knowledge has expanded immeasurably since the time that one mind could encompass all that was known. Yet now Canada's finest scientists, academics, and specialists have distilled their knowledge of our country between the covers of one volume. Line drawings The Ascetic Artist Eric Lawson Marson, 1979 By approaching the text of Mann's novella from the direction of its classic prefigurations, a new interpretation is possible in which the dynamic of Aschenbach's failure as ascetic artist is of prime importance. Examination of the pervasive structuring use of The Bacchae of Euripides makes it possible to move beyond assertions of isolated motif like use of classic material. At the same time, a clearer view of Aschenbach as failed literary artist is necessary after examination of the relevance of all of Plato's Phaedrus dialogue. After interpretation of the text of Der Tod in Venedig, a final section of the study draws typological, normative, and literary historical conclusions which should result in a re-situating of the novella.
