enduring and productive connections We live in conversations like fish live in water we're in them all the time so we don't think about them much As a result we can find ourselves stuck in cyclical patterns of unproductive behaviors We listen half heartedly react emotionally and respond habitually like we're on autopilot This is a practical guide for thoughtfully reflecting on conversations and avoiding the common pitfalls that cause our relationships and work to go sideways Chuck Wisner identifies four universal types of conversations and offers specific advice to maximize the effectiveness of each Storytelling Investigate the stories we tell ourselves about ourselves and others Collaborative Explore the way our stories and other people's stories interact Creative See new possibilities and discover unforeseen solutions Commitment Make promises we know we can keep These conversations unfold sequentially Our awareness of our and others stories transforms our ability to listen and collaborate which opens our thoughts to creative possibilities guiding us toward mindful agreements Our conversations at home at work or in public can be sources of pleasure and stepping stones toward success or they can cause pain and lead to failure Wisner shows how we can form a connection from the very first conversation and keep our discourse positive and productive throughout any endeavor A compelling read with a big impact Susan McPherson author of The Lost Art of Connecting The Spark Greg Orme, 2014-08-08 Includes interviews with Gail Rebutick CEO of Penguin Random House Sir John Hegarty Founder of BBH and Stuart Murphy Director of Entertainment Channels at Sky Def Spark n an elusive moment when a new idea strikes that has the potential to transform the way you do business Big or small new ideas are the lifeblood of all successful businesses They are responsible for higher profits quicker growth and game changing innovations But how do you foster a creative culture nurture new ideas and manage the people behind the electricity The Spark answers these questions and more unravelling the mystique around business creativity and offering 10 practical steps to building an innovative team and becoming an inspiring creative leader Conversations with Ernest, 2018-10-01 In 2016 we asked readers of Guide for Spiritual Living Science of Mind magazine to imagine what a conversation with Ernest Holmes might be like for yourself someone you know or someone you admire Our hope was to encourage our readers to take a deeper dive into the work of Dr Holmes Dr Holmes was a visionary in the New Thought movement founder of Religious Science and author of The Science of Mind text He also started Science of Mind magazine which has been in continuous publication since 1927 After we asked dozens of our readers answered and the result is the book you are holding We are grateful for the authenticity and openness of our contributors in sharing stories whether based in fiction or reality Readers may learn a tremendous amount about Dr Holmes and so many other sages and wisdom keepers both familiar and as yet unknown Rev Dr David S Goldberg Guide for Spiritual Living Science of Mind magazine editor and publisher imagines a conversation with Ernest that gives additional context to this work View the video at <https://scienceofmind.com/conversations-with-ernest> To learn more about the magazine or the teachings of Dr Holmes visit www.ScienceofMind.com

Conversations with Colum McCann Earl G. Ingersoll, Mary C. Ingersoll, 2017-07-13 Conversations with Colum McCann brings together eighteen interviews with a world renowned fiction writer Ranging from his 1994 literary debut Fishing the Sloe Black River to a previously unpublished interview conducted in 2016 these interviews represent the development as well as the continuation of McCann's interests The number and length of the later conversations attest to his star power Let the Great World Spin earned him the National Book Award and promises to become a major motion picture His most recent novel TransAtlantic has awed readers with its dynamic yoking of the 1845-46 visit of Frederick Douglass to Ireland the 1919 first nonstop transatlantic flight of Alcock and Brown and Senator George Mitchell's 1998 efforts to achieve a peace accord in Northern Ireland An extensive interview by scholar Cécile Maudet is included here as is an interview by John Cusatis who wrote Understanding Colum McCann the first extensive critical analysis of McCann's work An author who actually enjoys talking about his work McCann's 1965 offers insights into his method of writing what he hopes to achieve as well as the challenge of writing each novel to go beyond his accomplishments in the novel before Readers will note how many of his responses include stories in which he himself is the object of the humor and how often his remarks reveal insights into his character as a man who sees the grittiness of the urban landscape but never loses faith in the strength of ordinary people and their capacity to prevail

The Mammoth Book of True Hauntings Peter Haining, 2011-09-01 This giant collection includes a huge range of 20th century first hand accounts of hauntings such as the American troops who repeatedly saw the ghosts of a dead platoon of men while on patrol in Vietnam and the witnessed haunting of a house near Tintagel in Cornwall that led actress Kate Winslet to pull out of buying the property It covers the full spectrum of credible hauntings from poltergeists the noisy dangerous and frightening spirits that are usually associated with pubescent girls like the Bell Witch to phantoms like the Afrits of Saudi Arabia and seduction spirits such as the Lorelei which have lured German men to death Also included are the notes of the most famous ghost hunters of the twentieth century such as Hans Holzer Susy Smith USA Harry Price Jenny Randles UK Joyce Zwarycz Australia Eric Rosenthal South Africa and Hwee Tan Japan Plus essays by such names as Robert Graves Edgar Cayce and M R James outlining their own often extraordinary conclusions as to just what ghosts might be along with a full bibliography and list of useful resources Praise for MBO Haunted House Stories A first rate list of contributors Hair raising Time Out All we need say is buy it Starlog

40 Conversations With the Prophet Ali Hussain, 2023-09-19 This book is a collection of Qur'anic verses prophetic narrations and statements by Muslim scholars and saints that are catered for Muslim artists to grow in their craft and creative process It should not be lost on anyone in the Muslim community especially artists that Muslim creatives are not fully appreciated in the West by their community neither spiritually financially nor institutionally Art is often perceived as frivolous entertainment that should be approached as a hobby in favor of more serious vocations that bring six digit salaries and financial stability in a world that our scripture ironically reminds constantly is a fleeting apparition With this in mind I present you with this book 40 Conversations with the Prophet On Art and the Creative Process The organization of this work is very simple It consists of four chapters the first of which focuses on key verses from the Qur'an that are tethered to art and the creative process The second is the book's highlight of 40 conversations from the hadith collection while the third focuses on teachings from the 12th century Andalusian mystic Ibn al Arabi As some might recount from my previous publication A Nostalgic Remembrance Sufism and the Breath of Creativity Ibn al Arabi is my spiritual guide in appreciating the sacred dimensions of the creative process The fourth and last section focuses on stories and statements by other Muslim scholars and saints throughout history even some contemporary figures

Teaching the Beatles Paul Jenkins, Hugh Jenkins, 2018-05-30 Teaching the Beatles is designed to provide ideas for instructors who teach the music of the Beatles Experienced contributors describe varied approaches to effectively convey the group's characteristics and lasting importance Some of these include treating the Beatles lyrics as poetry their influence on the world of art film fashion and spirituality the group's impact on post war Britain political aspects of the Fab Four Lennon and McCartney's songwriting and musical innovations the band's use of recording technology business aspects of the Beatles career and insights into teaching the Beatles in an online format The Beatles on the Roof Tony Barrell, 2017-10-26 At lunchtime on a bitterly cold January day in 1969 the strains of guitar chords could be heard in the streets surrounding London's Savile Row Crowds gathered At ground level and above People climbed onto roofs and postboxes skipped lunch to gather and listen For the first time in more than two years The Beatles were playing live Ringing from the rooftops disturbing the well to do ears of the tailors below they upset the establishment and bewildered the police It was filmed by director Michael Lindsay Hogg who hoped the footage would act as the finale to a celebratory TV special When it finally surfaced it was in the bleak tumultuous documentary Let It Be And The Beatles would never play live again Tony Barrell examines the concert within the context of its time He speaks to those who were there the fans film makers roadies Apple Corps staff and police He explores the politics of 1968 when peace gave way to protest and how music promotion began to collide with cinema and reality TV The Beatles on the Roof makes essential reading for anyone interested in the band's reinventions and relationships revealing why the rooftop concert happened at all why it happened the way that it did and why it would never happen again
