The Jesus Event And Our Response:

The Jesus Event and Our Response Martin R. Tripole, 1980 The Grand Weaver: How God Shapes Us Through the Events of Our Lives Ravi Zacharias, 2010 With inspiring stories and thought provoking questions Ravi Zacharias traces the multiple threads of our lives describing how the unseen hand of God guides our joys our tragedies our daily humdrum to weave a pattern of divine providence and meaning Eucharist: A Guide for the Perplexed Ralph N. McMichael, 2010-06-17 What is the Eucharist This direct question would seem to yield an equally direct answer However as soon as we begin to answer it we encounter an array of responses layered with various complexities The answer is shaped by who answers for example a roman catholic an Anglican or a Baptist Perhaps even the name Eucharist would be contested Answers to this question would reflect not only confessional differences but also the spectrum of theological and liturgical perspectives across Christianity In this book Ralph McMichael analyses these complexities perplexities raised by asking this questions Promise Renewed Martin R. Tripole, 1999 Speaking candidly twenty seven noteworthy Jesuits from major areas of Jesuit higher education have contributed essays that discuss how the recent 34th General Congregation has had an impact on their scholarship and role as teachers and administrators The Divine-Human Relationship in Romans 1-8 in the Light of Interdependence Theory Yoonjong Kim, 2020-11-12 Yoonjong Kim analyses the divine human relationship in Paul s theology focusing on Paul s portrayal of the relationship in Romans 1 8 Kim stresses that previous studies of this relationship have not paid sufficient attention to the fact that it is not static but rather exhibits progression and development towards a goal To address the significance of the human agent s role in the relationship Kim employs a social psychological theory interdependence theory offering a consistent analytic framework for diagnosing the interactions in a dyadic relationship in terms of the dependency created by each partner s expectations of outcomes Kim explores several key stages of the divine human relationship and the direction in which the relationship develops throughout Romans 1 8 in order to highlight the significance of the human partners in the course of the development He focuses in particular on betrayal 1 18 3 20 restoration 3 21 26 5 1 11 the oppressive relationship with Sin 5 12 8 11 and the investment for the future 8 12 39 and concludes that although the foundation of the relationship rests on God s initiative the divine outworking guides the relationship so that it facilitates mutual participation of the human partners in the restoration and development of the relationship toward the ultimate goal A Thematic Access-Oriented Bibliography of Jesus's Resurrection Michael J. Alter, 2019-12-31 The keystone of Christianity is Jesus s physical bodily resurrection Present day scholars can be significantly challenged as they forage through voluminous documents on the resurrection of Jesus The literature measures well over seven thousand sources in English language books alone This makes finding specific sources that are most relevant for specific scholarly purposes an arduous task Even when a specific book is relevant finding the parts of the book that are most relevant to the resurrection rather than other topics often requires additional effort A Thematic Access Oriented Bibliography of Jesus's Resurrection addresses these challenges in several ways First the bibliography organizes more than seven thousand English sources into twelve main categories and then thirty four subcategories which are designed to help you find the most relevant literature quickly and efficiently Embedded are pro and con arguments which support efficient access through brief annotations and then annotate the diversity and complexity of the field of religion by including sources that represent a diverse range of views theistic e g Christian Jewish Muslim etc agnostic and nontheistic The objective of this bibliography is to provide convenient access to relevant sources from a variety of perspectives allowing you to browse or find the one source accurately and with ease

The Spirituality of Martyrdom Servais Pinckaers, 2016-05-06 Since the publication in English of his masterwork The Sources of Christian Ethics Servais Pinckaers has become the preferred guide for English speaking students of Catholic moral theology This late Belgian Dominican has made themes such as Beatitude happiness virtue and freedom for excellence standard features of classroom instruction in ethics moral theology and catechesis Father Pinckaers's new directions in moral theology came none too soon to Anglo American moral thought which otherwise would have become submerged completely under the waves of one kind of relativism or another Instead of enabling cheap escapes from moral truth Father Pinckaers directs his students to the Sermon on the Mount There they discover that those who suffer persecution for justice's sake are called blessed or happy This suffering may even lead to death The present volume completes Sources It gives us a theological account of Christian martyrdom Authentic martyrs testify to the highest meaning that God inscribes into the moral life In a word nothing should deter the Christian from choosing God No one completes a Christian life without becoming at least a martyr for charity from back cover

Evangelicals, Worship and Participation Alan Rathe, 2016-04-22 In discussions of worship the term participation covers a lot of ground It refers not only to concrete acts in gathered liturgy but also to some of the loftiest claims of Christian theology In this book Alan Rathe probes the ways in which North American evangelicals have in recent years regarded the landscape of participation Rathe presents a broad review of evangelical worship literature through a lens borrowed from medieval theology This brings into surprising focus not only evangelical understandings but also evangelical identities and the historical traditions they reflect and offers fresh perspectives on such current theological concerns as God's triunity missio Dei and the practical theology of participation Offering a fresh contribution to a young but important discipline the liturgically informed study of evangelical worship practice this book reconnects the evangelical tradition to the Great Tradition and in the process re appropriates classic concepts that are full of promise for contemporary ecumenical dialogue

Thinking Things Through Andrew Murray, 2012-11-30 The life of a philosopher is foremost the life of thinking but it is also the life of imagination that dreams of and investigates possibilities that might not otherwise have been raised The life of a Christian is the life of Faith Hope and Charity and so it both looks to things beyond this world and regards this world with compassion The two can work together Faith softens reason and reason sharpens Faith Imagination finds new ways to articulate in concrete circumstances what has belonged to long traditions of thought These essays cover a wide range of topics either by way of simple reflection on life or in response to issues that arose around the time of their writing The period of their writing was a varied one Life looked so stable in the mid nineties that we contemplated Australia becoming a republic and sought Aboriginal reconciliation It remained uncomplicated at the time of the Olympic Games in 2000 but became troubled by political events and by the terrorist attacks of 2001 The essays respond to the issues of this time Four essays not published in the Weekly have been added to take note of more recent changes that have taken place in the Church and in our world

Preacher, Can You Hear Us Listening? Roger E. Van Harn, 2005-02-03 Everyone knows that pulpits are for preaching and pews are for listening to sermons This obvious scenario however masks an essential prerequisite for faithful fruitful preaching namely that preachers listen to God and to their people before they speak Roger Van Harn here puts forth pointed questions that sermon listeners really ask of preachers Why should we listen to sermons Does every sermon need a Bible text How can a sermon be the word of God Do you preach for the church or the world Van Harn grapples with and discusses such questions giving preachers fresh insights into the needs and desires of congregations Preacher Can You Hear Us Listening will foster an ongoing dialogue between pulpit and pew and sharpen listening skills in both directions

Minjung and Process Hiheon Kim, 2009 This book reconstructs the legacy of Korean minjung theology by reformulating its essential ideas in a dialogue with process thought In a minimal sense this study is a theological reinterpretation of the doctrine of the minjung messiah an idea which historically suffered from a misunderstanding that minjung theology created a messianic confusion while replacing christology and soteriology by a radical anthropology This erroneous conception occurred when the idea was placed within the philosophically dualistic framework of traditional doctrines in which the work of minjung is totally separated from the work of Christ In order to avoid such a dualistic understanding the author critically adopts process panentheism and makes minjung ideas more communicable and more comprehensive in current theological religious and philosophical debates Beyond defending the idea of the minjung messiah he also argues for an inclusive minjung hermeneutics that promotes the fundamental insight of minjung theology in philosophical clarity Through minjung hermeneutics minjung theology expands its practical concern and overcomes the theoretical nihilism in postmodern studies

Changing Your Mind Without Losing Your Faith David M. Holley, 2022-01-13 This book is written for people who are tempted to leave the church because the message they have been hearing has come to seem intellectually unacceptable morally objectionable or spiritually deadening maybe even all three Often these people see no alternative to the version of Christian faith that they now find difficult to accept They have been told that rejecting anything they have been taught means ceasing to be a Christian What they have been told is wrong But seeing new possibilities means reconsidering assumptions that are often taken for granted and it can be difficult to imagine on your own a form of faith different from what you are used to This book provides some help It can be thought of as a guide for those who see the need to let go of some of what they have been taught but don't know how to replace it with something better Rethinking your faith can be scary But giving up on what is unbelievable can help to clear the way for the kind of faith that is more believable and ultimately more satisfying Changing your mind can be a way of saving your faith
