mercurial star From a Detroit housing project to a Connecticut mansion who is this woman who exacts such loyalty from her fans and such vitriol from her detractors There are pieces on Diana s tantrums true but also jottings on the homes she s lived in the food she eats the cars she drives even her role as muse for writers There is a collection of poetic similes commentators have employed to describe her as well as a mind boggling catalogue of garish tabloid headlines This off beat book admittedly an obsessive fan s unembarrassed send up equal parts delight and censure is a spirited yet sardonic tale that also explores the integration of black music into the white mainstream Frankly Diana led that noble charge What the author delights in is the unorthodox observation and gossipy tidbit that accompanied that revolution The Cast of Fame Riley Brooks,2009 A and Cicely Tyson These women did not simply mirror black activism their performances helped constitute the era s political history Makeba connected America s struggle for civil rights to the fight against apartheid in South Africa while Simone sparked high profile controversy with her incendiary lyrics Yet Feldstein finds nuance in their careers In 1968 Hollywood cast the outspoken Lincoln as a maid to a white family in For Love of Ivy adding a layer of complication to the film That same year Diahann Carroll took on the starring role in the television series Julia Was Julia a landmark for casting a black woman or for treating her race as unimportant The answer is not clear cut Yet audiences gave broader meaning to what sometimes seemed to be apolitical performances How It Feels to Be Free demonstrates that entertainment was not always just entertainment and that We Shall Overcome was not the only soundtrack to the civil rights movement By putting black women performances at center stage Feldstein sheds light on the meanings of black womanhood in a revolutionary time Do What You Gotta Do Ruth Feldstein,2013 Do What You Gotta Do examines the role of black female entertainers in the Civil Rights movement African Americans in the Performing Arts Steven Otfinoski,2014-05-14 Includes profiles of African American performing artists Provides brief biographies subject indexes further reading suggestions and general index Part of a 10 volume set each volume devoted to the contributions of African Americans in a particular cultural field This text contains profiles of some 190 performing artists from choreographer Alvin Ailey to hip hop producer Dr Dre nee Andre Young Each entry provides a biographical sketch of the artist s career and lists readings and other materials of interest The contributions of musicians receive comparatively greater coverage than other artistic endeavors The Diva Next Door Jill Switzer,2005-06-01 You too can be a star If you ve ever dreamed of singing on American Idol or grabbing a Grammy Award The Diva Next Door is for you Switzer s book designed for everyone from total novice on up takes a three step approach how to get physically and mentally in shape for a singing career how to create and fine tune an act and how to shine at auditions and to book gigs Written in the style of a caring girlfriend the book blends practical information with anecdotes musical quotes pep talks and tips Sample cover letters performance agreements references and a diva dictionary add value For the hundreds of thousands of female applicants to such shows as American Idol Nashville Star Today s Superstar Oprah and Star Search and for everyone who has ever dreamed of being a professional singer Written for the complete novice in encouraging girl to girl style but packed with information for all levels Allworth Press an imprint of Skyhorse Publishing publishes a broad range of books on the visual and performing arts with emphasis on the business of art Our titles cover subjects such as graphic design theater branding fine art photography interior design writing acting film how to start careers business and legal forms business practices and more While we don t aspire to publish a New York Times bestseller or a national bestseller we are deeply committed to quality books that help creative professionals succeed and thrive We often publish in areas overlooked by other publishers and welcome the author whose expertise can help our audience of readers Black Diamond Queens Maureen Mahon,2020-10-09 African American women have played a pivotal part in rock and roll from laying its foundations and singing chart topping hits to influencing some of the genre's most iconic acts. Despite this, black women's importance to the music's history has been diminished by narratives of rock as a mostly white male enterprise. In Black Diamond Queens, Maureen Mahon draws on recordings, press coverage, archival materials, and interviews to document the history of African American women in rock and roll between the 1950s and the 1980s. Mahon details the musical contributions and cultural impact of Big Mama Thornton, LaVern Baker, Betty Davis, Tina Turner, Merry Clayton, Labelle, the Shirelles, and others, demonstrating how dominant views of gender, race, sexuality, and genre affected their careers. By uncovering this hidden history of black women in rock and roll, Mahon reveals a powerful sonic legacy that continues to reverberate into the twenty-first century. Women in Music, Karin Pendle, Melinda Boyd, 2005-09-19. First published in 2006. Routledge is an imprint of Taylor & Francis, an Informa company.

Words and Songs of Bessie Smith, Billie Holiday, and Nina Simone, Melanie E. Bratcher, 2007-11-21. This book explores the relationship between three African American women's dance art music sensibilities within the context of a Pan African aesthetic. Its purpose is three-fold: to show commonalities between Bessie Smith, Billie Holiday, and Nina Simone's lives and original compositions; to codify, examine, and evaluate their selected song performances in accordance with the Pan African aesthetic; and to illuminate the vast sources of transformational values that aesthetic analysis of African American song performance can foster. Following concordant procedures and principles of Afrocentricity, the study focuses on Smith, Holiday, and Simone's performances as part of a whole African artistic and cultural value system. The goal of the Afrocentric methodological structure is to locate relevant African dynamics in songs and to promote knowledge for cultural transformation and continuity. Its use in this study provides meta-criteria for analyzing African American music, which the author has used to uniquely argue connections between African cultural memory and African-derived cultural expression.

Race, Nation, and Empire in American History, James T. Campbell, Matthew Pratt Guterl, Robert G. Lee, 2017-12-10. While public debates over America's current foreign policy often treat American empire as a new phenomenon, this lively collection of essays offers a pointed reminder that visions of national and imperial greatness were a cornerstone of the new country when it was founded. In fact, notions of empire have long framed debates over western expansion, Indian removal, African slavery, Asian immigration, and global economic dominance, and they persist today despite the proliferation of anti-imperialist rhetoric. In fifteen essays, distinguished historians examine the central role of empire in American race relations, nationalism, and foreign policy from the founding of the United States to the twenty-first century. The essays trace the global expansion of American merchant capital, the rise of an evangelical Christian mission movement, the dispossession and historical erasure of indigenous peoples, the birth of new identities, and the continuous struggles over the place of darker-skinned peoples in a settler society that still fundamentally imagines itself as white. Full of transnational connections and cross-pollinations of people appearing in unexpected places, the essays are also stories of people being put quite literally in their place by the bitter struggles over the boundaries of race and nation.

Collectively these essays demonstrate that the seemingly contradictory processes of boundary crossing and boundary making are and always have been intertwined Contributors James T Campbell Brown University Ruth Feldstein Rutgers University Newark Kevin K Gaines University of Michigan Matt Garcia Brown University Matthew Pratt Guterl Indiana University George Hutchinson Indiana University Matthew Frye Jacobson Yale University Prema Kurien Syracuse University Robert G Lee Brown University Eric Love University of Colorado Boulder Melani McAlister George Washington University Joanne Pope Melish University of Kentucky Louise M Newman University of Florida Vernon J Williams Jr Indiana University Natasha Zaretsky Southern Illinois University Carbondale
