Sunset at River's Edge James C. Pottkotter, 2004-09-01 Chance and Circumstance Carolyn Brown, 2009-12-23 The long awaited memoir from one of the most celebrated modern dancers of the past fifty years the story of her own remarkable career of the formative years of the Merce Cunningham Dance Company and of the two brilliant iconoclastic and forward thinking artists at its center Merce Cunningham and John Cage From its inception in the 1950s until her departure in the 1970s Carolyn Brown was a major dancer in the Cunningham company and part of the vibrant artistic community of downtown New York City out of which it grew She writes about embarking on her career with Cunningham at a time when he was a celebrated performer but a virtually unknown choreographer She describes the heady exhilaration and dire financial straits of the company s early days when composer Cage was musical director and Robert Rauschenberg designed lighting sets and costumes and of the struggle for acceptance of their controversial avant garde dance With unique insight she explores Cunningham s technique choreography and experimentation with compositional procedures influenced by Cage And she probes the personalities of these two men the reticent moody often secretive Cunningham and the effusive fun loving enthusiastic Cage Chance and Circumstance is an intimate chronicle of a crucial era in modern dance and a revelation of the intersection of the worlds of art music dance and theater that is Merce Cunningham s extraordinary hallmark Books In Print 2004-2005 Ed Bowker Staff, Staff Bowker, Ed, 2004 Sunset , 1984 Hamilton Heights and Sugar Hill Davida Siwisa James, 2024-04-02 Explores four centuries of colonization land divisions and urban development around this historic landmark neighborhood in West Harlem It was the neighborhood where Alexander Hamilton built his country home George Gershwin wrote his first hit a young Norman Rockwell discovered he liked to draw and Ralph Ellison wrote Invisible Man Through words and pictures Hamilton Heights and Sugar Hill traces the transition of this picturesque section of Harlem from lush farmland in the early 1600s to its modern day growth as a unique Manhattan neighborhood highlighted by stunning architecture Harlem Renaissance gatherings and the famous residents who called it home Stretching from approximately 135th Street and Edgecombe Avenue to around 165th all the way to the Hudson River this small section in the Heights of West Harlem is home to so many significant events so many extraordinary people and so much of New York s most stunning architecture it s hard to believe one place could contain all that majesty Author Davida Siwisa James brings to compelling literary life the unique residents and dwelling places of this Harlem neighborhood that stands at the heart of the country s founding Here she uncovers the long lost history of the transitions to Hamilton Grange in the aftermath of Alexander Hamilton s death and the building boom from about 1885 to 1930 that made it one of Manhattan s most historic and architecturally desirable neighborhoods now and a century ago The book also shares the story of the LaGuardia High School of Music Art one of the fi rst in the nation to focus on arts and music The author chronicles the history of the James A Bailey House as well as the Morris Jumel Mansion Manhattan s oldest surviving residence and famously known as George Washington's headquarters at the start of the American Revolution. By telling the history of its vibrant people and the beautiful architecture of this lovely well-maintained historic landmark neighborhood, James also dispels the misconception that Harlem was primarily a ghetto wasteland. The book also touches upon the Great Migration of Blacks leaving the South who landed in Harlem, helping it become the mecca for African Americans, including such Harlem Renaissance artists and luminaries as Thurgood Marshall, Count Basie, Duke Ellington, Mary Lou Williams, Paul Robeson, Regina Anderson, Andrews, and W. E. B. Du Bois.

Endings in the Cinema Michael Walker, 2020-03-13. This book offers a new way of thinking about film endings. Whereas existing works on the subject concentrate on narrative resolution, this book explores the way film endings blend together a complex of motifs, tropes, and other elements to create the sense of an ending. That is, it looks at endings as endings. Drawing on a wide range of examples taken from films of different periods and national cinemas, the author identifies three key features which structure the work: thresholds and boundaries, water, and above all, the beach. The beach combines water and a boundary and is the most resonant of the key sites to which film endings gravitate. Although beach endings go back to at least 1910, they have increased markedly in post-classical cinema and can be found across all genres and in films from many different countries. As the leading example of the book's argument they illustrate both the aesthetic richness and the structural complexity of film endings The Magazine of History ,1908 Scientific American ,1892 The Magazine of History with Notes and Queries ,1908
