Sophie Ristelhueber Sophie Ristelhueber, 2001 Sophie Ristelhueber. Edition Bilingue Francais/Anglais Ann Hindry, Sophie Ristelhueber, 1998 The artworks of Sophie Ristelhueber b 1941 Paris are preoccupied with the ambivalence of signs and semantics as well as the dialectic between reality and the imagination Employing simple captions or long extracts from classic literature combined with her own photographs Ristelhueber creates pieces of nuance and intellectual sublimity

Sophie Ristelhueber Sophie Ristelhueber, Museum of Fine Arts, Boston, 2001 Sophie Ristelhueber Sophie Ristelhueber, 1998 Art and War Laura Brandon, 2012-11-25 This is a truly encyclopedic survey of artists responses both official and personal to the horrors of war Art and War reveals the sheer diversity of artists portrayals of this most devastating aspect of the human condition from the heroic paintings of Benjamin West and John Singer Sargent to brutal and iconic works by artists from Goya to Picasso and the equally oppositional work of Leon Golub Nancy Spero and others who reacted with fury to the Vietnam War Laura Brandon pays particular attention to work produced in response to World War I and World War II as well as to more recent art and memorial work by artists as diverse as Barbara Kruger Alfredo Jarr and Maya Lin She looks finally to the reactions of contemporary artists such as Langlands and Bell to the US invasion in 2001 of Afghanistan and the War on Terror

Blue Cross and Blue Shield of North Carolina Presents Defying Gravity Huston Paschal, Linda Johnson Dougherty, North Carolina Museum of Art, 2003 The centenary of the Wright Brother's outlandish feat prompted the North Carolina Museum of Art to organize an exhibition celebrating their creativity The show and this accompanying fully illustrated publication show how the human obsession with flight has provided fertile ground for contemporary artists working in disparate media Works by artists ranging from Panamarenko and Malcolm Morley to Albert Chong and Vera Lutter illustrate the protean response flight has engendered The exhibition notes the paradoxical gifts of technology and the psychic benefits of fantasy concoctions hybrids merging man machine and natural fliers like birds bats and butterflies book jacket

Crime Scenery in Postwar Film and Photography Henrik Gustafsson, 2019-05-24 This book offers a rare and innovative consideration of an enduring tendency in postwar art to explore places devoid of human agents in the wake of violent encounters To see the scenery together with the crime elicits a double interrogation not merely of a physical site but also of its formation as an aesthetic artefact and ultimately of our own acts of looking and imagining Closely engaging with a vast array of works made by artists filmmakers and photographers each who has forged a distinct vantage point on the aftermath of crime and conflict the study selectively maps the afterlife of landscape in search of the political and ethical agency of the image By way of a thoroughly interdisciplinary approach Crime Scenery in Postwar Film and Photography brings landscape studies into close dialogue with contemporary theory by paying sustained attention to how the gesture of retracing past events facilitates new configurations of the present and future Critical Zones Bruno Latour, Peter Weibel, 2020-10-13 Artists and writers portray the disorientation of a world facing climate change This monumental volume drawn from a 2020 exhibition at the ZKM Center for Art and Media portrays the disorientation of life in world facing climate change It traces this disorientation to the disconnection between two different definitions of the land on which modernizing humans live the sovereign nation from which they derive their rights and another one hidden from which they gain their wealth the land they live on and the land they live from Charting the land they will inhabit they find not a globe not the iconic blue marble but a series of critical zones patchy heterogenous discontinuous With short pieces longer essays and more than 500 illustrations the contributors explore the new landscape on which it may be possible for humans to land what it means to be on Earth whether the critical zone the Gaia or the terrestrial They consider geopolitical conflicts and tools redesigned for the new geopolitics of life forms The thought exhibition described in this book can opens a fictional space to explore the new climate regime the rest of the story is unknown Contributors include Dipesh Chakrabarty Pierre Charbonnier Emanuele Coccia Vinciane Despret Jer me Gaillarde Donna Haraway Joseph Leo Koerner Timothy Lenton Richard Powers Simon Schaffer Isabelle Stengers Bronislaw Szerszynski Jan A Zalasiewicz Siegfried Zielinski Copublished with ZKM Center for Art and Media Karlsruhe Annual Bibliography of Modern Art Museum of Modern Art (New York, N.Y.). Library, 2001 Sophie Ristelhueber Sophie Ristelhueber, 2002 This volume investigating the work of a particular photographer in this case Sophie Ristelhueber comprises a 4000 word essay by an expert in the field 55 photographs presented chronologically each with a commentary and a biography of the featured photographer Disruption in the Arts Lars Koch, Tobias Nanz, Johannes Pause, 2018-08-21 The volume examines from a comparative perspective the phenomenon of aesthetic disruption within the various arts in contemporary culture It assumes that the political potential of contemporary art is not solely derived from presenting its audiences with openly political content but rather from creating a space of perception and interaction using formal means a space that makes hegemonic structures of action and communication observable thus problematizing their self evidence The contributions conceptualize historical and contemporary politics of form in the media which aim to be more than mere shock strategies which are concerned not just with the narcissistic exhibition of art as art but also with the creation of a new common horizon of experience They combine the analysis of paradigmatic works procedures and actions with reference to theoretical debates in the fields of literature media and art of the twentieth and twenty first centuries The essay collection shows how textual visual auditive or performative strategies disclose their own ways of functioning intervene in automated processes of reception and thus work on stimulating a sense of political possibilities The editors acknowledge support from the European Union s Seventh Framework Program FP 7 2007 2013 ERC grant agreement no 312454 Artistic Approaches to Cultural Mapping Nancy Duxbury, W.F. Garrett-Petts, Alys Longley, 2018-09-03 Making space for imagination can shift research and community planning from a reflective stance to a future forming orientation and practice Cultural mapping is an emerging discourse of collaborative community based inquiry and advocacy This book looks at artistic approaches to cultural mapping focusing on imaginative cartography It emphasizes the importance of creative process that engages with the felt sense of community experiences an element often missing from conventional mapping practices International artistic contributions in this book reveal the creative research practices and languages of artists a prerequisite to understanding the multi modal interface of cultural mapping The book examines how contemporary artistic approaches can challenge conventional asset mapping by animating and honouring the local giving voice and definition to the vernacular or recognizing the notion of place as inhabited by story and history It explores the processes of seeing and listening and the importance of the aesthetic as a key component of community self expression and self representation Innovative contributions in this book champion inclusion and experimentation expose unacknowledged power relations and catalyze identity formation through multiple modes of artistic representation and performance It will be a valuable resource for individuals involved with creative research methods performance and cultural mapping as well as social and urban planning

GeoHumanities Michael Dear, Jim Ketchum, Sarah Luria, Doug Richardson, 2011-04-14 In the past decade there has been a convergence of transdisciplinary thought characterized by geography's engagement with the humanities and the humanities integration of place and the tools of geography into its studies GeoHumanities maps this emerging intellectual terrain with thirty cutting edge contributions from internationally renowned scholars architects artists activists and scientists This book explores the humanities rapidly expanding engagement with geography and the multi methodological inquiries that analyze the meanings of place and then reconstructs those meanings to provoke new knowledge as well as the possibility of altered political practices It is no coincidence that the geohumanities are forcefully emerging at a time of immense intellectual and social change This book focuses on a range of topics to address urgent contemporary imperatives such as the link between creativity and place altered practices of spatial literacy the increasing complexity of visual representation in art culture and science and the ubiquitous presence of geospatial technologies in the Information Age GeoHumanities is essential reading for students wishing to understand the intellectual trends and forces driving scholarship and research at the intersections of geography and the humanities disciplines These trends hold far reaching implications for future work in these disciplines and for understanding the changes gripping our societies and our globalizing world

Ecotopia Brian Wallis, International Center of Photography, 2006 Ecotopia brings readers the natural world through the eyes and lenses of some of the most interesting and engaging photographers working today These 30 international artists shatter stereotypes of landscape and nature imagery to examine new concepts of the natural sphere occasioned by twenty first century technologies Book Review Index, 2003 Every 3rd issue is a quarterly cumulation Alfredo Jaar : la politique des images Alfredo Jaar, 2007 Spanning from the 1970s until today this compelling new monograph traces the development of the respected Chilean born New York based conceptualist from his earliest public interventions to his latest installations Some of the highly political subjects range from the plight of Amazonian gold miners to the 1994 genocide in Rwanda and there are several previously unpublished works that the artist created in his hometown of Santiago during Pinochet's repressive military dictatorship as well as numerous works made by collating and rethinking press clippings Working with public interventions installations photography and video Jaar examines the nature of images and their viewers relationships to them His work tackles the very possibility of producing art based on events that we would prefer to ignore and of creating images in a context characterized both by their over abundance and paradoxically by their invisibility Texts by art historians Georges Didi Huberman Griselda Pollock and Nicole Schweitzer and philosopher Jacques Rancière Aerial

Aftermaths Caren Kaplan, 2017-12-21 From the first vistas provided by flight in balloons in the eighteenth century to the most recent sensing operations performed by military drones the history of aerial imagery has marked the transformation of how people perceived their world better understood their past and imagined their future In Aerial Aftermaths Caren Kaplan traces this cultural history showing how aerial views operate as a form of world making tied to the times and places of war Kaplan's investigation of the aerial arts of war painting photography and digital imaging range from England's surveys of Scotland following the defeat of the 1746 Jacobite rebellion and early twentieth century photographic mapping of Iraq to images taken in the immediate aftermath of 9/11 Throughout Kaplan foregrounds aerial imagery's importance to modern visual culture and its ability to enforce colonial power demonstrating both the destructive force and the potential for political connection that come with viewing from above
