Cottington,2004 Cubism was the most influential artistic movement that emerged in the twentieth century Yet just what cubism was or stood for at the time of its emergence is still in dispute while the explanations offered for its importance for twentieth century art and its legacy for the present are bewildering in their variety This fascinating book offers a way beyond this confusion a narrative of its beginnings consolidation and dissemination that takes into account not only what the style and the movement signified at the time of its emergence but also the principal writings through which cubism s significance for modernism has been established Visually stunning with over 100 illustrations this is an essential work for all students and teachers of modern art history Inventing Abstraction, 1910-1925 Leah Dickerman,Matthew Affron,2012 This book explores the development of abstraction from the moment of its declaration around 1912 to its establishment as the foundation of avant garde practice in the mid 1920s The book brings together many of the most influential works in abstractions early history to draw a cross media portrait of this watershed moment in which traditional art was reinvented in a wholesale way Works are presented in groups that serve as case studies each engaging a key topic in abstractions first years an artist a movement an exhibition or thematic concern Key focal points include Vasily Kandinskys ambitious Compositions V VI and VII a selection of Piet Mondrians work that offers a distilled narrative of his trajectory to Neo plasticism and all the extant Suprematist pictures that Kazimir Malevich showed in the landmark 0 10 exhibition in 1915

0Exhibition MoMA New York USA 23 12 2012 15 4 2013 Visions of the Human Tom Slevin, 2015-05-28 In what ways do the artistic avant garde's representations of the human body reflect the catastrophe of World War I? The European modernists were inspired by developments in the nineteenth century yielding new forms of knowledge about the nature of reality and repositioning the human body as the new object of knowledge. New visions of the human subject were created within this transformation. However, modernity's reactionary political climate for which World War I provided a catalyst transformed a once liberal ideal between humanity, environment and technology into a tool of disciplinary rationalisation. Visions of the Human considers the consequences of this historical moment for the twentieth and twenty-first centuries. It explores the ways in which the technologies of the self that inspired the avant garde were increasingly instrumentalised by conservative politics, urbanism, consumer capitalism and the society of the spectacle. This is an engaging and powerful study which challenges prior ideas and explores new ways of thinking about modern visual culture. Revenge of the Philistines Hilton Kramer, 2007-09-12 Analyzes the works of a variety of modern artists including Edward Hopper, Louise Nevelson, Chuck Close and Julian Schnabel. Painting and Sculpture in Europe, 1880-1940 George Heard Hamilton, 1993-01-01 This new edition of a book that offers the best available grounding in its huge subject as the Sunday Times called it includes color plates and a revised and expanded bibliography. Professor Hamilton traces the origins and growth of modern art, assessing the intrinsic qualities of individual works and describing the social forces in play. The result is an authoritative guide through the forest of artistic labels: Impressionism and Expressionism, Symbolism, Cubism, Constructivism, Surrealism, etc., and to the achievements of Degas and Cézanne, Ensor and Munch, Matisse and Kandinsky, Picasso, Braque and Epstein, Mondrian, Dalí, Modigliani, Utrillo and Chagall, Klee, Henry Moore and many other artists in a revolutionary age. Modernism on Stage Juliet Bellow, 2017-07-05 Modernism on Stage restores Serge Diaghilev's Ballets Russes to its central role in the Parisian art world of the 1910s and 1920s. During those years the Ballets Russes stage served as a dynamic forum for the interaction of artistic genres: dance, music and painting in a mixed media form inspired by Richard Wagner's Gesamtkunstwerk, total work of art. This interdisciplinary study combines a broad history of Diaghilev's troupe with close readings of four ballets designed by canonical modernist artists: Pablo Picasso, Sonia Delaunay, Henri Matisse and Giorgio de Chirico. Experimental both in concept and form, these productions redefine our understanding of the interconnected worlds of the visual and performing arts, elite culture and mass entertainment in Paris between the two world wars. This volume traces the ways in which artists working with the Ballets Russes adapted painterly styles to the temporal, three-dimensional and corporeal medium of ballet. Analyzing interactions among sets, costumes, choreography and musical accompaniment, the book establishes what the Ballets Russes productions looked like and how audiences reacted to them. Juliet Bellow brings dance to bear upon modernist art history as more than a source of imagery or ornament; she spotlights a complex dialogue among art forms that did not preclude but rather enhanced artists' interrogation of the limits of medium.
