Pilgrims of a Common Life Trevor John Saxby, 1987 A thorough but readable historical review of Christian Community of goods through the centuries Essential reading for all those interested in the practice of Christian community both in the past and in the present      The "Jesus Family" in Communist China. A Modern Miracle of New Testament Christianity. With ... Illustrations, Etc D. Vaughan REES, 1959      China and End-Time Prophecy Eugene Bach, 2021-08-31 In China an Army Is Rising For years China's population size economic growth and thirst for military power have taken center stage by those who study biblical prophecy Most end time experts have seen the Red Dragon as an aggressor to Israel In Revelation 16 and 19 John's mention of the armies involved in the final battle marking the end of the world could well depict China's army today However a different kind of army is also rising in China and it is quickly approaching two hundred million people This army is for Christ not against Him It is a host of Christians from the Chinese underground house church who are fighting a battle against principalities and powers and spreading the gospel in unprecedented ways under intense persecution These Christians are motivated by a powerful vision called Back to Jerusalem The Chinese church is quietly working to complete the Great Commission by bringing the gospel to unreached peoples in China's eastern provinces and to all the countries between the border of China and the city of Jerusalem Yet there's even more to this fascinating development What you read in this book may change your view of end time prophecy Back to Jerusalem is not just a missions movement of the Chinese church It is an eschatological event confirmed by both the Old and New Testaments God is using the Red Dragon to fulfill His ultimate purposes China and End Time Prophecy explores the surprising connection between ancient prophecy and China's modern missions phenomenon This book will give you a new vision of what it means to go into all the world with the gospel Most of all it will show you why the completion of the Great Commission is inevitable and the return of Christ is unstoppable      Sinicizing Christianity, 2017-04-18 Chinese people have been instrumental in indigenizing Christianity Sinicizing Christianity examines Christianity's transplantation to and transformation in China by focusing on three key elements Chinese agents of introduction Chinese redefinition of Christianity for the local context and Chinese institutions and practices that emerged and enabled indigenisation As a matter of fact Christianity is not an exception but just one of many foreign ideas and religions which China has absorbed since the formation of the Middle Kingdom Buddhism and Islam are great examples Few scholars of China have analysed and synthesised the process to determine whether there is a pattern to the ways in which Chinese people have redefined foreign imports for local use and what insight Christianity has to offer Contributors are Robert Entenmann Christopher Sneller Yugin Huang Wai Luen Kwok Thomas Harvey Monica Romano Thomas Coomans Chris White Dennis Ng Ruiwen Chen and Richard Madsen

Reference Guide to Christian Missionary Societies in China: From the Sixteenth to the Twentieth Century R. G. Tiedemann, 2016-07-01 This comprehensive guide will facilitate scholarly research concerning the history of Christianity in China as well as the wider Sino Western cultural encounter It will assist scholars in their search for material on the anthropological educational medical scientific social political and religious dimensions of the missionary presence in China prior to 1950 The guide contains nearly five hundred entries identifying both Roman Catholic and Protestant missionary sending agencies and related religious congregations Each entry includes the organization's name in English followed by its Chinese name country of origin and denominational affiliation Special attention has been paid to identifying the many small lesser known groups that arrived in China during the early decades of the twentieth century In addition a special category of the as yet little studied indigenous communities of Chinese women has also been included Multiple indexes enhance the guide's accessibility

Shandong Paul Hattaway, 2025-01-14 Many have heard of the extraordinary explosion of Christianity throughout China in recent decades Few however know how it occurred Paul Hattaway draws on thirty years experience in China and numerous interviews with church leaders to provide insights into how the living God brought about the largest revival in the history of Christianity In a narrative full of jaw dropping stories The China Chronicles documents the acts of the Holy Spirit throughout China where phenomenal growth has occurred in the furnace of intense persecution Hattaway starts his account with Shandong Province which is home to almost one hundred million people On multiple occasions God has revived his Church in Shandong by pouring out his Spirit with great power and grace As a result Shandong today could be rightfully called China's Revival Province

The Changing Role of the British Protestant Missionaries in China, 1945-1952 Oi Ki Ling, 1999 This book focuses on the British Protestant missionaries in China in the period from 1945 to 1952 It captures the complexity and contradictions between the missionaries own perception of their role and Chinese reality It also examines the missionaries perception of the nature of Communism and their evaluation of the future prospects under Communist rule This study offers a stimulating reflection on the missionaries strategies for propagating the Christian faith their priorities and theological as well as cultural assumptions with regard to mission and politics mission and culture and mission church relations during the transition from Guomindang to Communist rule In general terms it provides an insight into the idealism and frustrations of missionaries as they wrestled with the changing political context in China

The Asianization of Christianity Jonathan D. James, 2024 The Asianization of Christianity is a catalyst to change the mission landscape of Asia by making the Gospel more accessible to Hindus Buddhists Muslims Animists and others It is hoped that a new generation of mission leaders will use these culturally specific principles to build bridges from the heart of God to the heart of Asian cultures

Seeking the Common Ground Philip L. Wickeri, 2011-08-05 This is the most comprehensive treatment ever written of the history of the Protestant Church in China over the last forty years Philip Wickeri takes an unprecedented look at one of the most turbulent periods in Chinese history the years from 1949 to the present Wickeri explicates what Chinese Protestants have been saying about themselves in historical and theological perspective His interpretation is based on one particular dynamic how Chinese Protestants have sought to situate themselves in a socialist society within the unifying framework of the united front After an overview of church Marxism and Christianity in China Wickeri discusses the united front He focuses on ideology organization and religious policy Wickeri then explores the Three Self Movement as both a Chinese and a Christian movement His conclusion the Three Self Movement despite problems has made Christianity more accessible to the average Chinese and the church more acceptable to Chinese society

Redeemed by Fire Lian, Xi, 2010-01-01 This text addresses the history and future of homegrown mass Chinese Christianity Drawing on a collection of sources the author traces the transformation of Protestant Christianity in the 20th century China from a small missionary church buffeted by antiforeignism to an indigenous popular religion energized by nationalism
