Farris, 2016-11-25 Recent research in the philosophy of religion anthropology and philosophy of mind has prompted the need for a more integrated comprehensive and systematic theology of human nature This project constructively develops a theological accounting of human persons by drawing from a Cartesian as a term of art model of anthropology which is motivated by a long tradition As was common among patristics medievals and Reformed Scholastics Farris draws from philosophical resources to articulate Christian doctrine as he approaches theological anthropology Exploring a substance dualism model the author highlights relevant theological texts and passages of Scripture arguing that this model accounts for doctrinal essentials concerning theological anthropology While Farris is not explicitly interested in thorough critique of materialist ontology he notes some of the significant problems associated with it Rather the present project is an attempt to revitalize the resources found in Cartesianism by responding to some common worries associated with it Life, Heart, and Soul Amanda Jayne Gilmer, 2022-12-11 This book aims to show that there is more to author Amanda Jayne than mental health Whether it is her personal experience or experience in general It explores her spirituality and faith as a commentator on social issues as a protagonist of love and places she has cherished The book is her first three former books which were published in 2014 brought together to form one larger book Repackaged edited and brought up to
