Madame Chiang Kai-shek and Miss Emma Mills Thomas A.

DeLong,2007-03-14 Mayling Soong came to America at the age of 10 Her father Charlie Soong a practicing Christian who had spent time in America was convinced that China s youth would need progressive Western educations before returning to their homeland to take their places as leaders in the fields of government education and engineering The youngest of three daughters Mayling followed her older siblings to the United States in search of a Western education eventually entering Wellesley in 1913 at age 16 Here she made numerous friends including classmate Emma DeLong Mills This lifelong friendship lasted through Mayling s 1927 marriage to General Chiang Kai shek and his subsequent rise to power After the undeclared Sino Japanese war broke out Emma began a series of letters detailing the political climate in the isolationist United States providing Mayling with invaluable insight into American attitudes regarding China and her Asian neighbors Beginning with the early days of their friendship in America the volume describes the identity struggle both women faced following their 1917 graduation from Wellesley Following Emma s visit to China and somewhat unwilling return to New York the friendship continued through their correspondence Emma s role in the newly organized American Bureau of Medical Aid to China is discussed as are Madame Chiang Kai shek s international fund raising efforts on behalf of Chinese war relief While military and political history is not the focus of the work it is portrayed as it impacts the friendship which is the subject of this book Time Briton Hadden, Henry Robinson Luce, 1929 Reels for 1973 include Time index 1973 Millard's Review of the Far East , 1918 Vol 37 includes Special number on extraterritoriality issued June 19 1926 Dawn on the Hills of T'ang Harlan Page Beach, 1905 Dawn on the Hill of T'ang Harlan Page Beach, 1905 Dawn on the Hills of T'ang: or Mission in China Harlan P. Beach, M.A., F.R.G.S, 1905 The Making of Song Dynasty History Charles Hartman, 2020-10-08 In this ambitious work of political and intellectual history Charles Hartman surveys the major sources that survive as vestiges of the official dynastic historiography of the Chinese Song dynasty 960 1279 Analyzing the narratives that emerge from these sources as products of Song political discourse Hartman offers a thorough introduction to the texts and the political circumstances surrounding their compilation Distilling from these sources a grand allegory of Song history he argues that the narratives embedded within reflect tension between a Confucian model of political institutionalism and the Song court s preference for a non sectarian technocratic model Fundamentally rethinking the corpus of texts that have formed the basis of our understanding of the Song and of imperial China more broadly this far reaching account of historiographical process and knowledge production illuminates the relationship between official history writing and political struggle in China The Secret War for China Panagiotis Dimitrakis, 2017-09-22 In 1927 Chiang Kai shek the head of China s military academy and leader of the Kuomintang KMT began the northern expeditions to bring China s northern territories back under the control of the state It was during this period that the KMT purged communist activities fractured the army and sparked the Chinese Civil War which would rage for over twenty years The communists led by General Mao Tse Tsung were for much of the period forced underground and concentrated in the Chinese countryside As the author argues this resulted in China's war featuring unusually high levels of espionage and sabotage and increased the military importance of information gathering Based on newly declassified material Panagiotis Dimitrakis charts the double crossings secret meetings and bloody assassinations which would come to define China's future Uniquely The Secret War for China gives equal weighting to the role of foreign actors the role of British intelligence in unmasking Communist International Comintern agents in China for example and the allies attempts to turn nationalist China against the Japanese The Secret War for China also documents the clandestine confrontation between Mao and Chiang and the secret negotiations between Chiang and the Axis Powers whose forces he employed against the CCP once the Second World War was over In his turn Mao employed nationalist forces who had defected during the last three years of the civil war about 105 out of 869 KMT generals defected to the CCP This book is an urgent and necessary guide to the intricacies of the Chinese Civil War a war which decisively shaped the modern Asian world Millard's Review, 1918 Library of Congress Subject Headings Library of Congress, 2004

The Song, Liao, Xia, Jin and Yuan Dynasties Da Xue, The book is the volume of The Song Liao Xia Jin and Yuan Dynasties among a series of books of Chinese Dynastic History The earliest known written records of the history of China date from as early as 1250 BC from the Shang dynasty c 1600 1046 BC and the Bamboo Annals 296 BC describe a Xia dynasty c 2070 1600 BC before the Shang but no writing is known from the period The Shang ruled in the Yellow River valley which is commonly held to be the cradle of Chinese civilization However Neolithic civilizations originated at various cultural centers along both the Yellow River and Yangtze River These Yellow River and Yangtze civilizations arose millennia before the Shang With thousands of years of continuous history China is one of the world's oldest civilizations and is regarded as one of the cradles of civilization The Zhou dynasty 1046 256 BC supplanted the Shang and introduced the concept of the Mandate of Heaven to justify their rule The central Zhou government began to weaken due to external and internal pressures in the 8th century BC and the country eventually splintered into smaller states during the Spring and Autumn period These states became independent and warred with one another in the following Warring States period Much of traditional Chinese culture literature and philosophy first developed during those troubled times In 221 BC Qin Shi Huang conquered the various warring states and created for himself the title of Huangdi or emperor of the Qin marking the beginning of imperial China However the oppressive government fell soon after his death and was supplanted by the longer lived Han dynasty 206 BC 220 AD Successive dynasties developed bureaucratic systems that enabled the emperor to control vast territories directly In the 21 centuries from 206 BC until AD 1912 routine administrative tasks were handled by a special elite of scholar officials Young men well versed in calligraphy history literature and philosophy were carefully selected through difficult government examinations China's last dynasty was the Qing 1644 1912 which was replaced by the Republic of China in 1912 and in the mainland by the People's Republic of China in 1949 Chinese history has alternated between periods of political unity and peace and periods of war and failed statehood the most recent being the Chinese Civil War 1927 1949 China was occasionally dominated by steppe peoples most of whom were eventually assimilated into the Han Chinese culture and population. Between eras of multiple kingdoms and warlordism, Chinese dynasties have ruled parts or all of China. In some eras, control stretched as far as Xinjiang and Tibet as at present. Traditional culture and influences from other parts of Asia and the Western world, carried by waves of immigration, cultural assimilation, expansion, and foreign contact, form the basis of the modern culture of China.
