Contemporary Pentecostal Christianity

J. Kwabena Asamoah-Gyadu, 2013-01-11 Pentecostalism is the fastest growing stream of Christianity in the world. The real evidence for the significance of Pentecostalism lies in the actual churches they have built and the numbers they attract. In Africa, Pentecostalism has virtually become the representative face of Christianity, with even historic mission denominations pentecostalising their otherwise formal liturgical structures to survive. This work interprets key theological and missiological themes in African Pentecostalism by using material from the live experiences of the movement itself. An important source of primary material for instance is the popular books written by the leadership of contemporary Pentecostal churches and their media programs. An example of this is that on account of its motivational hermeneutics, the Eagle rather than the Dove has become the preferred symbol of the Holy Spirit in this nascent dynamic movement. The interpretation of themes from contemporary African Pentecostalism in this book reveals much about how, as a contemporary movement, it is reshaping African Christian spirituality in the 21st century.

The Book of History, 1921 The World War from the Outbreak of the War to the Treaty of Versailles Holland Thompson, 1921 The Politics of Religious Sound Justice Anquandah Arthur, 2018. Justice Arthur presents a wealth of intriguing material, an impressive thick description of the conflict, and a thorough analysis of the many very complex factors that contribute to the conflict. His work on the multiple dimensions of the conflict is knowledgeable, comprehensive, and plausible, and it clearly shows that the so-called religious conflicts are never about religion only. Prof. Dr. Eva Spies, University of Bayreuth, Germany. Justice A. Arthur has laid out a multidisciplinary, multi-perspective, and long-term analysis of the clashes on the noise ban in Accra. The chapters are convincingly set up in order to manage the complexity of approaches covering religious studies, theology, mission studies, as well as anthropology, legal, and political studies. Prof. Andreas Heuser, University of Basel, Switzerland.

Psychology, Symbolism, and the Sacred S. T. Manning, 2004. One in a very long while a book like this comes along, offering startling insights into the very nature of being. Innovative and provocative, Manning presents a courageous and penetrating inside look into the convoluted religious world and offers some truly original formulas for dealing with society's current religious problems. This stirring original book draws upon colorful and dramatic proofs in history, mythology, science, and psychology to candidly confront religious fundamentalism, probably the greatest menace facing our world today.
