Voices of Snipers John Walter,2022-06-01 Based on an incredible breadth of first hand testimony this is a unique collection of eyewitness accounts from World War I and II John Walter draws on meticulous research and the reminiscences of more than fifty snipers tracing their journeys from recruitment and selection through training combat and its aftermath to reveal a surprising commonality of experience even across nationalities Laying bare the triumphs and brutalities of sniping the personalities and psychologies of those who found themselves doing it and considering the immediate implications on both the sniper and the wider theatre of war this is a fascinating detailed insight into frontline combat and the experience of sharpshooting in its historical context The Hogs of Cold Harbor Richard Lee Fulgham,2010-10-08 The wild hogs of Virginia are vicious They attack kill and devour They show no mercy and eat their victims alive The wild hogs are smart They strategize with their enemies They are worthy adversaries But the wild hog have honor They will not hurt or destroy their own The hogs of Cold Harbor implores readers to question our history as well as themselves Page 4 of cover Bullecourt 1917 Paul Kendall,2010-09-15 In the spring of 1917 the Arras offensive was begun to break the stalemate of the Western Front by piercing the formidable German defences of the Hindenburg Line The village of Bullecourt lay at the southern end of the battle front and the fighting there over a period of six weeks from 11 April until late May 1917 epitomised the awful trench warfare of World War I In Bullecourt 1917 Paul Kendall tells the stories of the fierce battles fought by three British and three Australian divisions in an attempt to aid Allenby's Third Army break out from Arras Approximately 10 000 Australian and 7 000 British soldiers died many of whom were listed as missing and have no known grave The battle caused much consternation due to the failure of British tanks in supporting Australian infantry on 11 April but despite the lack of tank and artillery support the Australian infantry valiantly fought their way into the German trenches It took a further six weeks for British and Australian infantry to capture the village This book tells the story of this bitter battle and pays tribute to the men who took part Crucially Paul Kendall has contacted as many of the surviving relatives of the combatants as he could to gain new insight into those terrible events on the Hindenburg Line The New Orleans Sniper Frances Chaput Waksler,2010 On January 7 1973 shots were fired from Howard Johnson's Motel in New Orleans LA Six were killed ten wounded After the first sniper was killed the search continued for others A thorough police investigation however concluded that there had been only one whose body was found on the motel roof How did the idea of multiple snipers emerge How was it decided that there had been only one after all More generally how does anyone come to a decision about the existence or nonexistence of another person In prose both analytic and engaging Waksler traces the course of this event and the claims and counterclaims made in the search to explain it Please visit Frances Chaput Waksler's website for additional information regarding her biography publications and more <http://www.franceswaksler.com> Sniper on the Ypres Salient Sue Boase,William McCrae,2022-12-01 Just after midnight on 22 April 1916 on the Western Front a sergeant from the 15th 1st London Royal Welsh Fusiliers came sliding and stumbling along the dark mud filled trench towards the four men huddled together and soaked through in the shallow dugout He was clutching his postbag in which there were four parcels for one of them William McCrae whose twentieth birthday fell on this day A hand written account by William my grandfather was found in my mother's papers long after his death This book describes a year of his time fighting in the First World War from

December 1915 to December 1916 Two months after his birthday he was marching towards the Somme where he was to act as a runner during the key Welsh engagement in the Battle of Mametz Wood Later he went on to volunteer and train as a sniper He continued in this role for over a year becoming a lance corporal in the 38th Divisional Sniping Company while fighting on the Ypres Salient His words emphasise the key role snipers played in the collecting of intelligence about the enemy through close observation and careful reporting His account stops abruptly in mid sentence just at the point where he indicates he is about to reveal more to us about a new interesting part of the line to be manned by us Snipers Piecing together clues from his sketches maps and photos and this book paints a picture of Williams time during the rest of the war In 1917 he returned to England to train as a temporary officer in the 18th Officer Cadet Battalion at Prior Park Bath He came back to the Western Front as a 2nd Lieutenant in the Duke of Wellington s West Riding Regiment where he was seconded to the 15 Lancashire Fusiliers until the end of the war During this time it is likely that his interest and experience as a sniper continued with evidence that he may have taught at one of the Sniping Schools set up across France The Kyle Swanson Sniper Series, Books 1-3 Sgt.
