Song Of The White Swan:

Song of the White Swan Aleta Boudreaux,1998 The Songs of Clara Schumann Stephen Rodgers,2023-04-06
Explores the distinctive musical and poetic features of Clara Schumann's songwriting and her central contribution to the art song genre A Night at the Opera Sir Denis Forman,2011-10-05 Delightful and anti reverential Sunday Times London
With an encyclopedic knowledge of opera and a delightful dash of irreverence Sir Denis Forman throws open the world of opera its structure composers conductors and artists in this hugely informative guide A Night at the Opera dissects the eighty three most popular operas recorded on compact disc from Cilea's Adriana Lecouvreur to Mozart's Die Zauberflöte For each opera Sir Denis details the plot and cast of characters awarding stars to parts that are worth looking out for really good or occasionally stunning He goes on to tell the history of each opera and its early reception Finally each work is graded from alpha to gamma although the Ring cycle gets an X and Sir Denis has no qualms about voicing his opinion the first act of Fidelio is a bit of a mess while the last scene of Don Giovanni towers above the comic finales of Figaro and Cos and whether or not it is Mozart's greatest opera it is certainly his most powerful finale The guide also presents brief biographies of the great composers conductors and singers A glossary of musical terms is included as well as Operatica or the essential elements of opera from the proper place and style of the audience's applause and boos to the use of subtitles A Night at the Opera is for connoisseurs and neophytes alike It will entertain and inform delight and perhaps infuriate providing a subject for lively debate and ready reference for years to come The Caledonian ,1916 The Songs of Edvard Grieg Beryl Foster,2007 Comprehensive survey of Grieg's 180 songs considering particularly questions and issues of performance Edvard Grieg's 180 songs mirror his artistic and personal development more intimately than any of his other music yet are still the least known part of his output This definitive appraisal now revised and updated discusses every song including those left only in manuscript and sketches at the composer's death set against the background of his life and times It also deals with the poetry set often chosen to reflect his current situation and the poets several of whom including great figures of the day such as Ibsen and Bjornson were his friends and colleagues Grieg frequently bemoaned poor translations and indifferent performances and the various editions and translations from first publication to the present day are also discussed together with his own ideas for interpretation Musical examples and analysis are included to give a closer understanding of Grieg's word setting and harmonic development although their performance is always kept paramount BERYL FOSTER is a graduate of London University and studied singing in Colchester and at the Royal College of Music As well as all the usual repertoire since 1980 she has made a particular study of the songs of Grieg and other Norwegian composers giving recitals lectures and workshops in Britain Norway Germany the Netherlands Italy and China She is also a private teacher and festival adjudicator
