Terrorism and Tyranny James Bovard, 2025-06-25 The war on terrorism is the first political growth industry of the new Millennium So begins Jim Bovard's newest and in some ways most provocative book as he casts yet another jaundiced eye on Washington and the motives behind protecting the homeland and prosecuting a wildly unpopular war with Iraq For James Bovard as always it all comes down to a trampling of personal liberty and an end to privacy as we know it From airport security follies that protect no one to increased surveillance of individuals and skyrocketing numbers of detainees the war on terrorism is taking a toll on individual liberty and no one tells the whole grisly story better than Bovard

The Friend, 1879

Ethics Without Intention Ezio Di Nucci, 2014-08-28 Ethics Without Intention tackles the questions raised by difficult moral dilemmas by providing a critical analysis of double effect and its most common ethical and political applications The book discusses the philosophical distinction between intended harm and foreseen but unintended harm This distinction which according to the doctrine of double effect makes a difference to the moral justification of actions is widely applied to some of the most controversial ethical and political questions of our time collateral damages in wars and acts of terrorism palliative care euthanasia abortion and embryo research self defence suicide and self sacrifice It is also crucial to the now notorious theoretical cases of the trolley problem and the knobe effect Di Nucci approaches the doctrine of double effect from four key directions its historical origins which can be traced further back than the classic attribution to Aquinas its theoretical coherence which is the subject of a lively contemporary debate in philosophy its moral intuitiveness which has always been taken for granted but has recently begun to be questioned and finally its relevance to the difficult moral and political decisions of our time An engaging and comprehensive introduction to the doctrine of double effect

Negotiating the Religious in Contemporary Everyday Life in the "Islamic World" Roman Loimeier, 2021 The contributions to the present volume show that the countries that are often presented in the literature as forming part of a stereotypical and seemingly monolithic Islamic world in fact represent considerable diversity From Iran to Senegal we encounter a vast array of social and religious structures historical trajectories political regimes and relative positions of societies and individuals We encounter also in many different and often unexpected ways the individual in multiple contexts The present volume presents perspectives on everyday life in Muslim societies beyond the spectacular From a broad academic background in Islamic and Iranian studies social anthropology sociology philosophy and history its contributors show that everyday life as well as religious practice in countries as diverse as Senegal Niger Egypt Tunisia and Iran is not informed by one single Islamic tradition but rather by multiple and often surprisingly different modes of religiosity and non religiosity
