Havergal, 2017-02-19 Excerpt from Songs of Peace and Joy IN publishing this little volume I desire to say that I had never read any of Miss Havergal's beautiful Poems until the summer of 1878 when I was so charmed with the natural and lyrical aptitude and truly Christian sentiments of her poetry that I felt an intense desire to set some of her Hymns to music I accordingly wrote to ask her permission to do so About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of

King, Sooi Ling Tan, 2014-11-18 In troubled times of heightened global tensions and conflict un Common Sounds Songs of Peace and Reconciliation among Muslims and Christians explores the contribution of music and the performing arts to peacebuilding and interfaith dialogue in interreligious settings It asks the simple but endlessly complex question How is music and song used in our faiths and daily lives to foster peace and reconciliation Focusing on the two largest world religions that together comprise more than 55% of the world's population the essays address the complexities of embodied lived religious traditions by moving across and linking a range of disciplines ethnomusicology the intersection of music and culture peacemaking Islamic studies and Christian theology Based on research in the Middle East North Africa and Indonesia context specific case studies serve to identify and reflect on the significant roles of music and the performing arts in fostering sustainable peace un Common Sounds investigates the dynamics of peacebuilding and interfaith dialogue as they relate to music's transformative roles in conflict and post conflict settings Classroom tested un Common Sounds also provides discussion questions and projects for each chapter a companion Web site www.songsforpeaceproject.org and an available documentary film to enhance learning in the academy nongovernmental organizations and religious groups American School Peace League American School Peace League, 1909 Music, Business and Peacebuilding Constance Cook Glen, Timothy L. Fort, 2021-12-21 Business schools are placing more emphasis on the role of business in society Top business school accreditors are shifting to mandating that schools teach their students about the social impact of business including AACSB standards to require the incorporation of business impact on society into all elements of accredited institutions Researchers are also increasingly focused on issues related to sustainability but in particular to business and peace as a field A strong strain of scholarship argues that ethics is nurtured by emotions and through aesthetic quests for moral excellence The arts and music as shown specifically in this book can be a resource to nudge positive emotions in the direction toward ethical behavior and logically then toward peace Business provides a model for positive interactions that not only foster long term successful business but also incrementally influences society This book provides an opportunity for integration and recognition of how music and other art forms can further encourage business toward the direction of peace while business provides a platform for the dissemination and modeling of the positive capabilities of music toward the aims of peace in the world today The primary market for this book is the academic audience Unlike many other academic books however the interdisciplinary nature of the book allows for multiple academic audiences Thus this book reaches into schools of music business political science film studies sports and society studies the humanities ethics and of course peace studies
