Terrell Davis,Adam Schefter,1998-08-28 On a sun filled January day running back Terrell Davis stood atop a fire truck that slowly wound through downtown Denver during the Broncos Super Bowl victory parade while 650 000 raucous fans were chanting TD TD TD It was a moment of exhilaration and accomplishment for Terrell whose record setting three touchdown performance against the Green Bay Packers earned him the Super Bowl XXXII MVP As he waved and gave the Mile High Salute Terrell couldn t help but think of how unbelievable it all was how it had taken so much to get to this shining moment If I were to jump outside my body and get a chance to read my life story I would say Man that s amazing I ve never heard seen or read a story like this never Terrell had faced hurdles that make carrying a football seem easy in comparison There were blinding migraine headaches that had haunted him from the age of seven and almost removed him from the Super Bowl a capricious father who toughened Terrell in unorthodox ways yet helped mold him into the person and player he is today an arrest in college that could have cost him everything he ever wanted a contentious relationship with his head coach at the University of Georgia that made him more determined than ever At Lincoln High School before being switched to fullback during his senior year Terrell was a nose guard attracting scant attention from colleges At Long Beach State his college of choice the football program folded two seasons after Terrell arrived At Georgia Terrell saw his stock and reputation almost irreparably damaged all leading to him becoming the 196th player and 21st running back selected in the 1995 NFL draft Finally in his rookie year with the Broncos he battled from being a sixth string running back to starter in the span of only one
