Social And Political Contexts Of Family:

Sourcebook of Family Theories and Methods Pauline Boss, William J. Doherty, Ralph LaRossa, Walter R. Schumm, Suzanne K. Steinmetz, 1993-03-31 Origins We call this book on theoretical orientations and methodological strategies in family studies a sourcebook because it details the social and personal roots i e sources from which these orientations and strategies flow Thus an appropriate way to preface this book is to talk first of its roots its beginnings In the mid 1980s there emerged in some quarters the sense that it was time for family studies to take stock of itself A goal was thus set to write a book that like Janus would face both backward and forward a book that would give readers both a perspective on the past and a map for the future There were precedents for such a project The Handbook of Marriage and the Family edited by Harold Christensen and published in 1964 the two Contemporary Theories about the Family volumes edited by Wesley Burr Reuben Hill F Ivan Nye and Ira Reiss published in 1979 and the Handbook of Marriage and the Family edited by Marvin Sussman and Suzanne Steinmetz then in production Political and Social Change in Pakistan's Tribal Areas Naveed Ahmad Shinwari, 2025-05-23 This book analyses agency and place of youth within the Pashtun tribal social order in Pakistan It looks at Pashtun youth as a separate social category analysing their changing trends of political leadership in Pakistan's former Federally Administered Tribal Areas FATA Presenting an in depth ethnographic inquiry into the intricate dynamics of political leadership manifest among the Pashtun youth hailing from the erstwhile FATA this book adds more depth to the understanding of political developments and the peculiar relationship between FATA and Pakistan in general The author argues that events following the Soviet invasion and post 9 11 have disrupted traditional age based relations in Pashtun society enabling young adults to assert their political agency in unprecedented ways This book demonstrates how Pashtun youth have emerged at the forefront of politics through avenues such as Talibanisation migration elite politics and the Pashtun social movement These young individuals are redefining politics in FATA and across Pakistan playing a pivotal role in shaping new relationships between the Pashtun community and the Pakistani nation By demystifying longstanding misconceptions and stereotypes perpetuated since British colonial times and post independence Pakistan and the evolving political dynamics in the context of the post withdrawal phase of US forces from Afghanistan in August 2021 this book provides new empirical evidence and insights into social injustices faced by Pashtun youth Analysing themes such as political alliances among diverse youth groups identity politics expressions of agency migration and the importance of urban spaces for activism and rights claims the study sheds light on the dynamic role of Pashtun youth in contemporary South Asia making it essential reading for understanding the region's socio political landscape It will be of interest to researchers studying politics and society in Pakistan and Afghanistan anthropology and post conflict reconstruction in South Asia Neighborhoods, Family, and Political Behavior in Urban America Yvette Alex-Assensoh, 2018-10-24 Undergirded by a multidisciplinary framework of political science geography and sociology this book examines the manner in which neighborhood economic resources and family structure shape individual political behavior among white and black citizens in urban America Social and Political Contexts of Family Therapy Marsha Pravder Mirkin, 1989-01-01 Comprehensive Handbook of Psychotherapy, Interpersonal/Humanistic/Existential Florence W. The Cinematic Representation of the Chinese American Family Qijun Han, 2016-03-08 There has been an increasing recognition of the fluidity and ambiguity of ethnic identities within the context of global mobility With that in mind how have films constructed the identity of ethnic Chinese in the United States This book addresses this issue through three sub questions First why is the family narrative so characteristic of films about Chinese Americans in transnational Chinese cinema In other words how and why are images of Chinese or Chinese Americans in transnational Chinese cinema different from those in Hollywood movies Second how does transnational Chinese cinema define and negotiate the aesthetic conventions of melodrama commonly used to depict Chinese American families In terms of establishing melodrama as an evolving mode of how does Chinese American cinema historically connect with both Hollywood and Chinese cinema Third what have the narrative treatments of Chinese American families in transnational Chinese cinema contributed to the ongoing representation of Chinese culture and construction of ethnic Chinese identities in Western societies This book traverses fields such as cultural studies Chinese studies media studies American studies and film studies and engages with a select corpus of films from the 1990s to the 2000s directed by Chinese American Taiwanese and Hong Kong filmmakers and produced in the USA Taiwan Hong Kong and mainland China to analyze the role the American Chinese family plays in their work With sensitivity towards transnational bonds and historical processes a negotiation process of three sets of conflicting forces has subsequently emerged the traditional and the modern the national and the transnational and Chinese American identity crisis in favor of a Chinese identity or a true American identity Contrasting cultural beliefs undoubtedly create cross cultural and generational conflicts within the family yet also open the way to negotiation and compromise This research on the cinematic depiction of Chinese Americans reveals the historically significant transnational connection among Chinese American Chinese and American cultures On the one hand ethnic Chinese are represented by boundaries that establish and define the Chinese American community against other communities and yet on the other hand the representation of family life and structure of Chinese immigrants is multiple and fluid as culture itself is unstable and uncertain Therefore a process of fixation and a process of fluidity seem to take place at the same time The Peace Psychology Bulletin ,1992 Blood Ties and Politics Louie Benedict R. Ignacio,Veronica L. Gregorio,Clarence M. Batan,Sampson Lee Blair,2025-09-02 Topics of discussion include political socialization within the family the influence of extremist online websites marital quality and political ideologies political disagreement and family relationships the impact of propaganda upon family relationships intergenerational patterns of political beliefs and other related issues The History of Education Under Apartheid, 1948-1994 Peter Kallaway,2002 Chinese Religion Xinzhong Yao,2010-05-25 A new introduction To The field of Chinese religion and culture ideally suited to undergraduate students Rights, Gender and Family Law Julie Wallbank,Shazia Choudhry,Jonathan Herring,2009-12-04 There has been a widespread resurgence of rights talk in social and legal discourses pertaining to the regulation of family life as well as an increase in the use of rights in family law cases in the UK the US Canada and Australia Rights Gender and Family Law addresses the implications of these developments and in particular the impact of rights based approaches upon the idea of welfare and its practical application There are now many areas of family law in which rights and welfare based approaches have been forced together But whilst to many they are premised upon different ethics respectively of justice and of care for others they can nevertheless be reconciled In this respect a central concern is the gender blind character of rights based approaches and the ontological and practical consequences of their employment in the gendered context of the family Rights Gender and Family Law explores the tensions between rights based and welfare based approaches explaining their differences and connections considering whether if at all they are reconcilable and addressing the extent to which they can advantage or disadvantage the interests of women children and men It may be that rights based discourses will dominate family law at least in the way that social policy and legislation respond to calls of equality of rights between mothers and fathers This collection however argues that rights cannot be given centre stage without thinking through the ramifications for gendered power relations and the welfare of children It will be of interest to researchers and scholars working in the fields of family law gender studies and social welfare Handbook of Parenting Marc H. Bornstein,2005-02-16 Please see Volume I for a full description and table of contents for all four volumes Handbook of Parenting: Being and becoming a parent Marc H. Bornstein,2002 Despite the fact that most people become parents and everyone who has ever lived has had parents parenting remains a mystifying subject about which almost everyone has opinions but about which few people agree Striking permutations on the theme of parenting are emerging single parenthood blended families lesbian and gay parents and teen versus fifties first time moms and dads Divided into four volumes the Handbook of Parenting is concerned with different types of parents basic characteristics of parenting forces that shape parenting problems faced by parents and the practical sides of parenting Contributors have worked in different ways toward understanding all of these diverse aspects of parenting and look to the most recent research and thinking in the field to shed light on many topics every parent has wondered about Because development is too subtle dynamic and intricate to admit that parental caregiving alone determines the course and outcome of ontogeny
