Sophies Knapsack:

Sophie's Knapsack Catherine Stock, 1988-01-01 Sophie accompanies her parents on an overnight hike to Purple Cloud Rock Tell Me Who Jessica Wollman, 2009-01-22 Want to know the name of your future spouse Try tarot cards Ouija boards or the Who Meter When Molly and her best friend Tanna discover an antique machine that reveals their future husbands news spreads fast Now every kid in their class is lining up for an appointment Knowing the future is fun at first but when things get sticky Molly wonders if the unknown is preferable to discovering too much too soon This fast and fun novel is perfect for Valentine s Day and everyone who has ever wished for a glimpse into the future Metacognitive Approaches to Developing Oracy Roy Evans, Deborah Jones, 2013-09-13 The acquisition of speech and language represent significant achievements for all children These aspects of child development have received substantial attention in the research literature and a considerable body of theoretical knowledge exists to chart progress from infancy to maturity Cross cultural studies have identified the common purposes served by the acquisition of oral language by children and the essential similarity in the sequence through which speech develops irrespective of geography and culture What is less clear is precisely how children learn to say what they mean and how teachers and parents can support and enhance the development of meaningful speech in their children Until now children s speech has been underused as a means of promoting learning in the formal school setting New requirements within the National Curriculum are trying to address this gap but there remains a lack of clarity as to what this means for practice and how it relates to the broad base of curricular objectives This book brings together a body of work from different countries it offers an improved understanding of how strategies for developing speaking and listening may impact metacognitive awareness and raise standards of literacy and dialogic thinking for all children This book was previously published as a special issue of Early Child Development and Care Reading-Writing Connections Mary F. Imagining Motherhood in Contemporary Irish and Caribbean Literature Abigail L. Palko, 2016-07-25 Imagining Motherhood in Contemporary Irish and Caribbean Literature undertakes a comparative transnational reading to develop more expansive literary models of good mothering Abigail L Palko argues that Irish and Caribbean literary representations of non normative mothering practices do not reflect transgressive or dangerous mothering but are rather cultural negotiations of the definition of a good mother This original book demonstrates the sustained commitment to countering the dominant ideologies of maternal self sacrifice foundational to both Irish and Caribbean nationalist rhetoric offering instead the possibility of integrating maternal agency into an effective model of female citizenship
