S. Zeidan, 2018-11-13 This book is a comparative study of basic themes in Christian and Islamic fundamentalist discourses analyzing and comparing texts from a wide variety of fundamentalist leaders and movements looking for family resemblances and significant differences in order to better understand the contemporary phenomenon of religious resurgence After placing fundamentalisms in a theoretical framework the study looks at selected themes important to fundamentalists noting resemblances and differences These themes include their anti secularist stance their theocentric worldviews their reliance on inerrant sacred scriptures and their attitudes to politics government state and democracy The study also looks at the fundamentalist view of the world as a perennial battlefield between the forces of good and those of evil in the realm of ideologies as well as politics and the legitimization of violence

The OIC, the UN, and Counter-Terrorism Law-Making Katja Samuel, 2014-07-18 The increasingly transnational nature of terrorist activities compels the international community to strengthen the legal framework in which counter terrorism activities should occur at every level including that of intergovernmental organizations This unique timely and carefully researched monograph examines one such important yet generally under researched and poorly understood intergovernmental organization the Organization of Islamic Cooperation OIC formerly the Organization of the Islamic Conference In particular it analyses in depth its institutional counter terrorism law making practice and the relationship between resultant OIC law and comparable UN norms in furtherance of UN Global Counter Terrorism Strategy goals Furthermore it explores two common misassumptions regarding the OIC namely whether its internal institutional weaknesses mean that its law making practice is inconsequential at the intergovernmental level and whether its self declared Islamic objectives and nature are irrelevant to its institutional practice or are instead reflected within OIC law Where significant normative tensions are discerned between OIC law and UN law the monograph explores not only whether these may be explicable at least in part by the OIC's Islamic nature and objectives but also whether their corresponding institutional legal orders are conflicting or cooperative in nature and the resultant implications of these findings for international counter terrorism law and policy making This monograph is expected to appeal especially to national and intergovernmental counter terrorism practitioners and policy makers as well as to scholars concerned with the interaction between international and Islamic law norms From the Foreword by Professor Ben

Saul The University of Sydney Dr Samuels book must be commended as an original and insightful contribution to international legal scholarship on the OIC Islamic law international law and counter terrorism It fills significant gaps in legal knowledge about the vast investment of international and regional effort that has gone into the global counter terrorism enterprise over many decades and which accelerated markedly after 9 11 The scope of the book is ambitious its subject matter is complex and its sources are many and diverse Dr Samuel has deployed an appropriate theoretical and empirical methodology harnessed an intricate knowledge of the field and brought a balanced judgement to bear to bring these issues to life

International Law in a Multipolar World Matthew Happold, 2013-03 This book explores the implications of a multipolar world for the development of international law including contributions from Nigel White Alexander Orakhelashvili and Christian Phipps The contributions explore issues including the use of force governance regionalism and the relevance of the UN considering the relationship between power and law

Challenges to Religions and Islam Hamid Naseem Rafiabadi, 2007

Mawdudi and the Making of Islamic Revivalism Seyyed Vali Reza Nasr, 1996-01-04 Nasr examines the life and thought of Mawlana Mawdudi one of the first and most important Islamic ideological thinkers Mawdudi was the first to develop a modern political Islamic ideology and a plan for social action to realize his vision The prolific writings and indefatigable efforts of Mawdudi's party the Jamaat i Islami first in India and later in Pakistan have disseminated his ideas far and wide His views have informed revivalism from Morocco to Malaysia Nasr discerns the events that led Mawdudi to a revivalist perspective and probes the structure of his thought in order to gain fresh insights into the origins of Islamic revivalism He argues that Islamic revivalism did not simply develop as a cultural rejection of the West rather it was closely tied to questions of communal politics and its impact on identity formation discourse of power in plural societies and nationalism Mawdudi's discourse though aimed at the West was motivated by Muslim Hindu competition for power in British India His aim according to Nasr was to put forth a view of Islam whose invigorated pristine and uncompromising outlook would galvanize Muslims into an ideologically uniform and hence politically indivisible community In time this view developed a life of its own and evolved into an all encompassing perspective on society and politics and has been a notable force in South Asia and Muslim life and thought across the Muslim world

The Rights of God Irene Oh, 2007-12-01

Promoting Islam as a defender of human rights is laden with difficulties Advocates of human rights will readily point out numerous humanitarian failures carried out in the name of Islam In The Rights of God Irene Oh looks at human rights and Islam as a religious issue rather than a political or legal one and draws on three revered Islamic scholars to offer a broad range of perspectives that challenge our assumptions about the role of religion in human rights The theoretical shift from the conception of morality based in natural duty and law to one of rights has created tensions that hinder a fruitful exchange between human rights theorists and religious thinkers Does the static identification of human rights with lists of specific rights such as those found in the Universal Declaration of Human Rights make sense given the cultural historical and religious diversity of the societies in which these rights are to be respected and implemented In examining human rights issues of the contemporary Islamic world Oh illustrates how the value of religious scholarship cannot be overestimated Oh analyzes the commentaries of Abul A la Maududi Sayyid Qutb and Abdolkarim Soroush all prominent and often controversial Islamic thinkers on the topics of political participation religious toleration and freedom of conscience While Maududi and Qutb represent traditional Islam and Soroush a more reform and Western friendly approach all three contend that Islam is indeed capable of accommodating and advocating human rights Whereas disentangling politics and culture from religion is never easy Oh shows that the attempt must be made in order to understand and overcome the historical obstacles that prevent genuine dialogue from taking place across religious and cultural boundaries

Modern Islamist Movements Jon Armajani, 2011-11-07 Modern Islamist Movements provides a clear and accessible examination of the history beliefs and rationale of Islamist Groups and their grievances with the West and governments within the majority Muslim world while examining some of these groups visions for a global Islamic empire A clear and accessible text that examines the history beliefs and rationale for violence emerging from Islamist movements while examining some of these groups visions for a global Islamic empire Examines Islamist grievances against the West and modern governments in the majority Muslim world while providing an overview of Islam s relations with the West from the period of the Crusades to the modern age Discusses the historic development of Islamism in Egypt the West Bank and Gaza Saudi Arabia Pakistan and Afghanistan Explains classic Islamic understandings of jihad and Bin Laden s al Qaida s and other Islamists interpretations of this concept Offers an historical account of the formative relationship between al Qaida other Islamists and Islamic intellectual trends beginning in the eighteenth century Appropriate for undergraduate and graduate students as well as interested general readers

Life in Freedom Michael Amaladoss, 2014-04-17 In Life in Freedom Michael Amaladoss analyzes the many rich and complex strands of Asian religious thought on the notion and nature of the path toward liberation As he shows Asian liberation theology departs significantly from the Latin American model with which it is commonly compared Rather than put primary emphasis on economic issues Asian cultures give much greater priority to the role of religion in the composition of a healthy society In Part One Amaladoss discusses current liberation movements and thought in Korea the Philippines and India In two other chapters he shows also that the awakening of women is integral to the search for human freedom and development and the growing importance sound ecological policies in any valid approach to liberation in Asia In Part Two Amaladoss discusses non Christian approaches to human liberation and freedom showing how the lives and thought of influential figures of other faiths have given distinctive shape to Asian approaches to liberation Buddhists such as Thich Nhat Hanh and Hindus such as Mahatma Gandhi and E V Ramaswamy show that hostility to religion is remote from the most characteristic Asian liberation movements Gandhi s entire politics was rooted in the notion that to attain Truth or to realize God is the goal of human life But God for Gandhi is realized concretely in the world and particularly in other people Service to others then becomes a way to God and ultimately to human liberation Similarly Confucian traditions embody a deeply indigenous Asian way of constructing reality as a sacred whole In that construct liberation and freedom take on meanings and dimensions functionally religious in the way they anchor individuals and the community to the cosmic whole In Part Three Amaladoss gives his own analysis and prophetic overview on how the plurality of images of liberation enriches the possibility for interreligious cooperation in overcoming the forces of oppression in Asia

Islam and the Orientalist World-system Khaldoun Samman, Mazhar Al-Zo'by, 2015-11-17 Featuring Immanuel Wallerstein Joseph Massad Marnia Lazreg and other well known and emerging new authors this book seeks a more accurate understanding of Islam and Islamic societies role and relations to global cultural and economic realities The book confronts a trend today of analyzing Islam as a cultural system that stands outside of and even predates modernity The authors see this trend as part of a racist discourse unaware of the realities of contemporary Islam Islamic societies today are products of the world capitalist system and cannot be understood as being separate from its forces The authors offer a more carefully constructed and richer portrait of Islamic societies today and forcefully challenge the belief that Islam is not part of nor much affected by the modern world system
