The Islamic Threat Myth Or Reality:

The Islamic Threat John L. Esposito, 1999-10-07 Are Islam and the West on a collision course From the Ayatollah Khomeini to Saddam Hussein the image of Islam as a militant expansionist and rabidly anti American religion has gripped the minds of Western governments and media But these perceptions John L Esposito writes stem from a long history of mutual distrust criticism and condemnation and are far too simplistic to help us understand one of the most important political issues of our time In this new edition of The Islamic Threat Myth or Reality Esposito places the challenge of Islam in critical perspective Exploring the vitality of this religion as a global force and the history of its relations with the West Esposito demonstrates the diversity of the Islamic resurgence and the mistakes our analysts make in assuming a hostile monolithic Islam This third edition has been expanded to include new material on current affairs in Turkey Afghanistan Palestine and Southeast Asia as well as a discussion of international terrorism

The Islamic Threat John L. Esposito, 1992 Are Islam and the West on an inevitable collision course Are Islamic fundamentalists medieval fanatics a threat to stability in the Muslim world and to American interests in the region In this revealing work a leading authority on the Islamic world takes a hard look at the challenge diversity and sources of Middle East politics

The Politics of Secularism in International Relations Elizabeth Shakman Hurd, 2009-01-10 Conflicts involving religion have returned to the forefront of international relations And yet political scientists and policymakers have continued to assume that religion has long been privatized in the West This secularist assumption ignores the contestation surrounding the category of the secular in international politics The Politics of Secularism in International Relations shows why this thinking is flawed and provides a powerful alternative Elizabeth Shakman Hurd argues that secularist divisions between religion and politics are not fixed as commonly assumed but socially and historically constructed Examining the philosophical and historical legacy of the secularist traditions that shape European and American approaches to global politics she shows why this matters for contemporary international relations and in particular for two critical relationships the United States and Iran and the European Union and Turkey The Politics of Secularism in International Relations develops a new approach to religion and international relations that challenges realist liberal and constructivist assumptions that religion has been excluded from politics in the West The first book to consider secularism as a form of political authority in its own right it describes two forms of secularism and their far reaching global consequences

A Comparative Study of Islamic Finance in Australia and the UK Imran Lum, 2021-09-28 This book provides valuable insights into the practical challenges faced by the nascent Islamic finance industry and compares the Australian experience to developments in the UK It contributes to a greater understanding of how Muslims living as a minority in Australia and the UK negotiate Islamic doctrine in secular societies by focusing on one aspect of this negotiation namely the prohibition of rib There is little debate in the Islamic tradition on the prohibition of rib The differences however lie in the interpretation of rib and the question of how Muslims live in a society that is heavily reliant on interest and conventional banking yet at the same time adhere to Islamic guidelines Through the words of religious leaders Muslim professionals and university students Imran Lum provides real accounts of how Muslims in Australia and the UK practically deal with conventional banking and finance products such as home loans savings accounts and credit cards He also explores Muslim attitudes towards Islamic finance and queries whether religion is the sole determining factor when it comes to its uptake Drawing on his own unique experience as a practitioner responsible for growing an Islamic business in a conventional bank Lum provides a firsthand account of the complexities associated with structuring Islamic finance products that are not only sharia compliant but also competitive in a non Muslim jurisdiction Using uk k bonds as a case study he highlights the tangible and non tangible barriers to product development such as tax and regulatory requirements and the rise of Islamophobia Combining academic and industry experience Lum unpacks the relationship of Islamic finance with Muslim identity construction in the West and how certain modalities of religiosity can lead to an uptake of Islamic finance while others can lead to its rejection

Islamic Myths and Memories Itzhak Weismann, Mark Sedgwick, Ulrika Mårtensson, 2016-05-06 Islamic myths and collective memory are very much alive in today's localized struggles for identity and are deployed in the ongoing construction of worldwide cultural networks This book brings the theoretical perspectives of myth making and collective memory to the study of Islam and globalization and to the study of the place of the mass media in the contemporary Islamic resurgence It explores the annulment of spatial and temporal distance by globalization and by the communications revolution underlying it and how this has affected the cherished myths and memories of the Muslim community It shows how contemporary Islamic thinkers and movements respond to the challenges of globalization by preserving reviving reshaping or transforming myths and memories

Islam and Political Legitimacy Shahram Akbarzadeh, Abdullah Saeed, 2003-09-02 Explores one of the most challenging issues facing the Muslim world the Islamization of political power It presents a comparative analysis of Muslim societies in West South Central and South east Asia

The Enemy At Home Dinesh D'Souza, 2008-02-12 From THE ENEMY AT HOME In this book I make a claim that will seem startling at the outset The cultural left in this country is responsible for causing 9 11 In faulting the cultural left I am not making the absurd accusation that this group blew up the World Trade Center and the Pentagon I am saying that the cultural left and its allies in Congress the media Hollywood the nonprofit sector and the universities are the primary cause of the volcano of anger toward America that is erupting from the Islamic world The Muslims who carried out the 9 11 attacks were the product of this visceral rage some of it based on legitimate concerns some of it based on wrongful prejudice but all of it fueled and encouraged by the cultural left Thus without the cultural left 9 11 would not have happened I realize that this is a strong charge one that no one has made before But it is a neglected aspect of the 9 11 debate and it is critical to understanding the current controversy over the war against terrorism I intend to show that the left has actively fostered the intense hatred of America that has led to numerous attacks such as 9 11 If I am right then no war against terrorism can be effectively fought using the left wing premises that are now accepted doctrine among mainstream liberals and Democrats Whenever Muslims charge that the war on terror is really a war against Islam Americans hasten to assure them they are wrong Yet as Dinesh D Souza argues in this powerful and timely polemic there really is a war against Islam Only this war is not being waged by Christian conservatives bent on a moral crusade to impose democracy abroad but by the American cultural left which for years has been vigorously exporting its domestic war against religion and traditional morality to the rest of the world D Souza contends that the cultural left is responsible for 9 11 in two ways by fostering a decadent and depraved American culture that angers and repulses other societies especially traditional and religious ones and by promoting at home and abroad an anti American attitude that blames America for all the problems of the world Islamic anti Americanism is not merely a reaction to U S foreign policy but is also rooted in a revulsion against what Muslims perceive to be the atheism and moral depravity of American popular culture Muslims and other traditional people around the world allege that secular American values are being imposed on their societies and that these values undermine religious belief weaken the traditional family and corrupt the innocence of children But it is not America that is doing this to them it is the American cultural left What traditional societies consider repulsive and immoral the cultural left considers progressive and liberating Taking issue with those on the right who speak of a clash of civilizations D Souza argues that the war on terror is really a war for the hearts and minds of traditional Muslims and traditional peoples everywhere The only way to win the struggle with radical Islam is to convince traditional Muslims that America is on their side We are accustomed to thinking of the war on terror and the culture war as two distinct and separate struggles D Souza shows that they are really one and the same Conservatives must recognize that the left is now allied with the Islamic radicals in a combined effort to defeat Bush s war on terror A whole new strategy is therefore needed to fight both wars In order to defeat the Islamic radicals abroad D Souza writes we must defeat the enemy at home

Edward Said's Rhetoric of the Secular Mathieu E. Courville, 2011-10-20 Edward Said s Rhetoric of the Secular provides an important new reading of Edward W Said s work emphasizing not only the distinction but also the fuzzy borders between representations of the religious and the secular found within and throughout his oeuvre and at the core of some of his most customary rhetorical strategies Mathieu Courville begins by examining Said s own reflections on his life before moving on to key debates about Said s work within Religious Studies and Middle Eastern Studies and his relationship to French critical theorists Through close attention to Said s use of the literal and the figurative when dealing with religious national and cultural matters Courville discerns a pattern that illuminates what Said means by secular Said s work shows that the secular is not the utter opposite of religion in the modern globalized world but may exist in a productive tension with it

Contesting Secularism Anders Berg-Sørensen, 2016-05-13 As we enter the twenty first century the role of religion within civic society has become an issue of central concern across the world The complex trends of secularism multiculturalism and the rise of religiously motivated violence raise fundamental questions about the relationship between political institutions civic culture and religious groups Contesting Secularism represents a major intervention into this debate Drawing together contributions from leading scholars from across the world it analyses how secularism functions as a political doctrine in different national contexts put under pressure by globalisation In doing so it presents different models for the relationship between political institutions and religious groups challenging the reader to be more aware of assumptions within their own cultural context and raises alternative possibilities for the structure of democratic multi faith societies Through its inter disciplinary and comparative approach Contesting Secularism sets a new agenda for thinking about the place of religion in the public sphere of twenty first century societies It is essential reading for policymakers as well as for scholars and students in political science law sociology and religious studies

Islamism and Islam Bassam Tibi,2012-05-22 Despite the intense media focus on Muslims and their religion since the tragedy of 9 11 few Western scholars or policymakers today have a clear idea of the distinctions between Islam and the politically based fundamentalist movement known as Islamism In this important and illuminating book Bassam Tibi a senior scholar of Islamic politics provides a corrective to this dangerous gap in our understanding He explores the true nature of contemporary Islamism and the essential ways in which it differs from the religious faith of Islam Drawing on research in twenty Islamic countries over three decades Tibi describes Islamism as a political ideology based on a reinvented version of Islamic law In separate chapters devoted to the major features of Islamism he discusses the Islamist vision of state order the centrality of antisemitism in Islamist ideology Islamism s incompatibility with democracy the reinvention of jihadism as terrorism the invented tradition of shari a law as constitutional order and the Islamists confusion of the concepts of authenticity and cultural purity Tibi s concluding chapter applies elements of Hannah Arendt s theory to identify Islamism as a totalitarian ideology American Journal of Islamic Social Sciences 11:1 Abdullah H.
