Amen.

 Michael J. Akers, 2014-03-18 There are many devotional books available containing brief daily inspirations that benefit all who read them This book is different in two respects The first is obvious it contains two readings per day 732 in all The second more important difference is that the author wanted to do more than offer inspiration this would make this book no different than so many others The messages in the book are study sketches in that the content is not only inspirational but also educational challenging and encouraging Most of these writings were based on author Michael J Akers's teaching of adult Bible studies for more than thirty years and learning what really brought adults to want to deepen their knowledge and application of the Word of God Charles River Robert Allan Hill, 2015-02-20 This collection of theological essays spiritual meditations public prayers and biblical interpretations provides a focus day by day for contemplation and reflection By intention they are offered in media res in the midst of the cacophony and chaos of life and particularly of academic life These pages are markings along the journey on the trail and thus perhaps signposts for others coming along the same way To some degree the collection responds to similar recent publication of 200 word daily selections from the writings of Dietrich Bonhoeffer The assembly of materials revisits a favorite form of an earlier Dean of Marsh Chapel Howard Thurman Thurman easily and regularly captured thought and feeling in an assortment of forms prayer sermon hymn poem litany sermon and worried very little about repetitions or the jostling inherent in formal variety Charles River follows after these and similar works and is offered as a daily resource for those receiving and offering the divine grace of freedom acceptance forgiveness of the physiological steps one takes in performing the process called reading More commonly it is a manual describing the methods a teacher may use in teaching schoolage children to acquire the mechanical aspects of reading Some far fewer are focused on the psychology of reading such psychology usually emphasizing the conscious and logical approaches to learning Still others are directed toward some particular part of reading in its socio historical setting as for example freedom to read or adult reading habits or variation in trends in the production of materials All books of such nature are relevant to the omnibus topic reading A book which would include reading in its historical sociological and educational setting would indeed
