Anthropology of Organizations Susan Wright, 2004-03-01 The 1980s and 1990s have been a time of change for organizations with a preoccupation for changing organizational culture a concept attributed to anthropology These changes have been accompanied by questions about different styles of organizing In both public and private sector organizations and in the first and third worlds there is now a concern to understand how organizational change can be achieved how indigenous practices can be incorporated to maximum effect and how opportunities can be improved for disadvantaged groups particularly women The Anthropology of Organizations questions organizational culture as a tool of management and

presents and analyses the latest anthropological work on the management of organizations and their development demonstrating the use of recent theory and examining the practical problems which anthropology can help to solve Not the Troubles Karen Lane, 2025-07-01 Belfast is often analysed as a divided society anchored in ethno politico religious differences amid a long history of conflict However shifting the focus of academic attention reveals a range of alternative narratives of city life Using storytelling as a leitmotif this ethnographic account explores the epistemological validity of engaging with strangers in a range of settings such as street corners a hairdresser s and a storytelling evening It considers how creative writers represent life in Belfast The author employs a variety of methods including a dog as a research assistant and storytelling on location which demonstrates how people can re shape and re narrate life in Belfast Irish Ethnologies Diarmuid Ó Giolláin, 2017-10-30 Irish Ethnologies gives an overview of the field of Irish ethnology covering representative topics of institutional history and methodology as well as case studies dealing with religion ethnicity memory development folk music and traditional cosmology This collection of essays draws from work in multiple disciplines including but not limited to anthropology and ethnomusicology These essays first published in French in the journal Ethnologie française illuminate the complex history of Ireland and exhibit the maturity of Irish anthropology Martine Segalen contends that these essays are part of a larger movement that galvanized the quiet revolution in the domain of the ethnology of France They did so by making specific examples in this instance Ireland inform a larger definition of a European identity The essays edited by Gioll in also significantly explain expand and challenge Irish ethnography From twelfth century accounts to Anglo Irish Romanticism from topographical surveys to statistical accounts the statistical and literary descriptions of Ireland and the Irish have prefigured the ethnography of Ireland This collection of articles on the ethnographic disciplines in Ireland provides an instructive example of how a local anthropology can have lessons for the wider field This book will interest academics and students of anthropology folklore studies history and Irish Studies as well as general readers Contributors Martine Segalen Diarmuid Gioll in Hastings Donnan Anne Byrne Pauline Garvey Adam Drazin Gear id Cruaíaoich Joseph Ruane Ethel Crowley Dominic Bryan Helena Wulff Guy Beiner Sylvie Muller and Anthony McCann At Play in Belfast Donna M. integration of the technical political and financial elites of Europe at the expense of its ordinary citizens This critical anthropology of European integration is essential reading for anyone with an interest in the culture and politics of the EU

Inside Organizations David Gellner,Eric Hirsch,2020-05-26 Most of us work in or for one but there are surprisingly few sustained analyses of the problems and peculiarities of organizations Anthropologists are increasingly turning their attention to the study of western organizations and this timely collection addresses the pleasures and pitfalls of ethnographic research undertaken across a range of organizational contexts From museums to laboratories health clinics and multinational businesses leading anthropologists discuss their fieldwork experiences the problems they encountered and the solutions they came up with This book highlights the practical political and ethical dimensions of research in organizations Among issues vividly described are the relations between gender and politics in organizational hierarchies How are sexual politics played out and experienced in health clinics How does a business manager s personal biography affect the relationships within the organization as a whole How are language and metaphor used to refigure the way people think about and act in organizations Institutions often have well defined procedures for bringing in visitors and guests When is the anthropologist an insider to the organization and when an outsider What ethical issues arise when researchers are caught between observing organizations and participating in their work In answering these and other questions the authors consider both the current status and future prospects for organizational ethnography Comprehensive and varied the book represents an invaluable aid to anyone interested in the politics and complexities of working life Elite Cultures Stephen Nugent,Cris region this model affects daily life and sociolinguistic studies alike A reading of sociolinguistic studies from the region reveals ethnolinguistic differentiation Qualitative analysis of material from London Derry shows people often stressing tolerance in their community while accounts of their activities contain evidence of ethnic division and strife Quantitative analysis charts six changes in London Derry English Variation correlates to varying degrees with age ethnicity class sex and social network The ethnic dimension while not the most important parameter in all cases plays a role in relation to all the changes examined
