New Zealand and post apartheid South Africa cricket in England since the 1950s This new book is ideal for students of sport politics history and postcolonialism as it provides stimulating and comprehensive discussions of the major issues including race migration globalization neoliberal economics the media religion and sectarianism Wikipedia , Sold by the Millions Louise Lightfoot,Amit Sarwal,2011-12-08 Australian genre fiction writers have successfully exploited the Australian landscape and peoples and as a result their books are today sold by the millions across boundaries They have created stories that are imaginative visionary and diverse They appeal to local and international readerships and most importantly are thoroughly entertaining thus making them a strong presence in the popular fiction bazaar Sold by the Millions Australia s Bestsellers is the first collection to concentrate on Australia s best selling material that forms the armchair reading of many Australians Leading experts of popular fiction provide introspective pieces on Romance Horror Crime Science Fiction Western Comics Travel Sports and Children s writing so that a wholesome picture emerges of the wide range of reading and research options available for scholars Playing on the Periphery Tara Brabazon,2006-04-18 This is a very distinctive text that will stand out from the standard more staid works in sport studies This is a sophisticated text that will appeal to the maturing readership in the area looking for new perspectives on sport Tara Brabazon is very well known in Australia both in academia and as a journalist Other texts in this area are all edited collections Don Bradman Brett Hutchins,2002-09-23 This fascinating book takes a different look at Australia s all time sporting hero Sir Donald Bradman Mystery Spinner Gideon Haigh,2002-04-25 It is no mystery that today the name of Jack Iverson is virtually unknown For most of his life he was an unexceptional estate agent in Australia He died in obscurity by his own hand at the age of only 58 He was a clumsy fielder and a hopeless batsman But for four years he was the best spin bowler in the world The story of Jack Iverson is one of the most remarkable in the history of cricket Every now and then wrote one journalist there comes a man who can do the right thing the wrong way round Iverson took up cricket at the advanced age of 31 as capriciously as he left it joining a club 3rd XI in Melbourne one day and instantly announcing himself as the most prodigious and improbable spinner of a cricket ball Using a unique technique he appears to have perfects with a ping pong ball during wartime service in Papua New Guinea he doubled back his middle finger and found he could bowl leg breaks top spinners and googlies every one dropped on a perfect length and impossible to pick Within four years he was bowling the Australian Test side to victory over England in the Ashes series of 1950 51 Then in his moment of triumph he retired from international cricket and was never the same bowler again Mystery Spinner is more than that beautifully written life of an elusive and forgotten hero who after his brief burst of celebrity has left strangely little trace in posterity It is also the utterly compelling story of Gideon Haigh s quest to solve the enduring riddle of Jack Iverson s life a quest which led him across Australia following tenuous clues in school registers and county records And above all it is a moving study for an age that presumes sporting prowess to be the ultimate definition of personal identity of how skill is only half the battle in sport and how it takes an extraordinary individual to cope successfully with extraordinary achievement
