Sorrows Company Great Writers On Loss And Grief:

Sorrow's Company Dewitt Henry, 2001-09-16 In this volume DeWitt Henry has collected some of the finest contemporary writing about loss and the grieving process essays that explore emotional trauma in finely crafted prose Debra Spark recounts her sister's death and reflects on all of the ideas that have helped her come to terms with grief William Gibson writes eloquently of his mother's passing with a new understanding of the cycles of life Andre Dubus describes the terrible loss of mobility he suffered in a freak accident and what his pain and disability taught him about the human will Transported back to her native Antigua and to all the complexities of a difficult childhood Jamaica Kincaid confronts her brother's ostracism and death from AIDS All of the pieces reflect in some aspect the tenacity the strength to go forward and to love that has informed these life journeys and the resolve that what matters is not what becomes of us but what we become This collection offers a unique perspective on loss a depth of insight and compassion that only such masterful writers could summon

Lost Bodies Laura E. Tanner, 2018-07-05 If the dying body makes us flinch and look away struggling not to see what we have seen the lost body disappears from cultural view buried along with the sensory traces of its corporeal presence from the Introduction American popular culture conducts a passionate love affair with the healthy fit preferably beautiful body and in recent years theories of embodiment have assumed importance in various scholarly disciplines But what of the dying or dead body Why do we avert our gaze speak of it only as absence This thoughtful and beautifully written book illustrated with photographs by Shellburne Thurber and other remarkable images finds a place for the dying and lost body in the material intellectual and imaginary spaces of contemporary American culture Laura E Tanner focuses her keen attention on photographs of AIDS patients and abandoned living spaces newspaper accounts of September 11 literary works by Don DeLillo Donald Hall Sharon Olds Marilynne Robinson and others and material objects including the AIDS Quilt She analyzes the way in which these representations of the body reflect current cultural assumptions revealing how Americans read imagine and view the dynamics of illness and loss The disavowal of bodily dimensions of death and grief she asserts deepens rather than mitigates the isolation of the dying and the bereaved Lost Bodies will speak to anyone imperiled by the threat of loss

Mothering, Time, and Antimaternalism Mary Trigg, 2023-02-24 The book aims to broaden understanding of the diverse positions and meanings of motherhood by investigating understudied and marginalized mothers rural itinerant African American and Irish Catholic American between 1920 and 1960 Fuelled by anxieties around feminism a perception of men's loss of status and masculinity racial tensions and fears about immigration antimaternalism discourse blamed mothers for a wide range of social ills in the first half of the 20th Century Mothering Time and Antimaternalism considers the ideas practices and depictions of antimaternalism and the ways that mothers responded Religion class race ethnicity gender and immigration status are all analysed as factors shaping maternal experience The book develops the historical context of American motherhood between 1920 and 1960 examining how changing ideas scientific motherhood time efficiency

Death and Dying

John F. Szabo, 2009-11-02 While it can be traced to the 1700s the term thanatology has gained traction in recent decades to refer to the study of death Because of the breadth of the published material and the challenges of discovery in large bibliographic databases and catalogs finding and identifying monographic material on death dying grief and bereavement can be extremely challenging Although there have been several bibliographical resources published on thanatology those titles were incomplete limited in scope or leaned heavily toward one area of the field In Death and Dying An Annotated Bibliography of the Thanatological Literature John F Szabo provides more than 2 200 citations of monographs on the science and study of death and dying Among the areas this volume addresses are the psychological philosophical and attitudinal aspects coping and dealing with the burdens of caregiving and working in the helping professions instructional and educational topics for practitioners primarily health care providers cultural differences in bereavement rituals and grief mourning and loss In addition notable titles on or relating to death and dying in popular culture death themes in literature methods of death or specific ethical policy or public issues are also included when they contribute important information to subject areas on which the book focuses This book will be helpful to students researchers academics caregivers health care professionals psychologists social workers and anyone with an interest in death dying bereavement or the care of the terminally ill
