The Japanese Princess And The American Rebel:

The Japanese Princess and the American Rebel Carl L. Poston, Jr., 2004-01-01 American Rebel Marc

Eliot, 2010-09-07 In American Rebel bestselling author and acclaimed film historian Marc Eliot examines the ever exciting often tumultuous arc of Clint Eastwood's life and career. As a Hollywood icon, Clint Eastwood, one of film's greatest living legends, represents some of the finest cinematic achievements in the history of American cinema. Eliot writes with unflinching candor about Eastwood's highs and lows, his artistic successes and failures, and the fascinating complex relationship between his life and his craft. Eliot's prodigious research reveals how a college dropout and unambitious playboy rose to fame as Hollywood's sexy rebel, eventually and against all odds becoming a star in the Academy pantheon as a multiple Oscar winner. Spanning decades, American Rebel covers the best of Eastwood's oeuvre: films that have fast become American classics: Fistful of Dollars, Dirty Harry, Unforgiven, Mystic River, Million Dollar Baby, and Gran Torino. Filled with remarkable insights into Eastwood's personal life and public work, American Rebel is highly entertaining and the most complete biography of one of Hollywood's truly respected and beloved stars, an actor who, despite being the Man with No Name, has left his indelible mark on the world of motion pictures.

Living Among South Carolina Outlaws Carl L. Poston Jr., 2013-01-16 The interior of South Carolina was a lawless place. In fact, Northern Georgia to western Pennsylvania has always been lacking in law and order, but in South Carolina, after the Cherokee Indian War in 1761, what little law had existed deteriorated to almost none. Indians were no longer a threat, but bold outlaw gangs roamed and ravaged the country, robbing, killing, and kidnapping, ever bold enough to challenge the few Militia. Here, there was no law, therefore no court or jail for any legal transaction; a weeklong trip had to be made to Charlestown. Seeing no help coming from the government, in Charlestown, citizens of the back country began organizing into vigilante groups called Regulators. In 1766, John Poston II migrated from Pennsylvania with his two sons, John III and Anthony, to settle by Lynches Creek in Queensboro Township. Here, in the lawless frontier, they struggled to make a home among the outlaws and Regulators.

From Manchurian Princess to the American Dream Anna Chao Pai, 2019-03-19 While most immigrants to the United States seek better lives than what they had, author Anna Chao Pai's parents came seeking safety from the Japanese; they left a life of luxury and power to become ordinary American citizens. In the end, the transition to ordinary was traumatic for Pai's mother, who became mentally unbalanced. In From Manchurian Princess to the American Dream, Pai shares her story, which is as much about her mother as it is about her. Pai was four years old when her family came to America from China, forced to flee because of war. She tells how they moved almost once a year, experiencing discrimination against Asians during World War II and attending twelve different schools before starting college. While her father and her siblings adjusted despite racism against Asians, Pai's mother, unable to learn the language, never assimilated into American life. From Manchurian Princess to the American Dream offers a look at modern Chinese history and culture. It provides insight into the impact of immigration on people who are ripped from their homes and find themselves beginning life in a foreign country where they must learn a new language and eventually lose all they left behind Noting the courage it took for Pai's parents to survive this memoir is a testament to them and her family The Politics of Culture in the Shadow of Capital Lisa Lowe, David Lloyd, 1997-11-17 Global in scope but refusing a familiar totalizing theoretical framework the essays in The Politics of Culture in the Shadow of Capital demonstrate how localized and resistant social practices including anticolonial and feminist struggles peasant revolts labor organizing and various cultural movements challenge contemporary capitalism as a highly differentiated mode of production Reworking Marxist critique these essays on Asia Latin America the Caribbean North America and Europe advance a new understanding of cultural politics within the context of transnational neocolonial capitalism This perspective contributes to an overall critique of traditional approaches to modernity development and linear liberal narratives of culture history and democratic institutions It also frames a set of alternative social practices that allows for connections to be made between feminist politics among immigrant women in Britain women of color in the United States and Muslim women in Iran Egypt Pakistan and Canada the work of subaltern studies in India the Philippines and Mexico and antiracist social movements in North and South America the Caribbean and Europe These connections displace modes of opposition traditionally defined in relation to the modern state and enable a rethinking of political practice in the era of global capitalism Contributors Tani E Barlow Nandi Bhatia Dipesh Chakrabarty Chungmoo Choi Clara Connolly Angela Davis Arturo Escobar Grant Farred Homa Hoodfar Reynaldo C Ileto George Lipsitz David Lloyd Lisa Lowe Martin F Manalansan IV Aihwa Ong Pragna Patel Jos Rabasa Maria Josefina Salda a Portillo Jaqueline Urla Dark Princess W.
