The SalviSoul Cookbook Karla Tatiana Vasquez, 2024-04-30 A beautifully photographed cookbook that celebrates the vibrant culture and community of El Salvador through 80 recipes and stories from twenty five Salvadoran women. A heartfelt tribute to heritage a testament to the power of storytelling and an invitation to savor the true essence of El Salvador one delicious recipe at a time. Hawa Hassan James Beard Award winning author of In Bibi's Kitchen ONE OF NPR'S BEST COOKBOOKS OF THE YEAR In search of the recipes and traditions that made her feel at home food historian and Salvadoran Karla Tatiana Vasquez took to the internet to find the dishes her mom made throughout her childhood. But when she couldn't find any she decided to take matters into her own hands. What started as a desire to document recipes turned into sharing the joys histories and tribulations of the women in her life. In this collection of eighty recipes Karla shares her conversations with moms aunts grandmothers and friends to preserve their histories so that they do not go unheard. Here are recipes for Rellenos de Papa from Patricia who remembers the Los Angeles earthquakes of the 1980s for more reasons than just fear Flor de Izote con Huevos Revueltos a favorite of Karla's father as well as variations on the beloved Salvadoran Pupusa a thick masa tortilla stuffed with different combinations of pork cheese and beans. Though their stories vary the women have a shared experience of what it was like in El Salvador before the war and what life was like as Salvadoran women surviving in their new home in the United States.

Multiple Voices in Academic and Professional Discourse Sergio Maruenda Bataller, 2011-05-25 The demands of today's society for greater specialization have brought about a profound transformation in the humanities which are not immune to the competitive pressure to meet new challenges that are present in other sectors. Thus lecturers and researchers in modern languages and applied linguistics departments have made great efforts to design syllabi and materials more attuned to the competences and requirements of potential working environments. At the same time linguists have attempted to apply their expertise in wider areas creating research institutes that focus on applying language and linguistics in different contexts and offering linguistic services to society as a whole. This book attempts to provide a global view of the multiple voices involved in interdisciplinary research and innovative proposals in teaching specialized languages while offering contributions that attempt to fill the demands of a varied scope of disciplines such as the sciences professions or educational settings. The chapters in this book are made up of current research on these themes discourse analysis in academic and professional genres specialized translation lexicology and terminology and ICT research and teaching of specialized languages
