Social And Psychological Problems Of Women Prevention And Crisis Intervention

Howard Kassinove

Social And Psychological Problems Of Women Prevention And Crisis Intervention:

Social and Psychological Problems of Women Annette U. Rickel, Meg Gerrard, Ira Iscoe, 1984 This book in its diversity of topics reflects the re emergence of concern with women s issues in the last decade and the vigor and pioneering quality of scholarship in the area Such extensive albeit uneven development says something about the state of our society as well for organized scholarship is a form of problem solving part of the process of working through issues that come to the attention of observers of and commentators on the social world Be we can go further By recognizing that the contemporary women s movement is not new but is in keeping with a stream of feminism at least 150 years old we can encourage the current rekindling of interest and consciousness to reflect contemporary events as well xiii foreword

ECONOMIC PROBLEMS OF WOMEN Dr. M. P. Baligar, Research Issues ,1975 Women's Work, Families, and Health Kristen M. Swanson-Kauffman, 1987 Psychological Assessment And Treatment Of Persons With Severe Mental disorders Jeffrey R. Bedell, 2013-02-01 First published in 1994 Until recently patients with severe and long lasting mental disorders were treated primarily through hospitalisation and psychotropic medication However now there is a concerted effort to integrate treatment approaches from behavioural and rehabilitation therapies and social skills training This book presents an integration of psychological treatment and assessment practices authored by professionals with established expertise in their subject area Topics of fundamentally important issues have been selected and divided into three sections assessment and treatment planning social and vocational skills development and group and family therapy in rehabilitation This volume can be used as a reference handbook a guide to clinical practice or a classroom text describing the basic psychological approaches that are effective with patients with severe mental disabilities Rorschach's Test Alvin George

Burstein, Sandra Loucks, 1989 Disability, Mothers, and Organization Melanie Panitch, 2012-08-06 This book examines how and why mothers with disabled children became activists Leading campaigns to close institutions and secure human rights these women learned to mother as activists struggling in their homes and communities against the debilitating and demoralizing effects of exclusion Activist mothers recognized the importance of becoming advocates for change beyond their own families and contributed to building an organization to place their issues on a more public scale In highlighting this under examined movement this book contributes to the scholarship on Disability Studies Women s Students Sociology and Social Movement Studies Women's Mental Health Anita Eichler, Delores L. Parron, 1987 The Experience and Meaning of Work in Women's Lives Hildreth Y. Grossman, Nia Lane Chester, 2013-04-15 In the past social scientists have relied predominantly on traditional models of work to understand women s experiences These models however have been based on men s occupational experiences which have been assumed to be the same for women More recently researchers and theorists from a variety of disciplines have begun to challenge earlier assumptions as inaccurate reflections of the realities for female workers Newer studies have concentrated on the historical and social reasons for women s employment and career choices including changes in economy family and social conditions To provide a deeper understanding of women worker s realities by including the meaning they make of their work experiences the editors have assembled the research of social scientists from various disciplines whose investigations focused exclusively on this subject Their qualitative methodology provides a forum for women to voice issues raise questions and share self reflections about their work experiences and the meaning they make of their work in the context of the rest of their lives The common themes that are interwoven within the fabric of women s work experience are the need to expand traditional definitions of what constitutes work the fluid nature of boundaries between personal life and work life the importance of the relational aspects of their work the issues related to the uses of power at work the role of work in the development of women s sense of self and personal identity and the degree to which women s work experience is colored by discrimination and sexism Anger Disorders

Howard Kassinove,2014-02-25 Anger is a daily experience It is encountered in a number of interpersonal family and occupational situations Research indicates that even normal parents worry that they will lose control of their anger and harm their children When short lived and of low intensity anger may be of some help to us in contrast when it is persistent and intense it is typically highly disruptive This text reviews facts and theories of anger Anger is differentiated from annoyance fury rage hostility and the behaviours of aggression and violence and attention is paid to understanding anger both as a normal experience and as a clinical disorder Specific anger diagnoses are presented to describe disruptive anger states and traits Anger in criminal populations is also discussed and behaviour analytic cognitive constructivist and cross cultural perspectives are presented in detail The book argues that it is important to understand the causes correlations and outcomes of anger and to develop effective remediation programmes when anger is excessive and disruptive Thus following a meta analyses of the effectiveness of published treatments two chapters present ideal therapy programmes for adult and childhood adolescent anger disorders Finally a model is presented to help understand anger development and resolution

Consultation In Community, School, And Organizational Practice William P. Erchul,2019-01-15 Offering an historical perspective on the development of mental health consultation and community mental health this book s intent is twofold First it describes and evaluates Harvard psychiatrist Gerald Caplan s innovative approach to consultation and related activities with respect to the current and future practice of clinical community school and organizational psychology Second it pays tribute to Caplan whose ideas on prevention crisis theory support systems community mental health mental health consultation and collaboration and population orientated psychiatry have influenced the practice of professional psychology and allied fields The text is divided into three sections the first provides background information for the remainder of the volume the second documents Caplan s influence on the way psychology has been applied in various settings and the last considers his contribution s present and past influence The text is aimed at consultant and practising psychologists community and school psychology graduates and professionals involved with community mental health services Affect,

Creative Experience, And Psychological Adjustment Sandra W. Russ, 2015-11-17 Previously neglected more and more affect and creativity is recognized as an area that is important and exciting area to investigate This book presents the very latest ideas and research by leaders in the field about the role of affect in the creative process Affect Creative Experience and Psychological Adjustment is an arena where new theories and concepts can be presented research findings compared and discussed methodological issues debated and future research outlined Key questions in affect and creativity focus on identifying specific affective processes that are most important in creativity discovering the underlying mechanisms that account for the relationships between affect and creativity exploring differential effects of various types of affect such as positive and negative affect on creativity and understanding how these things relate to psychological adjustment As with any new line of research investigation there is a fermenting of ideas speculations research findings hunches methodological issues and tests of theoretical models that evolves into a clear vision of heuristic theoretical models and identification of the most important research questions This book contributes to that process in the area of affect and creativity
