Harlequin Empire David Worrall, 2015-09-30 Under the 1737 Licensing Act Covent Garden Dury Lane and regional Theatres Royal held a monopoly on the dramatic canon This work explores the presentation of foreign cultures and ethnicities on the popular British stage from 1750 to 1840 It argues that this illegitimate stage was the site for a plebeian Enlightenment Monthly Literary Recreations, Or, Magazine of General Information and Amusement, 1807 The Publishers' Circular and Booksellers' Record, 1923 Arts & Humanities Citation Index, 1989 Dictionary Catalog of the Dance Collection New York Public Library. Dance Collection, 1974

The Journals and Miscellaneous Notebooks of Ralph Waldo Emerson Ralph Waldo Emerson, 1975 Like Goethe Ralph Waldo Emerson wanted to be the cultural historian and interpreter of his age its business politics discoveries The journals and notebooks included in this volume and covering in depth the years 1848 to 1851 reflect Emerson's preoccupations with the events of these often turbulent years in America On his return to Concord from his successful lecture trip to England and visit to Paris in 1847 1848 Emerson resumed his familiar life of writer thinker and lecturer Impressions of his recent European travels appear in passages in this volume which are used later in English Traits 1856 He writes of technological and scientific discoveries in America and abroad one of which the discovery of ether was to involve his brother in law in legal embroilment He ponders the meaning for the age or the times of reports on the Dew textile mills in Lawrence Massachusetts of faster steamers daily breaking records of new geological and paleontological findings of theories of race and many other matters that were coming increasingly to the fore in the mid nineteenth century Many passages on these topics used first in lectures later appear in his essays Fate Wealth and Power in Conduct of Life 1860 He was also adding to his critical biographies for Representative Men 1850 with special attention to

Swedenborg always a source of particular interest for Emerson Between 1850 and 1853 Emerson traveled farther west to lecture than he had hitherto ventured to Pittsburgh Cincinnati St Louis and many other cities in the midwest One notebook in the present volume records his customary percipient observations of places and people encountered during these western trips The tragic drowning of Margaret Fuller Ossoli and her family on her return from Italy in 1850 prompted Emerson to consider a collaboration on her life and writings and another notebook printed here contains her memorabilia including original entries by Emerson Memoirs of Margaret Fuller Ossoli by Emerson William Henry Charming and James Freeman Clarke was published in 1852 Passage of the Fugitive Slave Law in 1850 brought to a boil something in Emerson that had long been simmering Concerned with slavery freedom and the future of the black population in America more than his public record had shown he now delivered himself of an outburst pained vitriolic ironic a more sustained response to a single issue than appears elsewhere in all his journals In this latest move in a compounding national tragedy he could see only chicanery and deterioration the crumbling of America's moral fiber He saw the Fugitive Slave Law in a larger context of a sick age like Tennyson and Arnold in England he lamented in moods of spite and chagrin the loss of faith and of an old world where political men of honor stood firm for the moral law Most of his journal outburst went into his addresses The Fugitive Slave Law 1851 and 1854 A New English Dictionary on Historical Principles Sir James Augustus Henry Murray, Sir William Alexander Craigie, Henry Bradley, Charles Talbut Onions, 1888
