Supported by the latest research studies and data, the Sixth Edition provides valuable insights for readers to better understand and work with children. Tell Me What Happened Michael E. Lamb, Irit HersHKowitz, Yael Orbach, Phillip W. Esplin, 2011-08-24. Investigation of child abuse is often hampered by doubts about the reliability of children as only sources of information. Over the last decade, consensus has been reached about children's limitations and competencies. New for the Wiley Series in the Psychology of Crime, Policing and Law, Tell Me What Happened summarizes key research on children's memory, communicative skills and social tendencies, describes how it can be incorporated into a specific structured interview technique and reviews evidence involving more than 40,000 alleged victims. Psycho-Criminological Perspective of Criminal Justice in Asia Heng Choon (Oliver) Chan, Samuel Ho, 2017-03-27. This book offers both theoretical and practical examinations of the psycho-criminology of criminal justice in Asia, with particular emphasis on the Hong Kong and Singapore contexts. It is designed to present the current state of the field, which addresses key topics in three major sub-areas: policing and legal system, offender rehabilitation and treatment, and research and future directions. Written by academics with extensive research experience in their respective topics and senior ranking practitioners in their fields, topics include: psychologists' involvement in different aspects of forensic investigation; police emotional reactions to major incidents; the application of psychological approaches in developing offender rehabilitation and treatment modules to address different offenders' criminogenic needs and legal issues related to the insanity defence; fitness to plead; the jury system and the procedural justice and legitimacy. An important reference for postgraduate courses, this book will be of special interest to criminologists and psychologists working in forensic settings, mental health professionals, policy makers, police personnel, prison officials and legal executives. Chapters include: 1. Youth gang offenders in Singapore; 2. Offender rehabilitation: the Hong Kong Correctional Services Department; 3. Juries as decision makers in East Asian judicial systems: Hong Kong, the Mainland China, South Korea and Japan; 4. The psychology of violent
