An Historical Geography of Tourism in Victoria, Australia Ian

Clark,2014-01-01 A Historical Geography of Tourism in Victoria Australia Case studies is concerned with the emergence of tourism in colonial Victoria Australia It explores a fundamental set of questions how does a tourist site come in to being How does a tourist gaze emerge in a settler society How does an era of discovery segue into tourism And how was the tourist map of Victoria created by settler colonists Through the application of the classical models of MacCannell Butler and Gunn to construct the history of tourism at eight case studies this work shows that Victoria's tourism landscape is dynamic and constantly changing There are many other significant natural and cultural attractions in Victoria and much more research needs to be undertaken to understand more fully the evolution of Victoria's tourism landscape

A Companion to Australian

Art Christopher Allen,2021-04-08 A Companion to Australian Art is a thorough introduction to the art produced in Australia from the arrival of the First Fleet in 1788 to the early 21st century Beginning with the colonial art made by Australia's first European settlers this volume presents a collection of clear and accessible essays by established art historians and emerging scholars alike Engaging clearly written chapters provide fresh insights into the principal Australian art movements considered from a variety of chronological regional and thematic perspectives The text seeks to provide a balanced account of historical events to help readers discover the art of Australia on their own terms and draw their own conclusions The book begins by surveying the historiography of Australian art and exploring the history of art museums in Australia The following chapters discuss art forms such as photography sculpture portraiture and landscape painting examining the practice of art in the separate colonies before Federation and in the Commonwealth from the early 20th century to the present day This authoritative volume covers the last 250 years of art in Australia including the Early Colonial High Colonial and Federation periods as well as the successive Modernist styles of the 20th century and considers how traditional Aboriginal art has adapted and changed over the last fifty years The Companion to Australian Art is a valuable resource for both undergraduate and graduate students of the history of Australian artforms from colonization to postmodernism and for general readers with an interest in the nation's colonial art history

Encyclopedia of Nineteenth-Century Photography John Hannavy,2013-12-16

The Encyclopedia of Nineteenth Century Photography is the first comprehensive encyclopedia of world photography up to the beginning of the twentieth century It sets out to be the standard definitive reference work on the subject for years to come

Its coverage is global an important first in that authorities from all over the world have contributed their expertise and scholarship towards making this a truly comprehensive publication The Encyclopedia presents new and ground breaking research alongside accounts of the major established figures in the nineteenth century arena Coverage includes all the key people processes equipment movements styles debates and groupings which helped photography develop from being a solution in search of a problem when first invented to the essential communication tool creative medium and recorder of everyday life which it had become by the dawn of the twentieth century The sheer breadth of coverage in the 1200 essays makes the Encyclopedia of Nineteenth Century Photography an essential reference source for academics students researchers and libraries worldwide Photography, Humanitarianism, Empire Jane Lydon, 2020-09-13 With their power to create a sense of proximity and empathy photographs have long been a crucial means of exchanging ideas between people across the globe this book explores the role of photography in shaping ideas about race and difference from the 1840s to the 1948 Declaration of Human Rights Focusing on Australian experience in a global context a rich selection of case studies drawing on a range of visual genres from portraiture to ethnographic to scientific photographs show how photographic encounters between Aborigines missionaries scientists photographers and writers fuelled international debates about morality law politics and human rights Drawing on new archival research Photography Humanitarianism Empire is essential reading for students and scholars of race visuality and the histories of empire and human rights

Barbarian Lens Regine Thiriez, 1998-10-20 Part of the prestigious academic book series Documenting the Image this is a fascinating survey illustrated by extremely rare photographs of the burned architectural and landscape complex known as the Rape of the Summer Palace In 1860 Western armies brought ruin to the treasured seat of the Qing emperors near Beijing One hundred and fifty images have been collected to date as a support for an extensive study of the building of the palaces and their subsequent destruction This book is a rigorous analysis of the work and experiences of the European photographers both amateur and professional working in Beijing during this period and as such becomes an account of the development of photography itself Offering a fascinating glimpse into 19th Century China the book gives an historical overview of the political situation Mining Heritage and Tourism Michael Conlin, Lee Jolliffe, 2010-10-04 Many former mining areas have now lost their industrial function and are now turning to tourism for regional revitalization and community economic development The transformation process of these industrial and in some cases derelict mining sites and landscapes into an area of interest for tourists is a major challenge both for planners and for tourism managers It involves complex consideration to both the preservation of the physical site and community mining heritages as well as the health safety and environmental factors inherent in opening these vast sites to the public Mining Heritage and Tourism includes contributions from internationally recognized authorities and is the first book to focus on the issues challenges and potentials in redeveloping mines as cultural heritage attractions which are explored thematically throughout the book It draws on multidisciplinary research to consider the dichotomy between heritage preservation and tourist development goals for mining heritage sites as well as to explore the practical challenges of developing these sites. These themes are illustrated by case studies from a vast range of geographical locations around the globe to offer operational insights into the planning and management of these sites for both heritage and tourism purposes as well as innovative site management techniques. There has never before been a more comprehensive book on mining heritage tourism representing the latest developments in strategy, policy and practices. This book serves as an invaluable guide for students, researchers, academics and practitioners in the areas of Tourism and Heritage Management.

French Consul's Wife Jeanne Allen, Patricia Clancy, 2013-06-18. What a subject for a film but not please Meryl Streep. Together with Dr Patricia Clancy, Melbourne University and Jeanne Allen of La Trobe University, elegant translation and able notes, the memoirs make for a piquant, informative, variegated and often startling read. Miegunyah Press. You've done it again, Derek Whitelock. Weekend Australian. A former Parisian courtesan, circus performer and dancer, Celeste de Chabrillan scandalised Melbourne society when she arrived in 1854 as the wife of the French Consul. These memoirs give a vivid firsthand account of the two and a half years she spent in gold-rush Victoria. Celeste's arrival in Melbourne was preceded by the publication of her memoirs describing her illegitimate birth, miserable adolescence and celebrity career as a courtesan, bareback rider and polka dancer. As a result, she was dubbed the consul's harlot, spouse and ostracised by society. Despite this, Celeste did not avoid the public gaze and continued to employ her literary talents. Her memoirs are of a life spent in the village of St Kilda, the diplomatic and government house circle and the Ballarat gold fields. Her descriptions of a public hanging, Governor Hotham's beer ball and her own Ball for the Victims of Crimea reveal her as a woman of great energy and wilful temperament.
