central questions of spiritual practice with the depth and subtlety they require and with unexpected clarity As Westerners raised in Christianity or Judaism progress in their Eastern practices they often find themselves drawn back toward their own religious roots and the search for the Divinity They may rediscover their need for a personal relationship with the Divine for the practice of prayer openness to conscience and the understanding of will found in the monotheistic religions Many people have not engaged Eastern meditative practices out of devotion to their own religion Those may well find the inner work forms of presence and meditation stripped of cultural trappings to be important adjuncts to the practice of prayer helping open the way to the sacred depths sought in Western religions This authentic substantive and multi faceted spirituality for our time begins where we are and ultimately takes us beyond consciousness toward the abode of the sacred That sacredness can touch and transform each of us if we make the necessary devoted effort This book helps make that possible Soul
