Suicide And Bereavement:

Grief After Suicide John R. Jordan, John L. McIntosh, 2011-01-19 here are over 38 000 suicide deaths each year in the United States alone and the numbers in other countries suggest that suicide is a major public health problem around the world A suicide leaves behind more victims than just the individual as family friends co workers and the community can be impacted in many different and unique ways following a suicide And yet there are very few professional resources that provide the necessary background research and tools to effectively work with the survivors of a suicide This edited volume addresses the need for an up to date professionally oriented summary of the clinical and research literature on the impact of suicide bereavement on survivors It is geared towards mental health professionals grief counselors clergy and others who work with survivors in a professional capacity Topics covered include the impact of suicide on survivors interventions to provide bereavement care for survivors examples of promising support programs for survivors and developing a research clinical and programmatic agenda for survivors over the next 5 years and beyond Grief After Suicide: A Health Perspective on Needs, Effective Help, and Personal Growth Karl Andriessen, Dolores Angela Castelli Dransart, Karolina Krysinska, 2021-01-05

Losing a Parent to Suicide Marty Loy, Amy Boelk, 2013-09-05 The suicide of a parent has life long consequences few more traumatic scenarios exist and counselors often struggle for ways to help clients deal with its effects Few understand the pain and life altering effects of these tragedies better than children who have experienced the suicide of a parent Despite this there are few texts that incorporate and evaluate the first person accounts of grief following a suicide while advancing a method for helping Losing a Parent to Suicide analyzes stories of parent suicides and explores the grief and coping processes that follow discovering the strategies methods and modes of therapy that have empowered grieving individuals and helped them rebuild their lives

Postvention in Action Karl Andriessen, Karolina Krysinska, Onja Grad, 2019-12-09 A unique and comprehensive handbook presenting the state of the art in suicide bereavement support Suicide is not merely the act of an individual it always has an effect on others and can even increase the risk of suicide in the bereaved The International Association for Suicide Prevention the World Health Organisation and others have recognized postvention as an important strategy for suicide prevention This unique and comprehensive handbook authored by nearly 100 international experts including researchers clinicians support group facilitators and survivors presents the state of the art in suicide bereavement support The first part examines the key concepts and the processes that the bereaved experience and illustrates them with illuminating clinical vignettes The second and third parts look in detail at suicide bereavement support in all the relevant settings including general practices the workplace online and many others as well as in specific groups such as health care workers In the concluding section the support provided for those bereaved by suicide in no less than 23 countries is explored in detail showing that postvention is becoming a worldwide strategy for suicide prevention These chapters provide useful lessons and inspiration for extending and improving postvention in new and existing areas This unique handbook is thus essential reading for anyone involved in suicide prevention or postvention research and practice
