Black Women's Liberation Movement Music Reiland Rabaka,2023-10-30 Black Women s Liberation Movement Music argues that the Black Women s Liberation Movement of the mid to late 1960s and 1970s was a unique combination of Black political feminism Black literary feminism and Black musical feminism among other forms of Black feminism This book critically explores the ways the soundtracks of the Black Women s Liberation Movement often overlapped with those of other 1960s and 1970s social political and cultural movements such as the Black Power Movement Women s Liberation Movement and Sexual Revolution The soul funk and disco music of the Black Women s Liberation Movement era is simultaneously interpreted as universalist feminist in a general sense and Black female focused This music s incredible ability to be interpreted in so many different ways speaks to the importance and power of Black women s music and the fact that it has multiple meanings for a multitude of people Within the worlds of both Black Popular Movement Studies and Black Popular Music Studies there has been a long standing tendency to almost exclusively associate Black women s music of the mid to late 1960s and 1970s with the Black male dominated Black Power Movement or the White female dominated Women s Liberation Movement However this book reveals that much of the soul funk and disco performed by Black women was most often the very popular music of a very unpopular and unsung movement The Black Women s Liberation Movement Black Women s Liberation Movement Music is an invaluable resource for students teachers and researchers of Popular Music Studies American Studies African American Studies Critical Race Studies Gender Studies and Sexuality Studies

Black Women Film and Video Artists Jacqueline Bobo,2013-09-13 Black women film and video makers have been producing shorts documentaries and films since the early part of this century Unfortunately not only has their work been overlooked by distributors but critical reviews have been few and far between Conceived to redress that omission Black Women Film and Video Artists is the first comprehensive history and analysis of this genre. Gathered here are noted scholars and critics as well as the film video makers themselves who offer insight into the work of underexplored artists. The discussions range from pioneering to contemporary film makers and include artists such as Madeline Anderson, Monica Freeman, Jacqueline Shearer, Kathleen Collins, Julie Dash, Camille Billops, Zeinabu irene Davis, and Michelle Parkerson among others. Contributors include Jacqueline Bobo, Carmen Coustaut, Gloria J. Gibson, C. A. Griffith, Monique Guillory, Carol Munday, Lawrence O. Funmilayo, Makarah Ntongela, Maselila, Jacqueline Shearer, P. Jane Splawn.

The Spirit of Soul Food Christopher Carter, 2021-12-21. Soul food has played a critical role in preserving Black history, community, and culinary genius. It is also a response to and marker of centuries of food injustice. Given the harm that our food production system inflicts upon Black people, what should soul food look like today? Christopher Carter's answer to that question merges a history of Black American foodways with a Christian ethical response to food injustice. Carter reveals how racism and colonialism have long steered the development of US food policy. The very food we grow, distribute, and eat disproportionately harms Black people, specifically, and people of color among the global poor in general. Carter reflects on how people of color can eat in a way that reflects their cultural identities while remaining true to the principles of compassion, love, justice, and solidarity with the marginalized. Both a timely mediation and a call to action, The Spirit of Soul Food places today's Black foodways at the crossroads of food justice and Christian practice.

Recovering the Black Female Body Michael Bennett, Vanessa D. Dickerson, 2001. Recovering the Black Female Body recognizes the pressing need to highlight through scholarship the vibrant energy of African American women's attempts to wrest control of the physical and symbolic construction of their bodies away from the distortions of others.

Treating Black Women with Eating Disorders Charlynn Small, Mazella Fuller, 2020-07-14. The first of its kind, this edited volume provides in-depth, culturally sensitive material intended for addressing the unique concerns of Black women with eating disorders, in addition to comprehensive discussions and treatment guidelines for this population. The contributing authors, all of whom are Black professionals providing direct care to Black women, offer a range of perspectives to help readers understand the whole experience of their Black female clients. This includes not only discussion of their clients' physical health but also of their emotional lives and the ways in which the stresses of racism, discrimination, trauma, and adverse childhood experiences can contribute to disordered eating. Through a wealth of diverse voices and stories, chapters boldly tackle issues such as stereotypes and acculturative stress. Clinicians of any race will gain new tools for assessing, diagnosing, and treating disordered eating in Black women and will be empowered to provide better care for their clients.

Growing Up Postmodern Ronald Strickland, 2002-06-25. This collection takes its inspiration from Paul Goodman's Growing Up Absurd, a landmark critique of American culture at the end of the 1950s. Goodman called for a revival of social investment in urban planning, public welfare, workplace democracy, free speech, racial harmony, sexual freedom, popular culture, and education to produce a society that could inspire young people and an adult.

society worth joining In postmodernity Goodman s enlightenment era vision of social progress has been judged obsolete For many postmodern critics subjectivity is formed and expressed not through social investment but through consumption the freedom to consume has replaced political empowerment But the power to consume is distributed very unevenly and even for the affluent it never fulfills the desire produced by the advertising industry The contributors to this volume focus on adverse social conditions that confront young people in postmodernity such as the relentless pressure to consume social disinvestment in education harsh responses to youth crime and the continuing climate of intolerance that falls heavily on the young In essays on education youth crime counseling protest movements fiction identity formation and popular culture the contributors look for moments of resistance to the subsumption of youth culture under the logic of global capitalism The Trouble with White Women Kyla Schuller,2021-10-05 An incisive history of self serving white feminists and the inspiring women who ve continually defied them Women including Elizabeth Cady Stanton Margaret Sanger and Sheryl Sandberg are commonly celebrated as leaders of feminism Yet they have fought for the few not the many As award winning scholar Kyla Schuller argues their white feminist politics dispossess the most marginalized to liberate themselves In The Trouble with White Women Schuller brings to life the two hundred year counter history of Black Indigenous Latina poor queer and trans women pushing back against white feminists and uniting to dismantle systemic injustice These feminist heroes such as Frances Harper Harriet Jacobs and Pauli Murray have created an anti racist feminism for all But we don t speak their names and we don t know their legacies Unaware of these intersectional leaders feminists have been led down the same dead end alleys generation after generation often working within the structures of racism capitalism homophobia and transphobia rather than against them Building a more just feminist politics for today requires a reawakening a return to the movement s genuine vanguards and visionaries Their compelling stories campaigns and conflicts reveal the true potential of feminist liberation An Entropy Magazine Best Nonfiction Book of 2020 2021 The Trouble with White Women gives feminists today the tools to fight for the flourishing of all The Poetics of Difference Mecca Jamilah Sullivan,2021-10-19 Winner of the Modern Language Association MLA s William Sanders Scarborough Prize From Audre Lorde Ntozake Shange and Bessie Head to Zanele Muholi Suzan Lori Parks and Missy Elliott Black women writers and artists across the African Diaspora have developed nuanced and complex creative forms Mecca Jamilah Sullivan ventures into the unexplored spaces of black women s queer creative theorizing to learn its languages and read the textures of its forms Moving beyond fixed notions Sullivan points to a space of queer imagination where black women invent new languages spaces and genres to speak the many names of difference Black women s literary cultures have long theorized the complexities surrounding nation and class the indeterminacy of gender and race and the multiple meanings of sexuality Yet their ideas and work remain obscure in the face of indifference from Western scholarship Innovative and timely The Poetics of Difference illuminates understudied queer contours of black women s writing Beneath the Surface C.C.
