Murphy,2016-10-19 The fifth edition of this bestselling reader builds a strong foundation in both classical and contemporary theory with a sharpened focus on gender and anthropology and the anthropology of new media and technology Short introductions and key terms accompany every reading and light annotations have been added to aid students in reading

original articles Used on its own or together with A History of Anthropological Theory Fifth Edition this anthology offers a flexible and unrivalled introduction to anthropological theory that reflects not only the history but also the changing nature of the discipline today

Social Theory in the Twentieth Century Patrick Baert, 1998-08 I think this is an outstanding book The coverage is comprehensive the lines of thought and exposition are clear and the level of discussion is very high yet remarkably lively and accessible It has an underlying intellectual seriousness and engagement which shines out through the individual chapters and the author's unwillingness to make do with secondary analyses and received ideas gives it a strength and freshness of approach which is extremely welcome Professor William Outhwaite University of Sussex Social Theory in the Twentieth Century offers an easy to read but provocative account of the development of social theory Patrick Baert covers a wide range of key figures and schools of thought including Giddens Foucault and Habermas Written in a lively style and avoiding jargon this book is aimed at students who wish to understand the main debates and dilemmas driving social theory Rather than providing a neutral summary of the different thinkers and theories Baert challenges the conventional readings of social theory with new and original interpretations In effect he bridges the gap between philosophy and social theory by placing the theoretical views within wider historical traditions Social Theory in the Twentieth Century will undoubtedly become the standard introduction to social theory for students in sociology politics and anthropology

Structuralist Analysis in Contemporary Social Thought (RLE Social Theory) Miriam Glucksmann, 2014-08-21 The primary concern of this book is to investigate whether or not structuralism constitutes a distinctive framework in the social sciences The author focuses on two major structuralist thinkers Louis Althusser and Claude Lévi Strauss She analyses and compares the structure of their theory and places them within the context of their respective disciplines Dr Glucksmann began working on this book at a time when structuralism was at the height of its popularity in France and was thought to be a homogenous alternative to bourgeois sociology The progress of her study implicitly reflects the developments and divergences within structuralist thought that have emerged since then In particular she examines the differences between the political and philosophical thought of Althusser and Lévi Strauss which have become increasingly manifest

Readings for A History of Anthropological Theory Paul A. Erickson, Liam Donat Murphy, 2010-01-01 This comprehensive anthology presents 40 readings that are critical to an understanding of anthropological theory and the development of anthropology as an academic discipline The readings have broad anthropological appeal emphasizing social and cultural anthropology The third edition has been completely revised throughout and organized to work more closely alongside the companion overview text A History of Anthropological Theory It includes six new readings as well as two original essays written by contemporary anthropologists on Why Theory Matters These new essays help ground the more abstract readings in the collection The glossary has been significantly expanded and the discussion questions have been revised The result is a volume that offers not only a strong foundation in the history of the discipline but also a good overview of developments in twentieth and twenty first century anthropological theory including feminist anthropology postmodernity medical anthropology globalization postcolonialism and public anthropology
