Israeli Feminism Liberating Judaism Bonna Devora Haberman,2012-01-01 This engaging feminist approach to Judaism blends the interpretation of primary Jewish sources with contemporary social change Bonna Devora Haberman shares her first hand account of the Women of the Wall and a feminist approach to traditional Judaism while interacting with ancient Jewish texts In a rich network of sources seaming together scholarship with activism Haberman analyzes the sacred with attention to power and gender While much religious and national culture focuses on death and sacrifice Haberman proposes an alternative model for a Jewish theology of liberation birth no less universal than death Life giving rather than life taking is the nucleus of this work reformulating performances of gender in a realm of exaggerated sexual difference Using her experiences with the Women of the Wall movement interwoven in scripture Haberman contributes toward liberating religious culture from its gender oppressions and rendering religion a liberating force in society

Ministries of Song Susan Ashbrook Harvey,2025-12-09 A free ebook version of this title is available through Luminos University of California Press s Open Access publishing program Visit www.luminosoa.org to learn more Ministries of Song is a tour de force study of the power of women s liturgical singing in late antique Syriac Christianity Extending women s religious participation beyond the familiar roles of female saints and nobles Syriac churches cultivated a flourishing but often overlooked tradition of women s sacred song Susan Ashbrook Harvey brings this music to life as she uncovers the ways these now nameless women performed a boldly sung teaching ministry and invited congregations to respond aloud By exploring their ritual agency Harvey demonstrates how these choirs helped to shape the formative ethical and moral ideals of their congregations and communities Women s voices both real and imagined enriched the ritual and devotional lives of Syriac Christians daily and weekly on ecclesial and civic special occasions in sorrow or joy with authoritative theological significance and social and political resonance Arguing for the importance of liturgy as social history Harvey shows us how and why women s voices mattered for ancient Syriac Christianity and why they matter still

Dissident Daughters Teresa Berger,2001-01-01 With its focus on narratives its attention to contextual and material realities and its collection of women identified liturgies in global context Dissident Daughters claims prominence within the growing literature on women s ways of worship This book not only introduces liturgical texts but focuses on the communities that create and celebrate these liturgies Dissident Daughters gives voice to the women activists in these communities who show how their communities came into being how social cultural and political realities shaped them and their liturgies and how they envision their lives in and as communities of faith In drawing the different narratives together Dissident Daughters displays the expanse of the worldwide expression of women's rites and how each is shaped by distinctly different contexts of struggle and hope Song of Songs and Lamentations, Volume 23B

Duane Garrett, Dr. Paul R. House, 2018-04-24 The Word Biblical Commentary delivers the best in biblical scholarship from the leading scholars of our day who share a commitment to Scripture as divine revelation This series emphasizes a thorough analysis of textual linguistic structural and theological evidence The result is judicious and balanced insight into the meanings of the text in the framework of biblical theology These widely acclaimed commentaries serve as exceptional resources for the professional theologian and instructor the seminary or university student the working minister and everyone concerned with building theological understanding from a solid base of biblical scholarship Overview of Commentary Organization Introduction covers issues pertaining to the whole book including context date authorship composition interpretive issues purpose and theology Each section of the commentary includes Pericope Bibliography a helpful resource containing the most important works that pertain to each particular pericope Translation the author's own translation of the biblical text reflecting the end result of exegesis and attending to Hebrew and Greek idiomatic usage of words phrases and tenses yet in reasonably good English Notes the author's notes to the translation that address any textual variants grammatical forms syntactical constructions basic meanings of words and problems of translation Form Structure Setting a discussion of redaction genre sources and tradition as they concern the origin of the pericope its canonical form and its relation to the biblical and extra biblical contexts in order to illuminate the structure and character of the pericope Rhetorical or compositional features important to understanding the passage are also introduced here Comment verse by verse interpretation of the text and dialogue with other interpreters engaging with current opinion and scholarly research Explanation brings together all the results of the discussion in previous sections to expose the meaning and intention of the text at several levels 1 within the context of the book itself 2 its meaning in the OT or NT 3 its place in the entire canon 4 theological relevance to broader OT or NT issues General Bibliography occurring at the end of each volume this extensive bibliography contains all sources used anywhere in the commentary The Pre-occupation of Postcolonial Studies Fawzia Afzal-Khan, Kalpana Seshadri-Crooks, 2000 The Pre Occupation of Postcolonial Studies contains essays by both leading figures and younger scholars engaged in the field of postcolonial studies In this state of the field reader editors Fawzia Afzal Khan and Kalpana Seshadri Crooks have created a dynamic forum for contributors from a variety of theoretical and disciplinary vantage points to question both the limits and the limitations of postcolonial thought Since it burst on the academic scene as the hot new disciplinary field during the final decade of the twentieth century postcolonial studies has faced criticism from those who question its troubling trajectories its sometimes suspect epistemological and pedagogical methods and its relatively narrow focus With diverse essays that emerge from such disciplines as South Asian Latin American Arab and Jewish studies this volume responds to skeptics and adherers alike addressing not only the broad theoretical issues at stake within the field but also the position of the field itself within the academy as well as its relationship to modern postmodern and Marxist discourses Contributors offer critiques on ahistorical and universalizing tendencies in postcolonial work and confront the need for scholars to attend to issues of class ideology and the effects of neocolonial practices Seeking to broaden the field's traditionally literary spectrum of methodologies these essayists take up large thematic issues to examine specific sites of colonial activities with all of their historical political and cultural significance Closing the volume is an insightful interview with Homi Bhabha in which he discusses postcolonial studies in the context of contemporary cultural politics and theory The Pre Occupation of Postcolonial Studies not only offers an overview of the discipline but also pushes and pulls at the edges of postcolonial studies offering a comprehensive view of the field's diversity of thought and envisioning clear pathways for its future Contributors Fawzia Afzal Khan Ali Behdad Homi Bhabha Daniel Boyarin Neil Larsen Saree Makdisi Joseph Massad Walter Dignolo Hamid Naficy Ngugi Wa Thiong'o Timothy B Powell R Radhakrishnan Bruce Robbins Kalpana Seshadri Crooks Ella Shohat Rajeswari Sunder Rajan     Four Centuries of Jewish Women's Spirituality Ellen M. Umansky, Dianne Ashton, 2009 The only comprehensive volume of Jewish women's spiritual writing from the sixteenth century to the present
