Roman Fever and Other Stories Edith Wharton,2013-11-05 A side from her Pulitzer Prize winning talent as a novel writer Edith Wharton also distinguished herself as a short story writer publishing more than seventy two stories in ten volumes during her lifetime The best of her short fiction is collected here in Roman Fever and Other Stories From her picture of erotic love and illegitimacy in the title story to her exploration of the aftermath of divorce detailed in Souls Belated and The Last Asset Wharton shows her usual skill in dissecting the elements of emotional subtleties moral ambiguities and the implications of social restrictions as Cynthia Griffin Wolff writes in her introduction Roman Fever and Other Stories is a surprisingly contemporary volume of stories by one of our most enduring writers      Souls Belated Edith

Wharton,2007-12-01 She stayed there for a long time in the hypnotized contemplation not of Mrs Cope s present but of her own past Gannett early that morning had gone off on a long walk he had fallen into the habit of taking these mountain tramps with various fellow lodgers but even had he been within reach she could not have gone to him just then She had to deal with herself first She was surprised to find how in the last months she had lost the habit of introspection Since their coming to the Hotel Belosguardo she and Gannett had tacitly avoided themselves and each other      Short Stories Edith

Wharton,1994-10-21 Presents a collection of short stories about love marriage and divorce including Souls belated The pelican and The other two      Intimate Terrorism Michael Vincent Miller,1996 We live in an age when love and power have become virtually interchangeable Intimate Terrorism is a profound and beautifully written exploration of this condition that draws from psychology literature popular culture current events and the author s own therapeutic practice to examine the contemporary crisis of intimacy and suggest what we all might do about it In doing so it offers one of the most probing readings of the American psyche in years      (Per)Versions of Love and Hate Renata Salecl,2000-06-17 Why when we are desperately in love do we endlessly block union with our love object Why do we often destroy what we love most Why do we search out the impossible object Is it that we desire things because they are unavailable and therefore to keep desire alive we need to prevent its fulfillment Renata Salecl explores the distributing and complex relationships between love and hate violence and admiration libidinal and destructive drives through an investigation of phenomenon as diverse as the novels The Age of Innocence and The Remains of the Day classic Hollywood melodramas the Sirens song Ceau escu s Rumania and the Russian performance artist Oleg Kulik who acts like a dog and bites his audience Per Versions of Love and Hate presents a unique and timely intervention in contemporary debates by questioning the legitimacy of the calls for tolerance and respect by multiculturalism and exploring practices such as body mutilation as symptoms of the radical change that has affected subjectivity in contemporary society      Fiction, a Finding List of Novels, Stories and Other Forms of Prose Fiction in

Chicorel Index to Short Stories in Anthologies and Collections Marietta Chicorel, 1974 A Historical Guide to Edith Wharton Carol J. Singley, 2003-01-30 Edith Wharton arguably the most important American female novelist stands at a particular historical crossroads between sentimental lady writer and modern professional author Her ability to cope with this collision of Victorian and modern sensibilities makes her work especially interesting Wharton also writes of American subjects at a time of great social and economic change Darwinism urbanization capitalism feminism world war and eugenics She not only chronicles these changes in memorable detail she sets them in perspective through her prodigious knowledge of history philosophy and religion A Historical Guide to Edith Wharton provides scholarly and general readers with historical contexts that illuminate Wharton's life and writing in new exciting ways Essays in the volume expand our sense of Wharton as a novelist of manners and demonstrate her engagement with issues of her day Emily Dickinson Emily Dickinson, 2012-04-26 American poet Emily Dickinson is revered around the world and influenced many feminist artists and writers Her work is some of the best known and most quoted or adapted Hope is the thing with feathers that perches in the soul and sings the tune without the words and never stops at all Emily Dickinson Dickinson received a very good education but chose to return home to Amherst Massachusetts where she spent the rest of her life writing more than a poem a day until her death Her refusal to compromise her highly condensed expression meant that only a tiny fraction of her work was published in her lifetime Even today her work feels startlingly modern Dogs are better than human beings because they know but do not tell Emily Dickinson The dearest ones of time the strongest friends of the soul BOOKS This is a superb collection from a truly iconic poet Chicorel Index to Short Stories in Anthologies and Collections , 1974 Lamp ... , 1908 The Book Buyer ,1905      Edith Wharton's Social Register C. Preston,1999-11-24 Edith Wharton's wide reading in the nascent disciplines of anthropology sociology and evolutionary theory of her day plays a role in her social fictions She understands her world in binary terms of belonging and exile of spatial boundaries and exclusions and tribal behaviour She applied that intellectual framework to the struggle to preserve the Old World from the territorial and cultural threat of the Great War In linked thematic sections Claire Preston considers ideas of tribal inclusion and banishment buccaneer figures whose money energy overcomes tribal demarcations and expatriatism the self imposed mode of exile which fed Wharton's apparently chilly empiricism and was the origin of some of her most important work She suggests that against the claims of realism Wharton should in fact be included in the early Modernist canon      Edith Wharton Janet Beer,2002 Professor Beer's study provides an introduction to the whole range of Edith Wharton's work in the novel short story novella travel writing criticism and autobiography The opening chapter provides an overview of recent scholarship in Wharton studies including an appraisal of biographical texts and subsequent chapters treat recurrent themes and ideas in her fiction and non fiction and the American and European context of her work The major novels as well as those less well known are discussed as are contemporary reception of her work American responses to her expatriation her friendships with the leading artists of her day and the influence of the First World War on her work
